1 in 23,000,000
Betting on the Bible and its Historical Accuracy
By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman
The Bible displays a mathematical miracle, dealing with HISTORICAL EVENTS, that shows all other "holy writings" to be cheap, shallow, superficial, religious nonsense.

There are over 23 million books in the Library of Congress; of them all, one stands out above all others. It is the Authorized King James Version of 1611. Using history and prophecy, Dr. Ruckman shows how the Holy Bible surpasses all other so-called "sacred books" and human philosophies from the very first verse. The mathematical phenomena discussed in this work have never been duplicated by any author, any scientist, or any computer in six millennia. A man is a deluded fool to bet against the Book.
ONE OF 23, 000, 000

Other Materials Available

By Dr. Peter S. Ruckman:

* Bible Believer’s Commentary Series
* Beginning and Advanced Bible Study Material
* In-Depth Apologetics
* Numerous Pamphlets on Selected Topics
* Variety of Gospel Tracts
  * Audio Cassettes
  * Video Cassettes

Also Available:

* AV 1611 Bibles
* Study Helps
* Concordances
* Biographies
* Evangelism Material
* Material by Other Authors and Speakers

For FREE Current Catalog write:

BIBLE BAPTIST BOOKSTORE
P. O. Box 7135 Pensacola, FL 32534

www.kjv1611.org
One of 23,000,000

BY

PETER S. RUCKMAN
B.A., B.D., M.A., Th.M., Ph.D.

BIBLE BAPTIST BOOKSTORE
P. O. Box 7135 Pensacola, FL 32534
Table of Contents

Chapter 1
One Among 23,000,000

Chapter 2
“An Up-To-Date Translation in the Language of the People”

Chapter 3
A Thankless Task Which Makes No Sense At All

Chapter 4
What the United Nations Has Against the Book

Chapter 5
One Chance Out of 10^{6000}

Chapter 6
The Greatest Sinners on Earth: The Writers Who Wrote the “Holy Scriptures”

Chapter 7
The Orders That Follow a Good Book Review

Chapter 8
The Bloody Book vs. The “Godly” Sinners

Chapter 9
How to Write Future History, Backwards
Chapter 1
One Among 23,000,000

I once read, somewhere, that there were 23,000,000 books in the Library of Congress (1986), plus 5,000,000 “booklets” or pamphlets. I have not as yet been able to check this out to affirm whether it “be so” or “not be so.” Having only read about one book a day since I was ten years old, I have only had time to consume somewhere around 24,800 books. This would not count sixty-six books that I have been through more than 150 times; but they are all under one binding (Genesis-Revelation). I stopped counting those readings back in 1994, but have continued to read them.

It may be that I have wasted valuable time reading that one Book through that many times when I could have added another 150-plus books to my reading conglomerate. But somewhere down the line in 1949 I came to the conclusion that I had, at last, run across ONE Book that contained more absolute truth in it concerning past, present, and future history than any book anyone could find in the Library of Congress.

So I traded in 23,000,000-plus books for one Book. I made a good deal; I never lived to regret it.

This one Book was written in English, not Greek or Hebrew.

And this one Book had an interesting comment in it on the subject of “Books.” It said: “And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh” (Ecc. 12:12).

Furthermore, it implied (in a rather sarcastic fashion) that highly educated “bookworms” had a tendency to lie when confronted with the one Book I was reading.

Isaiah 29:1: “And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed:”

Psalm 62:9: “Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.”

The thing that impressed me was when I tried to find the “men of high degree” in Psalm 62:9, I found they were totally missing from Young’s Concordance (p. 241), although that “bookworm” had listed twenty-six references on “degrees.” What had “bugged” Brother Young so badly about the statement in Psalm 62:9? So much so that he caused it to be missing from a 1090 page Concordance with more than 163,500 references in it?

I discovered, further, that “much learning” (Acts 26:24) did not create all of the liars, for Isaiah 29:11 said that ignorant people had an alibi for rejecting the Book just like the “learned” had an alibi.

Isaiah 29:12-14: “And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned. Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men: Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

Since books have always been my “strong suit”—I am a thoroughly addicted “bookworm”—I picked up this one Book and began to spend a great deal of time in it: ten to forty pages a day for over fifty years.

Of course, I noticed that it actually had sixty-six books under one cover, and those books had a number of things to say about “books.” It contained books about “covenants” (Exod. 24:7), books dealing with “generations” (Gen. 5:1; Matt. 1:1), a book of “life” (Rev. 20), a seven-sealed book (Rev. 5:1-8), and even a “book of the Lord” (Isa. 34:16).

That last one really interested me.

It indicated that God had written a book. What a remarkable thing! Imagine God being an “author”! Imagine a Creator of time, space, and the universe writing words on pieces of paper! Fantastic! What had He written? Who copyrighted it? Could I get a hold of a copy? Moses said that it was God’s Book because God Himself had written it:

Exodus 32:32-33: “Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.”

Was Moses lying? Mohammed pulled off a stunt like that. Since he was an illiterate pagan, he couldn’t write anything, so he sat down and shot off his mouth and let other people write what he had said; then he called what he had said “Allah’s words” from Allah, instead of himself. He wanted someone to think that the reference in 2 Peter 1:21—written more than 800 years before he was born—was a reference to him! When someone finished collecting 114 “Surahs” of Mohammed’s philosophical and theological speculations, they put it in a book and claimed that “God” (Allah) had written the book.

I have read the Koran through somewhere around five times, and at least twice I have examined it from Surah 1 to Surah 114, with the footnotes. Naturally when I examined it, I was looking for a list of prophecies, for the illiterate polygamist who dictated it claimed to be Allah’s prophet: Allah’s one true prophet. What could be more natural, therefore, for any reader of the Koran than to examine it for prophecies?

After all, in the one Book that Moses wrote (“The Book of the Law” containing five books: The Pentateuch), I found eight dozen prophesies dealing with future historical events that would (and did) take place on this earth in HISTORY after Moses was “long gone.”

I was in for a surprise. Mohammed was not a prophet, let alone “Allah’s” prophet. He was totally unable in 856 pages (The Noble Quran, Dr. Muhammad Taqi-ud-Din Al-Hilai and Dr. Muhammad Muhsin Khan, King Fahd Complex, Madinah, Arabia) to predict ONE SINGLE HISTORICAL EVENT that took place during his lifetime or after he was dead. Moses had him “ninety-six to zip.” I found actually more than eight dozen historical prophecies in 248 pages of Moses (Gideon AV Bible). Mohammed was unable to do that in three times as many pages. Mohammed must have been a bull-shooting liar.

Mohammed, for example, could not prophesy when he would die, where he would die, or how he would die. Moses knew when and where (Deuteronomy). Elijah knew when he was going up to glory (2 Kings 2), and all of his students (2 Kings 2: 5) knew it. Jesus Christ listed TEN details of His coming death—Mohammed said He lied because, according to Mohammed, Jesus Christ never did die—before He died. “Professional jealousy,” was it? Is that why Mohammed cancelled the death of Jesus Christ? Because Mohammed could not prophesy HIS OWN DEATH?

All of the “prophecies” in The Koran that turn out to be historical were stolen from a Book that was complete (and in circulation) more than 900 years before Mohammed was born.

“Allah’s prophet” could not utter one prophecy about anything that would take place on this earth after he was dead, at least not in any kind of detail. When I continued to read the one Book, I found out that “Allah’s prophets,” in that Book, had spoken and written more than 200 prophecies, anywhere from five to four hundred years before they were fulfilled, and all of them came to pass literally in history; none were religious speculations.

After having read John 21:25 more than eighty times, it became clear that if God had ever written a Book it would have been in a very abbreviated form. Not only because it would be futile to go on endless literary excursions (see Ecc. 12:12), but it would have clouded God’s main purpose in communicating His thoughts to His creatures. He would say enough so that no man would have any excuse for sinning; no man could claim ignorance regarding the Creator or His Creation; no man would ever accept science, religion, philosophy, or “hearsay” over the words that God would write; and every man (regardless of race, age, color, or location) could find out how he should live while he was on earth.

Surely, that would be enough essential information to put into ONE Book. The “added benefits” or “accumulated interest” would be a list of more than 500 historical events that would not occur until after the death of every man, woman, and child before A.D. 1999.

So the problem was simple.

If God did write a Book, where was it?

By 1949, I had already read the Shastas, the Vedas, The Zend-avesta, The Rig Veda, The Puranas, The Bhagavad Gita, The Analects of Confucius, the Tripitaka (the Triple Basket), the Koans and Satons of the Zen Masters, large portions of The Talmud, The Zohar, and The Book of Mormon, plus Blavatsky’s Secret Doctrine, and M. B. P. Eddy’s Key to the Scriptures, but when I laid any of them (or all of them) alongside this one Book I had picked up in 1949, I was shocked to see that the greatest leaders of seven of the world’s major religions (Mormons, Buddhists, Moslems, Hindus, Confucianists, Jews, and Christian Scientists) were unable to put on paper ONE historical prophecy dealing with anything that would happen in actual history after their founders were dead.

When it came to literal, actual HISTORY, the so-called “sacred scriptures” of “other faiths” turned out to be dead shrimp. They were mute. They were as incoherent as Quasimodo. They must have had bats, as well as bells, in the “belfry.” When examined, they all turned out to be religious bullshooters. The Gaons, Sofers, and Rabbis, had some material, but all of it had been taken from the Old Testament which was completed more than 400 years before they began to “ply their trades.” All genuine prophecies in Judaism had to be taken from “the law” and “the prophets” (Luke 24:44).
But “the Law and the Prophets” were in my one Book.

Strange interlude.

Would a real “God” write a Book making more than 500 historical prophecies without knowing they were going to take place? Was He spinning a roulette wheel to get His information? “Tic, tac, toe, three in a row?” “Heads or tails?”

Would a real God write something that you could call “Holy Scripture” without knowing what was going to take place before He wrote it, while He was writing it, or AFTER He wrote it?

What would be “HOLY” about it, if He had written it?

Anyone could have written “Holy Scriptures” like that.

Some God who had no knowledge of the FUTURE must have written those other “sacred scriptures” and “Noble Korans,” etc. “The scripture of truth” (Dan. 10:21) does not fail to predict histories that deal with weather conditions, nations, military engagements, alliances, religions, apostasy, churches, and individuals, anywhere from ten to two thousand years ahead of time. For example:

Genesis 3:15: “And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.” That was 1,500 years ahead of time.

Genesis 49:10-11: “The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. Binding his foal unto the vine, and his ass’s colt unto the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes; ” That was 1,500 years ahead of time.

Zephaniah 3:8: “Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.” That was 2,600 years ahead of time.

Isaiah 11:1-8: “And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots: And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD; And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears: But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins. The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice’ den.” That was 2,700 years ahead of time.

Micah 7:14: “Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.” That was 3,319 years ahead of time.

Daniel 2:34-35: “Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.” That was 2,500 years ahead of time.

Isaiah 2:1-7: “The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the L ORD’s house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the L ORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the L ORD from Jerusalem. And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the L ORD. Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers. Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots: ” That was 2,630 years ahead of time.

Joshua 10:12: “Then spake Joshua to the L ORD in the day when the L ORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.” That was 3,439 years ahead of time.

Zechariah 14: “Behold, the day of the L ORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee. For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. Then shall the L ORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south. And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.

And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark: But it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light. And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.

All the land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin’s gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king’s winepresses.

And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited. And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour. And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance. And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain. And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD’S house shall be like the bowls before the altar. Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts. That was 2,430 years ahead of time.
Isaiah 14:1-3: “For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob. And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors. And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve.” That was 3,800 years ahead of time.

Psalm 22:1, 18: To the chief Musician upon Aijeleth Shahar, A Psalm of David. “My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring? … They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.” That was 990 years ahead of time.

The more you study the United Nations’ mongrel “sacred scriptures” of their “other faiths” the more it becomes indelibly impressed on your mind that all you are dealing with is a pack of self-righteous, deluded, pious, speculating egotists who are trying to bluff their way through history by competing with God’s Book—if God ever did write a Book!

Psalm 12:6-7: “The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.”

Exodus 32:32: “Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin--; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written.”

Not one religious howler at the moon, in that pack, could handle the material found in that one Book. For to qualify as “competitors,” they had been required (by the Author of that Book) to “declare us things for to come.” (Isa. 41:22-23: “Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come. Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.”)

They filled an Empire State Building full of pieces of paper (papyri, vellum, parchment, etc.) with opinions about morals and religious beliefs. Not one of them wrote “Scripture.” They couldn’t qualify. They couldn’t “make the grade.” They couldn’t “get to the playoffs.” Or put it this way: they were all eliminated in the “semifinals.” None of them got to the Super Bowl.

After 140-plus times through the “one out of twenty-three million,” I am now absolutely (and thoroughly) convinced, beyond any shadow of a doubt, that it is, basically, a HISTORY BOOK, not a religious book.

It has no business being on any shelf that contains such tabloids as The Koran, The Book of Mormon, the Catholic Catechism, the Noahic Laws, The Code of Hammurabi, The Big Fisherman, the Key to the Scriptures, The Zendavesta, The Robe, the Song of God, The Diamond Sutra, Mary Had a Little Lamb, The Talmud, The Midrash, The Kaballa, Peter Pan, and In His Steps.

The Book never appears in any College or University “curricula” as a course in “history.”
It will always be found in some course on “Religious Philosophy,” “Philosophy of Religions,” “Religious Faiths and Beliefs,” “Ancient Religions,” etc.

Why wasn’t it found in the Science or Mathematics “curricula”?

It contains a mathematical phenomenon that no mathematician or evolutionist or physicist or “space-age” scientist has been able to duplicate in six millennia (see p. 80-84)!

Where does this illimitable conceit come from that makes a stupid, twenty-first century scientist reject the most objective “neutral” science at his command (MATHEMATICS), while bragging about how objective he is in dealing with religious literature?

Here is a Book written by forty male authors, writing from three continents, through a period of more than 1,800 years, and it displays amathematical miracle, DEALING WITH HISTORICAL EVENTS, that no computer could display with the ability to record 50,000,000 pieces of information per second. What particular quirk of perverted logic would lead any “modern man” to overlook such a Book and classify its authors with Joe Smith, Moroni, Mother Teresa, Gautama Buddha, Mohammed, Kahlil Gibran, Jean Dixon, Mother Shipton, Nostradamus, a Pope, a Cardinal, a “monk,” or a monkey?

I will tell you what the “quirk” is, the monkey wrench in the machinery: it is that this history Book presents a negative picture of “man” from Genesis 3 to Revelation 20. Did “men” write it? Why would they attack themselves for 1,200 pages (a Gideon AV, 1960)? Why would a Jewish Book (Rom. 3:2), written by Jews (more than forty of them), attack JEWS in more than 1,000 verses covering more than 400 pages of writing?

Where is ONE book among the 23,000,000 books to match such a Book?

It isn’t there.

With 23,000,000 books in the Library of Congress, there is not ONE book that was written in such a fashion: “no, not one! no, not one!”

Alongside that Book The Koran is cheap, shallow, superficial, religious nonsense. It only had one author and he couldn’t write; but more than that, he didn’t dictate one page condemning anyone to Hell who adopted his religion.

The Book condemns them; it condemns the religious nation who wrote the Book!

Isaiah 1:12-14: “When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts? Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.”

Matthew 8:11-12: “And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

1 Thessalonians 2:14-16: “For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews: Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men: Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. ” What a strange “religious” Book!
Chapter 2

“An Up-To-Date Translation in the Language of the People”

Let us start to look at this mathematical marvel (see p. 80-84) that defies any rational or logical explanation by any educator or intellectual with an IQ of 300.

We will start at the “beginning” (Gen. 1:1).

It is found in a Book called The Torah, by the Jews, to whom “the oracles of God” were given (Rom. 3:2). We often call it The First Book of Moses, and with the other four it comprises the Pentateuch (Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy).

When confronted with an historical “beginning,” Charlie Darwin (the monkey man) with all his orangutans, tarsiers, lemurs, apes, and gorillas, suddenly thrust their snoots into the banana bunch and declare that Moses was not the author of Genesis. Graf, Wellhausen, Semler, Kuenen, and DeWette immediately join him (dragging with them over 60,000 students [1800-1990] from three continents) and declare that the authors of Genesis were an unknown “J” writer and an unknown “E” writer who, with the help of an unidentified “L” writer and an further anonymous “redactor,” got the book together—“in a pig’s eye.”

So at the first shot of the Royal Canon from the King of Kings and Lord of Lords (see Col. 1:12-17), man invents a “Fairy Tale for Grown-ups” to avoid dealing with his own history. It is supported by conjectures that are so flimsy you could blow smoke through them. (For a similar “repeat, command performance” see the interminable nonsense put out by BJU, PCC, Liberty University, Judson, Howard, Mercer, Stetson, BBC, Swete, Kutilek, Kenyon, Briggs, Nestle, et al., on a “B.C. Septuagint,” or the brand of nonsense put out by Robertson, Warfield, White, Arlin Horton, Bob Jones III, Hot Dog Hymers, Donald Waite, Theodore Letis, Zane Hodges, Wilbur Pickering, et ah, on the “verbally inspired, original autographs” being the Christian’s final authority and final court of appeals. Same ridiculous claptrap from Amos and Andy to Abbott and Costello.)

But we are not going to deal with the mess that depraved sinners stumble into when “making many books.” We are going to deal with one Book, and you can get a copy in K-Mart, Wal-Mart, or any bookstore in America.

Well, sir! One fine “day,” somewhere before history began, the Alpha and Omega said to Himself: “I think I’ll write me a Book. From what I could tell by that last rerun I made of 4000 B.C. to A.D. 3000 every Tom, Dick, and Harry and every Mary, Jane, and Sally down there got hung up on writing books. There is going to be—when I get history started!—that Book of the Dead and old BaBa and Ipuwer and The Eloquent Peasant, The Priest of Sneferu (or Snafu or whatever), Instructions to a Son, and all of those Vedas and Shastas and Puranas and that there Gilgamesh Epic. If I couldn’t write a better book than that pulp literature I’d turn this thing over to the gods (Dagon, Molech, Baal, Thor, Zeus, Jupiter, et al.) and let them run it (see Jer. 10:11).”

So about 2,500 years after the Lord God got history going (Gen. 1-Exod. 20), He called Moses up into the mount (Exod. 24:12, 18) and said, “Now looka here, son. I’m about to enter the publishin’ business, and I want to turn out a ‘best seller’ that will outsell any other five books combined. Think I can do it?” “Certainly,” said Moses, “you’re El Shaddai, the Almighty. With you, all things are possible.”

“But I can’t settle for that,” said the Lord, “I want my Book to be so outstanding that people have to quote it who don’t believe it, and people have to use it that despise it. At the same time, I want it to be so simple that every important thing in it can be taught to a seven-year-old child. Think I can do that?”

“Absolutely! Positively!” said Moses. “You made every scribe in the world; naturally you could outwrite any in the whole bunch. Have at it and give me a copy when it comes off the press!”

“Well, now,” said God, “there’s a little catch there.”

“I mighta knowed it,” grumbled Moses. “So far (Exod. 1-19) there’s been a ‘catch’ in everything I’ve touched since I got linked up with you.”

“Now, now,” chided the Holy Father, “we learn by doing! ‘Tribulation worketh patience!’ So here is the catch; YOU are going to be the pen pusher!”

“Me? Who, me? I can’t write a book like you’re talking about! You don’t really think I’m going to write that Book, do you?”

“Well now, I don’t know why not. Who else could do it? Aren’t you ‘learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians’ (Acts 7:22)? You’ve had forty years out there in the wilderness, herdin’ them sheep, to develop your writing skills, making notes in your diary. I think you’re just the man for it.”

“Well, how long will it take to write this Pulitzer Prize Winner?”

“Cheer up, now, Moses. Don’t be so dogged about it. You’ve got forty days now, and I’m going to give you forty more days later (Deut. 10:10). In that time, you can easily write five books!”

“Five books? Good night, nurse! Five books in eighty days? I’m not Louis D’Amour or Agatha Christie. That would be one book every sixteen days!”

“Well, they are going to be very short books, Moses. I’ll allow you ‘bout sixty pages per book on the average, and then we’ll put them in one Book, and we’ll call it ‘the book of the law’ (2 Kings 22:8). Why, Moses, you only will have to write about five pages a day.”

“Okay, okay. But where do I get all my material from?”

“Me, of course.”

“I know, Lord, but do I copy it from something you wrote, or are you going to dictate to me, or what?” “Well, to make sure this Book stays alive after you write it, I’ll speak it to you; naturally, I’ll breathe when I speak (2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:21), so what you write down will be ‘given by inspiration.’ I’ll talk; you write.”

“All righty,” said Moses, “but what am I going to write with? All those scholars, later, are going to say that nobody back here in 1500 B.C. had pens that you dip in ink so I can’t use a pen (Judg. 5:14).”

“Oh, never mind that conceited bunch of half-baked ignoramuses (Hosea 7:8),” said the Lord. “I got all the ink you need and plenty of good newsprint to write on, and if you run out of ‘nibs’ I can hustle up two dozen goose quills before you can say ‘ball point.’” So the Lord God got a good soft rock for Moses to sit on, made him a horseshoe-shaped desk, loaded him up with 500 sheets of papyrus, and then gave him a nice, thin, smooth slab of marble that he would use for a clipboard. Then he laid out two dozen quill pens on the desk along with a half a pint of Higgin’s indelible Indian ink and gave him some lettering pens with round tips, thick tips, flat tips, and fine tips for making Hebrew letters.

When Moses was finally comfortable, the Lord said, “Now, we’ll work one hour on and fifteen minutes off for nine hours at a stretch. That’s a ten hour day. You can get a good eight hours sleep every night; we’ll only write in the daytime.”

So they began (Gen. 1:1).

God said: “Write these words, ‘In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.’”

“Oh, we’ll get that later,” said the Lord (Isa. 42:5, 45:18). “No hurry. You know these people. They are always bellyaching about not having a mediator (Job 9:32-33) between me and them (Exod. 20:19-20). It’s best to let you ‘mediate’ for awhile (Exod. 32:13-14; Acts 7:35; Gal. 3:19-20) till I show up.”

“Till YOU show up? Till you show up WHERE? You already ‘showed up’ (Exod. 19:18) before I came up here!”

“Well, Moses, you’re getting ahead of yourself. None of them have ever seen me yet like you’ve seen me, right (Deut. 34:10)?”

“Well, no, they haven’t. You mean, then, that you are going to use me as a mediator till you show up to them like you did to me (Deut. 34:10)?”

“No, I’ll have to do a little better than that when ‘all flesh’ sees me (Isa. 40:3-5). If I didn’t go beyond my appearance to you, they would think that only angels could mediate (Acts 7:30; Gal. 3:19). You follow me?”

“Not to any kind of a conclusion, no.”

“Well, some day, Moses, I’m going to be a Mediator (1 Tim. 2:5) instead of you or some angel. But you’re not writing about that now; just write down: ‘In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.’”

“You want that ‘Elohim’ as ‘God’ or ‘Gods’?”

“Well, what did I say!?”

“Oh, you said ‘God,’ Lord, but ‘ELOHIM’ is a plural. It can be translated as ‘GODS’.”

“Well, while you’re talking about dumb ways to start a book, wouldn’t that really be stupid? You know that the ‘gods’ (Psa. 82) didn’t create ANYTHING (Jer. 10:10).”

“Oh yeah, I forgot that!”

“You have a habit of forgetting things, buddy. Like, say ‘circumcision’ (Exod. 4:24-27)?
Now just write. You don’t have to give me any lessons in Hebrew grammar. When you get to ‘SHAMAYIM’ translate it as ‘heaven.’ Yeah, yeah, I know it is a plural, but I’m not going to make any ‘HEAVENS’ (plural) just yet. And later, if the Greek (plural, “ouranoi”) doesn’t sound right, change it with the English (singular, ‘heaven,’ Matt. 13:24, 31, 33, 44-45, 47).

And so the Book began. It had to begin with God because He was there BEFORE any beginning (Exod. 3:14), and it had to begin with WORDS because God said that He was “THE WORD” (1 John 1:1-2; John 1:1-7).

This whimsical, innocent-looking little sentence of ten words (describing a historical event) turned out to be a sentence that attacked SIX of mankind’s favorite RELIGIONS! The statement was a flat, blatant, open denial of:

1. Man’s belief in evolution and the eternity of matter (the Universe). There went Thales, Socrates, Plato, Anaximander, Anaximenes, Pythagoras, Aristotle, Darwin, and the National Geographic Society out the window! Wham!

2. Man’s belief in Materialism or Pantheism. God was separate from his creation, and preceded it. There went Spinoza, Descartes, Animism, Hinduism, William James, John Dewey, Bertrand Russell, and the “Space Age” scientists.

3. Man’s belief in Atheism. The word “God” was in the verse. There went M. M. O’Hair and the National Association for the Advancement of Atheism, along with Voltaire, Rousseau, Bertrand Russell, Bob Ingersoll, and every other fool (see Psa. 14:1 for the word I used; I didn’t originate it).

4. Man’s belief in Fatalism—a Universe blindly following its own path of “evolution” without regard to its human inhabitants. In Genesis 1, God intervenes in time and creates an earth for the purpose of inhabiting it (see Isa. 45:18).

5. Man’s belief in Polytheism: God created it, not “gods.” And there went 300,000,000 fake deities out of India and its environs. There went Greek mythology and all of the “Athenians” (Acts 17) with it.

6. Man’s belief in Relativism (relative time, relative speed, relative distances, relative morals, etc.). Good-bye Heisenberg, Einstein, Hawking, and all of your buddies. The “OBSERVER” is (has been and always will be) present to “observe the phenomena, from HIS standpoint”; no one needs any man as an observer for anything. What any man thinks about any time, distance, space, speed, or “MORAL value” is irrelevant. From his standpoint (that of the “observer”— see all of Einstein’s trashy nonsense), man can pretend anything. He can invent any standard of measurement he pleases, and it will affect nothing. God already determined an evening and a morning where a twenty-four hour day (see John 11:9), and there were 360 days in a lunar year (see Gen. 7:11, 8:4-5, 13).

What any man, between 4000 B.C. and A.D. 2000 THINKS about those absolute definitions of time (or any alien on Mars or Jupiter or any “observer” on Alpha Draconis or Alpha Centauri, etc.) is nothing but trivial trash. Studying their “figures” would not be worth the time it would take to blow your nose.

God had attacked the religious convictions of His own creation BEFORE He created them (Acts 17:28); He did it on purpose as soon as He began His history Book. He had inserted HIMSELF into literal history.

That is why all Popes, since 1918, have rejected the literal historical accounts found in Genesis 1-11 and adopted the German Rationalist’s famous “Urgeschichte” (“Supra-history; above history”). Westcott and Hort (RV, 1885) did exactly the same thing; so did Adolph Hitler (an evolutionist), Charles Darwin (an evolutionist), and every major secular college and university in America and Europe.

Some might allow that some God “kicked things off,” but He would not be allowed to enter history as an active, intelligent, manipulating, guiding force intent on carrying out definite designs which He Himself WROTE ABOUT.

“God” is to be absolutely confined (nay, bound hand-and-foot!) to “religions.” He is to permanently stay within the bounds assigned to Him by the “measure of all things” (man!) so He will not interfere with mankind’s plans.

So Moses has been stuck “carrying the ball” (or the puck, or whatever). His Superior is about to dictate to him the most irregular, non-conventional, outlandish “religious” book that would ever show up on this planet, bar none, including more than 23,000,000 in ‘Hershey City” (Washington, D.C.: 90 percent chocolate and 10 percent nuts).

This so-called “religious” book is going to be a detailed running account (and commentary) on human events that take place between 4000 B.C. and A.D. 3000. Unlike all of the other religious books, this one is going to “waste” page after page after page describing such things as military musters (Num. 1), Medal of Honor winners (2 Sam. 23), people eating chili (Gen. 25), women eating their children (2 Kings 6), someone raping his sister (2 Sam. 13), carpenters’ losing ax heads (2 Kings 6), and list after list of “nobodies” who lived and died without affecting the life of any person on earth in relation to religions, faiths, “sacraments,” belief in God, church membership, Golden Rules, the Ten Commandments, or the after-life (Gen. 10, 36; 1 Chron. 1-10, 23-26, etc.).

Hundreds of them never tried to attain Prajna or Samadhi (or Nirvana); no one worked at getting rid of their “Karma.” None of them sat cross-legged and mediated about anything. None of them mentioned being headed for Heaven or Hell (let alone “Purgatory”), and the listing of their names has no more to do with anyone’s “religion” than it has to do with the building of the Brooklyn Bridge.

In this most bizarre of all esoteric books, the Author is going to spend more time describing the construction of a gray tent on the backside of a desert (Exod. 25-40) than He is going to spend on the creation of man or the solar system, plus the Virgin Birth of Christ, the Blood Atonement of Christ, the New Birth, and how to bring “peace on earth.”

No other so-called “scripture” of any religion on the face of this earth would think of beginning with a discussion of what two people were to EAT, but the word “eat” (also “eaten”) occurs seventeen times in the second and third chapters of this weird “Scripture.”

No one in the first 100 pages of any other “scripture” is given over to the results of eating the wrong fruit off a wrong tree.

Observe! Here is “Anah” finding some mules in the wilderness (Gen. 36:24). Man, what a revelation! Ain’t that a “blessing”!? And look at this “nugget.” An assassin “whacked” a victim by stabbing him under the fifth rib. Man, what revelations a man can gain through meditating on his “God consciousness”! Glory, Alleluia! And look at this one. Boy, aren’t you glad that God put THIS in His Book to give you light. “Jerahmeel had also another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam” (1 Chron. 2:26). Get it? Boy, what a divine revelation!

What in the name of Allah, purgatory, “Hail Mary,” election, absolute contrition, Golden Rules, mantras, meditation, Ramadan, Yang and Yin, Karma, rosaries, novenas, indulgences, prayer wheels, candles, Yoga, Fatima, Shehadas, regeneration, or the Sabbath does any of that stuff have to do with anything “religious” in anybody’s “religion”?

ABSOLUTELY NOTHING.

Furthermore, there are literally hundreds of verses in the Holy Scriptures like those, which concern themselves with things like how much barley Ruth brought home to her mother-in-law (Ruth 2:17) or how much some silver bowl weighed (Num. 7:25) or how not to cook “a kid” in milk (Exod. 23:19) or how a woman got cut up (Judg. 19), or a King (1 Sam. 15:33); then (so help me, Gaia, Ohm, Fatima, and Elvis Presley!), here is a description of how Hiram transported timber (1 Kings 5:9), who somebody’s sister was (Gen. 36:22) and how big somebody’s porch was (1 Kings 7:6-7).

Why, the Book doesn’t deal with anything religious in a thousand verses. In Numbers 34, you will find twenty-nine verses that fail to deal with one article of faith in which any person on this earth ever professed to believe, no matter what religion they adhered to, not even Atheism.

On an “off night,” read 1 Chronicles 23:1-4 and tell me what that has to do with any religious truth any sinner (or saint) should know about anything that deals with sin or righteousness, God or the Devil, Heaven or Hell, this life or the life to come, or even his own conduct, thoughts, or speech on this earth. The chapters are blanks if you are looking for “more spiritual light.”

The “trouble of it is” is that in the midst of describing genealogies, real kingdoms (Dan. 2, 7), real nations (Genesis-Deuteronomy), real historical incidents (Jeremiah 40-52), and information data on real people (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), the words “Lord” and “God” keep popping up. They pop up in HISTORICAL accounts. As we have said before, this is absolutely Verbotten in all “scholarly communities” where historians are striving to be objective and factual in recording history. “God” can have no part in any history written by any sinner who has rejected the historical eyewitness of 500 eyewitnesses who witnessed an event (1 Cor. 15) in HISTORY (1 Cor. 15:6).

For diversions’s sake (as well as amusement’s sake), let us examine this peculiar history book that Moses is writing. Let us examine it more closely since it has been classified by every Christ-rejecting, God-hating, religious Bibliophobia on five continents as a “religious” Book.

Our pen pusher (Moses) is going to be “up to his neck” with his penmanship because this Book he is working on is to be censored, revised, ridiculed, forbidden, and burned by several million sinners. It will never be allowed to be studied in any school classroom as “history” because it is a history book. In America you will not be able even to bring this book into a classroom till you are over nineteen years old. It was forbidden to be carried, sold, or read in nine nations between 1946 and 1994, and today, Red China still considers it to be the most dangerous Book on earth. No “modern man” can tolerate the history it records or the history it predicts.
Chapter 3
A Thankless Task Which Makes No Sense At All

Moses had not completed three pages when he ran into some “birth problems.” He had managed to survive Genesis 1 and 2, in spite of hesitating to record that business about God making a woman out of a man (a “womb-man”). If it had been a cloning job, it would have made more sense, but this fifth rib “bone stuff” made him a little nervous. Yet when he considered it and compared it with all the “learning of the Egyptians” (Acts 7:22) to which he had been exposed at the University of Alexandria, he decided it was probably no more improbable than Darwin making a man out of lava. After all, the bone would have had all of the amino acids and polypeptide chains and “viable proteins” to do the job, while a red-hot planet, cooling down from 6,000 degrees, would be a very unlikely progenitor for the human race.

After all, Kant’s Nebular Hypothesis had just as many holes in it as the Gilgamesh Epic or the Diamond Sutra.

“You will notice,” remarked the Lord, “that Adam did not say ‘she shall be call a Chimpanzee because she was taken out of a Lemur or a Tarsier.’”

“Yes,” said His scribe, “I did notice that.”

“I decided to make her a ‘motherless child,’” quipped the Lord. “That way she couldn’t have evolved from anything, no matter what Pope John Paul II believed.”

“Well, that makes Adam and Eve brother and sister, right? Siblings?”

“Yes, it does. That is so a man can call his wife his ‘sister’” (Song of Sol. 4:12, 5:1).

“But isn’t that ‘incest’ or something?”

“Well, not right now at the beginning. Right now that is just ‘or something.’ I’ll deal with that incest matter later (Lev. 20:17).”

So on went Moses’ quaint literary production. He got safely through Genesis 3 up to verse 15, but there he had to stop for a few minutes. He wiped his pen quill and said grimly, “I guess you know, Lord, that no woman has any ‘seed.’ You gave the seed to the male. This here woman don’t have nothin’ when it comes to ‘seeds.’”

“Yes, I know that, smarty; I made both of them, so I ought to know.”

“Well then, what is this ‘seed of the woman’ stuff?”

The Supreme Potentate (1 Tim. 6:15) laughed (Psa. 2:4). “Oh, that’s just some of my ‘foolishness’ (1 Cor. 1:25); I like to kid around sometimes. What I am getting ready to do is bring the wisdom of the wise” (1 Cor. 1:19-20) to nothing (Isa. 29:14), so I thought I’d play a little joke on them (1 Cor. 1:25). I’m going to let a woman have a baby (Jer. 31:22) without any male being involved.”

“Oh, you mean ‘artificial insemination’?”

“No, Moses, I mean ‘Divine conception.’ You’ve still got a hangover from that Seminary down at Alexandria University. That faculty down there (Plato, Origen, Pantaenus, Clement, and Philo) were so stupid they thought that Gatorade was a welfare program for crocodiles.”

“Jes’ write what I tell you: ‘IT SHALL BRUISE THY HEAD’.”

“Why didn’t you say, ‘HE shall bruise thy head?’

“Because,” said the Lord, sighing, “because, Moses, if you would just keep your trap shut and write we could get something done. The rest of the verse is going to read ‘BRUISE HIS HEEL’ so the ‘it’ is a ‘HE.’ Got it?”

“Yessir, but why ‘IT’ first?”

“Because before this woman’s ‘seed’ is a ‘HE,’ He is a ‘holy thing’ (Luke 1:35). But I’m going to write that down in another Book; a medical doctor is going to write that business down (Col. 4:14).”

“Well, just how many more books and writers are you going to drum up? I thought you said there would be just five books.”

“Well, to tell the truth, Moses, I’m going to write a whole library of books—about sixty-six of them. Then I am going to bind them under one cover. You get the privilege of writing the first five. After that, I’m going to let some kings and priests write some and some prophets and judges write some and even some soldiers and fishermen.”

“Fishermen (Mark 1:16-17)? Why, I never met a fisherman in my life who could spell ‘heterogeneous’ or ‘hierarchical’!”

“True, but if they don’t get the ‘original autograph’ exactly right, I’ll fix it up later; plenty of time (Psa. 12:6-7).”

So Moses wrote, and the Lord was already planning a P.S. for His closing lines in Deuteronomy, for He was planning (2,000 years later) to prevent anyone from gainsaying His authorship (John 5:45-47; Matt. 22:32).

Well, the “drafted” scribe got along fairly well through about eight chapters of Genesis without too much trouble, but he did stall one time when he got to Genesis 9:23-27.

“What is this Japheth stuff?” Moses asked. “I’ve been dealing with all of those Hamites for more than eighty years (Exod. 1-15), and we still got some of them with us (Exod. 12:38). But who is ‘Japheth’? My mama told me all about Shem (Exod. 1:8-9), and I heard all kinds of things about Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and their line from her; but I never ran into any Japhethites.”

“Well, maybe not personally, but nearly all of those textbooks they used down at Alexandria were written by Japhethites. Check your Bibliography for those graduate courses and see what you find there. All of those blockheads are from Japheth: Darwin, Plato, Hegel, Aristotle, Descartes, Cicero, Astruc, Wellhausen, Kant, Nestle, Dewey, Rousseau, Russell, Gentile, Tillich, Barth, Brunner, Robertson, Griesbach, Lachmann, Tischendorf, Planck, Newton, Wordsworth, Dickens, Emerson, Shakespeare, Goethe, and so forth.”

“You said they were ‘blockheads’? All of that bunch?”

“Well, not actually. I use the epithet as a hyperbole. What I meant, technically, was they were blockheads when it came to knowing me or understanding me or, as far as that goes, understanding ANYTHING you are now writing (Gen. 1-12). But during your lifetime, they aren’t going to get in your way. Later (Dan. 2, 7; Zech. 12-14; Rev. 13-18) is somethin’ else!”

“What did you mean then when you said his descendants would get ‘spread out’?”

“That means that I intend to let them conquer the whole world, run up to the top of Mount Everest, photograph the bottom of the Marianna Trench, discover both of the ‘poles,’ and before I get through with ‘em, I’m going to plant ‘em on the moon.”

“Wow!” exclaimed the scribe, “they must be a super-race then, white supremacy and all of that Nazi stuff!”

“No,” said the Almighty, “none of ‘that stuff.’ I just gave Japheth a break on material things; you know, communications, transportation, inventions, and all of that carnal paraphernalia. Japheth is going to be your ‘elder brother,’ but I’m giving the spiritual blessings to Shem. That’s your crew, Moses; you are a Shemite. For goodness sake, don’t be ‘ANTI-SHEMITIC’!”

“Well, where are all of these blessings? We just got out of Africa by the skin of our teeth, after working there as slave laborers for eighty years, and we still aren’t in any ‘land of milk and honey.’ We’re havin’ a hard time getting even bread and water (Exod. 15-16).”

“Those are carnal things, stupid,” said the Lord. “Lookee here! Do you have any idea of what you are doing, right now? Why, Moses, you are being given ‘the oracles of God’ (Rom. 3:2). Isn’t that more important than your ‘necessary food’ (Job 23:12)? Man, listen to me! Before this mess is over I’m going to give your people the covenants, the promises, the glory, “and the service of God” (Rom. 9:4). And if that ain’t enough, I’m going to give this world a Saviour from sin through your people (John 1:11, 31; Matt. 1:21). Now shut up and write!!”

To make a long story short, Moses got through things pretty well, even Genesis 22, which caused him to ask a lot of questions. He enjoyed writing Genesis 28-36 because it detailed his family’s background and lineage and spoke about the past of the hundreds of thousands that were waiting for him down at the bottom of the mount (Exod. 32).

Penning Genesis 49, he was almost through with his first book. But when he got to Genesis 49, things began to fall apart again.

“Now, Lord, I don’t mean to be argumentative or stubborn, but … .”

“Oh, no! Not you. Of course not. Not you (Exod. 3:11, 13, 4:1; Num. 20:9-13), Moses!”

“Well, Lord, the problem is that I am getting fed up with this kid Joseph. I’ve had to write more than ten chapters with the spotlight on this seventeen-year-old kid who grows up in Egypt. How come he is more important than his brothers and more important than the creation of Adam and Eve or the creation of the heavens and the earth?”

“Well, I thought that he had a very interesting life, so I thought that you might be interested in writing his biography.”

“What on earth is so ‘interesting’ about a king having a nightmare (Gen. 41:7) or some kid cooking goat’s meat instead of deer meat (Gen. 27) or someone worrying about eating meat off of a thigh bone (Gen. 28) or some spoiled brat (Gen. 37) running around in a colored coat?”

“Well, those things actually happened in history, Moses. I’m giving you historical material that no one else is ever going to write about in the next 3,000 years.”

“But Lord, who in the world is going to take the time out to read an historical mess like this when page after page of it has been nothing but trivia like you had me write in Genesis 8:4, 9, 11, 10:8-9, 11:10-19, 12:11-20, 16:1-6, 21:22-28, etc. What makes a pile of dull details ‘the oracles of God,’ would you tell me?”

The Lord smiled. “Well, ole’ buddy. ‘MY THOUGHTS ARE NOT YOUR THOUGHTS, NEITHER ARE YOUR WAYS MY WAYS” (Isa. 55:8). Git to writin’!”

“Okay, okay, okay! But I don’t see how ‘Huz’ and ‘Buz’ (Gen. 22:21) or a lying slut (Gen. 38) or the purchase of a grave (Gen. 23) or some guy getting a bride for a Bedouin sheep herder (Gen. 24) has anything to do with anybody’s religion.”

“For the fourth time, Moses, this is not going to be a religious book; it is going to be a history book!”

“All right, have it your way (Prov. 21:1), but do you mean to tell me that making booths for cattle (Gen. 33:17) or Reuben shacking up with his father’s wife (Gen. 35) is important HISTORY? Do you call that ‘history’?”

“It’s more than that Moses; those are the ‘oracles of God’.”

“I just gave you fifty-two details of a man’s life who will not be born until 1,450 years after you’re dead (Gen. 37-49). I told you what He would do, how He would be treated, what would happen to Him, what He would have to suffer, the circumstances attending His suffering, His future exaltation, and the purpose for it.”

Moses was silent.

“You just wrote an oracle that would put the Sphinx and the Oracle of Delphi on the block for sale. You are looking at My Oracles; that’s them. Now write!”

“Yessir,” said the scribe, picking up his pen.

“AND,” said the Almighty, loudly, with emphasis: “Make sure you didn’t forget to give your readers the names of Aholibamah’s kids (Gen. 36:14) and that record of Onan’s premature ejaculation (Gen. 38:910)”

“Yeah, man! Ugh! Gross, man, gross. Some ‘oracle’!”

On he went until he got to Genesis 49:10-11. At that point, Moses simply dropped his pen and stared into outer space. He couldn’t make heads or tails out of what he had just written. After a while he picked up his pen again and went on; that is, he went on until he got to verse 24. This time he did not pick up his pen for several minutes. He stared at what he had written (1 Pet. 1:10-12) and then turned to face his “dictator” (a “dictator” dictates, like a “diction” machine; get it?).

The Most High God was smiling. His face bore that peculiar expression on it that one often sees on the faces of women who are in possession of information that no one else knows about, and they are enjoying the discomfort (or distress) of someone from whom they had been trying to get attention and had been unable to get it.

“Ye-e-ss?” said the Lord. “Having a little problem there, are we?”

Moses pushed back his rock (i.e., his chair), rubbed his hands together in a professional manner, gave his beard a couple of unnecessary strokes, and then looked the Lord “right smack in the eyeballs” (Deut. 34:30) and asked:

“Would you mind terribly tellin’ me what in the ever-loving-blue-eyed world I’m writin’ about?”

The Lord laughed again (Prov. 1:26). “Can’t figure it out, can you?”

“Nope,” said the scribe, “I sure can’t. Not with a figuring machine.”

“Well,” said the Almighty, “I can keep a secret if I want to (Deut. 29:29; Acts 1:7), or I can reveal a secret if I want to (1 Cor. 2:9-10). In your case, I’ll give you a break, although I am not going to zero you in on ALL of the details.”

Moses blinked but said nothing.

“What you’re actually looking at there, Moses,” He continued, “is that ‘seed’ of that ‘woman’ I told you about back in the third chapter of your book.”

“You mean Eve’s first-born was not the ‘seed’?”

“No way, Jose! (Excuse me, ‘Moses’!) ‘He was a murder from the beginning’ (John 8:44; 1 John 3:12). He was the Devil’s seed (2 Cor. 11:1-3), but you don’t know anything about that yet; but neither will the doctors, Popes, priests, lawyers, college professors, or ‘space age scientists’ 2,500 years after you’re dead and gone to be with me (Deut. 34:6; Matt. 17:1-5; Jude 9).”

“Then WHO is the woman’s ‘seed’?”

“My SON.”

“Your WHAT?!”

“My Son. I am going to beget a Son (Heb. 1:1-8; Rom. 1:3-4).”

“B-b-b-but Mohammed said … !”

“Never mind that old, demon-possessed epileptic. I’m going to have a Son some day.”

Moses shook his head in unbelief. His eyes were beginning to “bug out” a little, and his jaw had gone slack. He was actually turning a little pale.

“B-b-b-but Buddha taught… !”

“Never mind that lethargic slouch who deserted his wife; the lazy loafer never worked a day in his life (2 Thess. 3:10). I’ve got teenaged farmers down there who have more callouses on their hands in a year than that loafing sluggard had on his hands in twenty years. I’m going to beget a Son, and since He will be Son of a King (Dan. 4:37), I’ll make Him a King, and He can get Himself a throne (Heb. 1:8) and a kingdom (Luke 19:12). But come to think of it, if all He inherited was my kingdom (Dan. 7:27), it would be just a kingdom of God. My Son is going to be ‘the Son of man’ (Matthew, Mark, etc.), and He ought to get a man’s throne on this earth (Luke 1:32-33), so I’ll make Him ‘King’ of your people: “THE JEWS” (Matt. 27:37).

“You are writing about part of His history in Genesis 49; see it in verses 10-11 and 24?

“But Lord, that would be future history; all this stuff I wrote about in Genesis 37-49 was past history!”

“You just thought it was, ole’ buddy! I slipped so much future history in on you, when you weren’t aware of it, that it would take another fifty pages to explain it. Without your knowledge, I just gave you the name of the tribe my Son will come from, the number of ‘brethren’ He will work with, what His own kinfolk will do with Him, what He will do for them, how He will wind up in prison, who will be on either side of Him when He dies, how and where He will be sacrificed (Gen. 22), His miraculous birth, the promises connected with Him, His divine nature, what He will eat and drink at the ‘last supper,’ the kind of people He will be sold to, how He would enter Jerusalem, the kind of wife He would marry, what He will do the first time He comes and the second time He comes, and what will attend His birth."

Silence. Moses was in a state of shock; just like any member of the ECC or UN (and all other Bibliophobiacs) would be if they had been presented with such material. The Book was a shocker. (It is more shocking today [A.D. 2000] than it was in 1500 B.C.).

Finally, Moses blurted out a question. “What is His name?”

“Oh, go back and read what you wrote (Gen. 32:29)” said the Lord. “A lot of people are going to ask that question (Prov. 30:4; Judg. 13:17-18). The word is ‘MUM’.”

“Did you say ‘NUN’?”

“No, Joshua was ‘the son of Nun,’ but ‘Joshua’ is a good word too. The answer to your question is ‘the word is Mum’.”

“Your Son, then, will be called ‘MUM’?”

“No, no, no, Moses. The word ‘mum’ simply means I’m keepin’ my mouth shut; I’m not telling anyone what His name is now. You’re forgetting, son, I’m writin’ this here Book in street language (Koine Hebrew) so folks can understand it. The word MUM means ‘the answer is zero’; no comment is to be made.”

Moses shifted uncomfortably. Then he got up and stretched. It was more a silent objection than a needed exercise. Then he sat down again and slowly began to ‘leaf through’ his writings. He stopped occasionally and stared at a verse.

“SHEPHERD” (John 10). “STONE” (Dan. 2). “HATED HIM” (John 15:25). “SCEPTRE” (Matt. 25:31). “SHILOH” (Heb. 7:2). “ASS’S COLT” (Zech. 9:9). “BLOOD OF GRAPES” (Isa. 63:1-7). Unfortunately, none of the cross references that explained his writing (John, Zechariah, Matthew, Hebrews, Isaiah, and Daniel) were to be written till 1,000-1,400 years after Moses laid down his pen permanently.

He flipped back several pages. He had written about two men that took Gentile brides (Isaac, Gen. 24, and Joseph, Gen. 41). He had said Joseph was the “second highest ruler in Egypt” (a type of this world). “A GOLD CHAIN”? What could that signify? Not one Greek or Hebrew scholar in the next 2,500 years could even guess what it signified. God the Father had given two men as “types” of the Son and the Holy Ghost and indicated “Deity” with gold in both cases; the second gold chain was for a ruler over a dominion and so was the third one (Dan. 5). Both recipients had just interpreted PROPHECIES that no magician, scientist, or “wise man” was able to interpret.

Go back to page 13 and read that passage in Isaiah again (Isa. 41:22-23).

On read Moses: “NO MAN LIFT UP HIS HAND OR FOOT” (John 15:5). “BOW THE KNEE” (Phil. 2:9-11). Joseph had to be an absolute dictator with total power to demand obedience. About whom on earth had he written (1 Pet. 1:10-11)? He flipped back a few more pages. Here was a son who was sacrificed by his father (Gen. 22), and this son was a promised son with a miraculous birth; he had also been promised a piece of land and had been told that no Arabian had any right to any part of it (Gen. 15:18-21; Gal. 4:22-31), nor any “Palestinian” (Exod. 3:17, 34:10-12). That boy (Isaac) was the other boy who had taken a Gentile wife, as Joseph had done (Gen. 24), and this took place after the death of his mother (Gen. 23). Furthermore, this boy (Isaac) had never put a foot outside the boundaries of Palestine (Canaan). He had lived his whole life between Galilee and Beersheba, between the river Jordan and the Mediterranean (see the life of Christ: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John).

At this point, where the Almighty might have lended him some needed assistance, he heard the Lord say: “My Son is going to be motherless on my bosom and then be fatherless on His mother’s bosom, and then when He is begotten, He will be older than His mother.”

(“Gee, thanks! Big help! How could you be so explicit?” Moses did not say that, but he thought it!)

Moses wiped the sweat off his brow. “Well,” he muttered as though he had no listeners, “it looks like this Book is going to ‘do a number’ on a number of folks!”

“You can say that again!”

“Okay, I will. It looks like this Book is going to…”

“It’ll be a best seller,” interrupted the Most High, “I flat guarantee it. If it doesn’t outsell anything that Mohammed or Hemmingway or Marx or Mao or Plato or Aristotle or Jacqueline Susann or McWhirter Brothers (The Guiness Book of Records) put together, I’ll burn it.”

Moses was beginning to talk to himself.

Moses had begun to realize that he had, unwittingly, become an accomplice in one of the dirtiest tricks that was ever going to be played on the human race, although it would also turn out to be their only means of salvation (Rom. 10:17). He had been “conscripted” (see the “script”) to write a history book on future history, much of which would take place 2,000 years after he was dead. He wondered (when he considered that he would still have four more books to write) how far God was going to carry this thing.
He didn’t have long to find out. Before he had finished Deuteronomy 33, the Lord informed him that he had unconsciously recorded the birth, the life, the message, the reception, the betrayal, the death, and the resurrection of Jesus Christ (Num. 21:8, 24:17; Deut. 18, 21), including the world-wide dispersion of Israel following the Book of Acts (Deut. 28-32) and the twentieth-century, Roman Catholic Holocaust in line with the Jews request (John 19:15; Matt. 27:25). (All of the Nazi leaders were baptized Roman Catholics [Pétain, Franco, Hitler, Goebbels, Mussolini, Goering, Rudolph Hess, Franz Stangl, DeGaulle, Seyss, Inquart, Salazar, Himmler, Heydrich, Koch, Dietrich, Cardinal Pacelli, Kramer, et al.])

If that were not enough, Moses had recorded the restoration of Israel at the end of the twentieth century (Deut. 28-33) after their regathering to Palestine. Not one book in the Library of Congress recorded this, even AFTER Moses wrote it, unless they got the material from God’s Book AFTER it was completed in A.D. 90. Mohammed went so far as to contradict all of the material in Deuteronomy 30:1-9; 32: 36-43; and 33:27-29.

Some “prophet” you got there, Allah!!

This quaint and extraordinary Book was not going to begin with any self-righteous nut sitting around trying to look profound by discussing Yin and Yang, spiritual dimensions, levels of consciousness, “oneness with the Infinite,” or even forms of worship, religions, “faiths,” or how to live, how to be “saved,” or even what to believe. The words “faith” and “belief’ were not found anywhere in the first twelve chapters of God’s Book.

It was obviously not a religious Book, at least not according to any sane man who had read more than ten religious books in his life. Compare, for example, this eccentric opening (Gen. 1:1-14) with the 1st Surah of The Koran:

“Guide us the straight way, the Way of those on whom You have bestowed Your Grace, not the way of those who earned Your Anger, such as the Jews, nor of those who went astray such as the Christians.” That is what you get before you have gone through seven verses in The Koran. If you looked at the 2nd Surah you would find the old, fornicating polygamist going into raptures on what he imagines religion and salvation to be. There is no HISTORY in either chapter (Surah).

“The pious and righteous persons who fear Allah much abstain from all kinds of sins [except polygamy!] and evil deeds [like fornicating with your kin folks!] which He has forbidden … and perform all kinds of good deeds [killing Christians and Jews!] which He has ordained. They are on true guidance from their Lord, and they are very successful.”

God’s Book began with only one short statement of ten words; they dealt with the beginning of “history.” When He began to write (via Moses), He was no more concerned about what any man thought of Him or would think of Him or whether any man worshipped Him or didn’t worship Him or whether any man consulted Him about anything than He was concerned about the Virgin Birth, His Own Deity, the Crucifixion, the Church, the Resurrection, the New Birth, or some “plan of salvation.” So He just omitted mankind altogether in his first twenty-six verses. God was no more interested in “majoring in the majors” (the “Fundamentals of the Faith”) when He began to write than He was interested in whether you did good or evil (see Isa. 41:23).

He was going to write a history Book. If things like “belief” and “grace” and “faith,” etc., ever showed up in it, He would mention those things when they showed up or prophesy of them before they showed up. But they weren’t worth mentioning in the first five chapters of Genesis.

If Cain and Abel finally got involved with “sin” (Gen. 4:7) and offerings for sins (Gen. 4:3-4) He would simply record what happened when they did. History is a record of what men DO.

You see, since the Almighty knew about all things before “the foundation of the world” (Eph. 1:4; Rev. 13:8; Titus 1:2, and Acts 15:18), He deliberately ignored mankind and refused to make one statement on mankind when He began His Book. He began with the “beginning,” not “man” (“IN THE BEGINNING GOD CREATED THE HEAVEN AND THE EARTH”).

And that is what “bugged” Darwin, Huxley, and Haeckel to death.

That is what ate Karl Marx’s “lunch,” and Einstein’s with him.

Men love themselves; they think THEY are important.

That would give every member of the UN a perfect right to get rid of the Book (and those who believe [and preach or teach] it), as soon as possible. For if it is history it gives the history of the UN and the New Age in bold face, block capital letters where only a Catholic, Protestant, Jew, Hindu, Moslem, Buddhist, Atheist, Evolutionist, or Humanist would miss it.

If the Bible is a history Book, then what it records has to take place in time and reality: it is now taking place in time and reality, and will take place later in time and reality. No religious speculations, philosophical reflections, no pious devotional “homilies” or “sacred” traditions need to be dealt with. There is no one’s “faith” at stake; nobody’s “religion” is involved. The Book is either the truth or a lie. No one’s BELIEF or UNBELIEF in it would affect any history about anything: history is history.

Place your bets; I’m putting all my blue chips in one pot.

Now, the thing that “shreds” the minds of every educated intellectual in the twenty-first century, on five continents, is the fact that this history book keeps dragging words into it like “God” and “Lord.” That is the poison in it. It is a “no-no” to all historians to drag God (or “the Lord”) into an historical account of man’s history. “God” (and “gods”) must be limited to the religious realm; such words (and words like “the Almighty,” the “Lord God,” “the Lord of glory,” and “the most high God”) have no business in historical accounts of what is actually going on, and has gone on, since 4000 B.C.. “God” can never be allowed to participate in real history; He cannot be an actual observer as to what is going on or a vocal forecaster of future history.

Man wants to work out his history the way he wants it to come out. Being a positive thinker (see Gen. 3:1, 6) since his rebellion against his Creator (Gen. 3:11-12), “man” has been consistently obsessed with the notion that he is “the measure of all things.” Therefore, he can (by himself alone) work out his history without any help or interference
This explains why you never find the Book in the “History” sections of libraries or bookstores. The Book will always be found stuffed away in a section of “Religion” or “Religions.” Modern man does not believe that the Book could possibly be an accurate historical account of man’s history. For example: how could any “modern man” believe that 1 Corinthians 15:1-8 was an historical record? How could Joshua 10:12-13 possibly be history? And what on earth would you do with Matthew 25:31-32 and Revelation 20:11-14 as “history”?!

So out goes God’s Book on history as He sees it! Out it goes and in comes “man” with Goldilocks and the Three Bears, Cinderella, Rumple stilt skin, and Peter Pan: i. e., The Koran, The Gemara, The Mishna, The Book of Mormon, Thrice Greatest Hermes, etc.

At any rate, Moses sat down again to finish Genesis; the Lord finally finished it with Genesis 50:24-26. Then the Lord patted Moses on the back and said, “Now you see there? There is that chosen Shepherd Son, who was betrayed, sold, imprisoned, and then exalted. And lookee there, Moses! Later on, nobody is going to be able to find one of his BONES anywhere in Egypt! Now, isn’t that something, considering they buried him there?”

“Well, now, that isn’t too improbable,” said Moses, “although, of course, they found Mohammed’s bones and Buddha’s bones where they were buried.”

“But Moses, Egypt is a type of this world. You see that Shepherd-King you wrote about is not going to have any bones left anywhere on this earth after He dies!”

“But they could be found in Canaan, couldn’t they?”

“Now Moses, you ought to know better than that! Canaan is the PROMISED LAND (Neh. 9:23; Deut. 19:8, 20). It’s going to be a type of Heaven, for it will have a Jerusalem (Heb. 12:22) and a Mount Zion (Heb. 12:22) like the one does that is on the sides of the north” (Isa. 14:13).

“I don’t get any of that,” said Moses. “I thought Canaan was a type of spiritual warfare down here.”

“Well, it will be, but did you notice that everyone who is going to go into it is going to have to die before they get there?”

“No, and how in the world could I have ‘noticed it’ if it hasn’t happened yet and You didn’t tell me about it?”

“True, true,” responded the Lord, “but Jordan is a picture of death, and all of your people will have to be buried in baptism to Joshua when they cross it just like they were baptized to YOU when you crossed the Red Sea. And that isn’t all, Moses. You will have been “dead” 1,400 years before YOU show up in the Promised Land (Matt. 17:1-6).”

“I need some aspirin or some Tylenol or somethin’,” muttered Moses.

“Okay, I’ll make it easy for you, buddy. Was Israel my firstborn?”
“Sure, sure,” said Moses (Exod. 4:22). “Israel was your firstborn Son.”

“All right, isn’t my ‘firstborn son’ going to be called out of Egypt some day and come back to Canaan (Gen. 15:13-15)?”

“I donno, is he?”

“Well, you wrote Genesis 15: 13-15 like I tole’ you to, didn’tcha?”

“Sure, sure I did!”

“Well, go back and read it, dummy.”

He did.

“So you see, if I have a real Son later on, He ought to be ‘called out of Egypt’ (Matt. 2:15), don’t you think?”

Slowly, very slowly, Moses mumbled, “Yeeeaaah, I guess so.”

“Of course, Moses! If a Rock can beget a nation (Deut. 32:18), a Rock can beget one Man (1 Cor. 10:1-4), and as far as that goes, a Rock could begat a Rock (1 Cor. 10:1-4; Matt. 3:9)! Provided, of course, it isn’t one of Darwin’s ‘rocks’ or some Pope’s ‘rock’ (Deut. 32:31). Their rocks are not like our Rock (Deut. 32:31), you know!”

The scribe was silent. Evidently, the Lord had finally convinced him that “mum” WAS the word.

Finally, he sighed and said, “Well, if the rest of this stuff I wrote (like Cain killing Abel and Joseph’s brothers trying to kill him and Esau trying to kill Jacob and Israel trying to kill me [Acts 7:25, 35; Num. 14:10; Exod. 17:4]) is any picture of how some ‘Shepherd’s Son’ is going to fare, I would guess somebody would want to kill Him even if He was your Son. I noticed that all of those fellas (Abel, Joseph, Isaac, Jacob, and ME) were shepherds.”

“Glad to see you’re alert, Moses,” said the Almighty. “Good guess. Real good guess. And I think my boy Johnny—he’ll be a fisherman, not a shepherd—will back you up on that” (John 1:12-13, 15:25, 11:51, 8:40, 7:1, 20, and 8:59).
Chapter 4
What the United Nations Has Against the Book

By now it should appear, at least to anyone who has read the last two chapters, that the Lord God, as an “Author,” was not only an ornery, devious, clever trickster, but also He was absolutely “incorrect” politically. He was not in line with any of His creatures’ “lifestyles.” He had adopted none of their philosophies (Pragmatism, Humanism, Idealism, Realism, Existentialism, or Naturalism). He obviously was not going to go along with any of their church-state religions or any sinner’s “do-gooder” religion (Judaism, Catholicism, Hinduism, Brahmanism, Taoism, Protestantism, Greek Orthodox, Humanism, Presbyterianism, Methodism, Lutheranism, etc.).

But worse than that, the Author of this negative, mean, nasty, critical “hate literature” was not even interested in any of mankind’s goals, plans, aims, and “paradigms” for progress and “evolution.” What God had just had Moses write indicated that the only form of government that the Creator of mankind would accept and approve, and bless would be a THEOCRACY! What a thought for the twenty-first century. Deuteronomy 17 spelled it out so clear no one could miss it if they had missed it in Genesis 41 and 49. When he arrived at Deuteronomy 33, Moses just laid the word flat out on the table: “HE WAS KING IN JESHURUN” (Deut. 33:5).

God’s idea about government was one man as “top dog” and that man under the absolute, complete, and total domination (Psa. 2) of the Author of the Book (2 Sam. 23: 3-4).

There went Democracies out of the window.
There went Third Reichs out of the back door.
There went the UN and the ECC out the porthole.
There went Oligarchies down the tube.
There went Republics down the drain.
There went the “Holy See” down the chute.

And there went all of the work of the FBI, CIA, CFR, NAACP, EPA, HRS, Trilateral Commission, the Red Cross, the NEA, FEMA, the Illuminati, the Peace Corps, the Bilderbergers, the Vatican, Rousseau, Voltaire, Marat, Danton, Franklin, Jefferson, Adams, Washington, Vatican, Stalin, Lenin, Marx, FDR, JFK, and Slick Willie down the sewer.

The Book was a testament testifying against them.

God is (and was and will be) “out of date” with “modern man” in any age. He is “behind the times” and absolutely “out of touch” with unregenerate mankind in any age. To humor Darwin, one might conjecture that Cro-Magnon man spent half his time talking about how his generation was “modern” while his ancestors (Neanderthal, Peking, Java, etc.) were “unenlightened.”

All cloned robots are programmed by the same jackasses in any age.

According to ABC, NBC, CBS, CNN, the BBC, Time and Life magazines, People, and U.
S. News and World Report (and all others like them), history has outstripped God. So now, man (following his preordained pathway, described in detail in A.D. 60: Rom. 1) has to invent history (“revise” it) so it will work out the way he wants it to work out; to do this, God must be “dead.” (note 1 Kings 21:14!)

Just to satisfy the most fastidious requirements for modern journalists, editors, news commentators, and historians, God called into his office some scribe named Matthew (Matt. 9: 9) and another one named Shebna (2 Kings 18) and said to them: “I want you two gentlemen to write me a couple of news items for A. D. 33.”

He called in Shebna somewhere around 890 B. C. and then waited for Matthew to finish his discipleship (Matt. 9) before he began to write (about A. D. 48). He instructed Shebna as follows:

“Shebna, while you are recording the reigns of Rehoboam, Jeroboam, Baasha, Timri, and Omri, I want you to include a little incident that happened in the life of Ahab; but don’t write it till AFTER he gets killed in battle (1 Kings 22). At that time, a lot of your readers will wonder why he got killed the way he was killed and why he died (1 Kings 22:38) like he did; you’ll give them the material.

“The things I want you to emphasize in this very brief historical anecdote are:

2. “It was his inheritance legally, according to the Law.
3. “A ruler coveted the vineyard but couldn’t get it.
4. “His wife (a pagan idolator who worshipped the Queen of Heaven) got permission from him to get the vineyard any way she could.
5. “She used the charge of blasphemy (with the backing of the religious elders in the city) to have him put to death.
6. “He was hauled OUTSIDE the city, after false witnesses testified against him; he was killed there.
7. “The wicked ruler thought he now possessed the vineyard; he only did temporarily. God had him killed in battle.”

“Very well,” said Shebna, “but that seems like an awful lot of time and attention given to one murder case; Jezebel and Ahab slaughtered hundreds of godly people” (2 Kings 9:7).

“True, true,” said the Great I Am, “but I want a little ‘focus’ on this one fella. Gotta case coming up just like his in about 800 years.”

And sure enough, somewhere around A.D. 48, Matthew found himself busy writing a “gospel.” He no sooner began to record the conversations that took place between Jesus Christ and the scribes and Pharisees in the Temple (Matt. 21) than the Lord said, “Tell ‘em about that parable My Son spoke; that one about the vineyard.” So Matthew wrote. He wrote about:

1. A godly, law-abiding Jew that owned a vineyard.
2. It was his, and he rightfully was the owner of it.
3. Some wicked religious leaders (Matt. 21:45) coveted the vineyard.

4. A wicked woman (Rev. 17) helped them get it after they claimed her ruler (John 19:15) would be their ruler.

5. They used the charge of blasphemy (Matt. 26:25) to get Him killed.

6. He was killed OUTSIDE the city (Heb. 13:12) after false witnesses testified against Him (Matt. 26:59).

7. The wicked ruler (John 19:15) possessed it temporarily until God killed him (Hab. 3:13; Isa. 14:1719; Gen. 3:15; Rom. 16:20) in BATTLE (Rev. 14, 19).

The Lord swore, by Himself, to amply reward Shebna and Matthew for those brief accounts of an incident that appeared to be so paltry and common place that not one ambassador, chairman, Senator, congressman, king, President, Rabbi, dictator, bureaucrat, Cardinal, priest, vice-president, nun, monk, or Emperor would even give it a “nod.” Not one time in twenty centuries of history.

But those two tiny, insignificant, non-religious, subordinate “news flashes” determined the end of the twenty-first century, more than twenty centuries before the UN decided that Zionism was “racism.”

Neither Shebna nor Matthew wrote a religious account of anything. There was no mention in either account of anyone believing anything, following a cult leader, studying the Tantras, going to a church, “finding the church Christ founded,” meditating on Yin or Yang, taking “sacraments,” getting baptized, spinning prayer wheels, reciting Mantras, or observing Ramadan. Only “blasphemy” is mentioned, without being discussed or defined.

You never read a more non-religious narrative in your life. No one in either account was “channeling” or confessing Christ; no one was keeping the Golden Rule, getting rid of their Karma, invoking ANY deity, practicing extra-sensory perception, clairvoyance, astral projection, levitation, or psychotechnologies.

Both accounts said somebody wanted to steal a vineyard and killed someone to get it.

How is that for a theological dogma?

You couldn’t find anyone’s “church” or “faith” or “religion” in that mess any more than you could find an account of how to twiddle your beads while saying the “rosary.” Naboth’s “blasphemy” doesn’t even match Christ’s blasphemy.

But the most vicious thing about this calamitous history Book (as we have noted earlier) was that the Author was not fit (evidently) to write anything decent for human consumption. His literary excursions clearly revealed His “mindset” and exhibited His convictions.

In the first place, He was a vicious “classist” (Prov. 22:20; in the second place, He was “sexist” (1 Cor. 11:3-9) and a prejudiced “racist” (Zech. 14:21); and thirdly, He was a zealous segregationist (Deut. 32:41-43; Neh. 13:23-27) and a zealous “isolationist” (Num. 23:9; 1 Sam. 8:7-9). Horrors! How could a Man-maker (Matt. 19:4) wind up with a “world view” directly the opposite of his “God-makers” (Isa. 44:6-20; Acts 12:22, 24). “Away with Him!” (Acts 22:22). “He ought to die” (John 19:7)! “HE IS GUILTY OF DEATH! ” (Matt. 26:66).

So the “God-makers” killed the “Author and Finisher of their faith” (Heb. 2:10-14; Acts 7:52; 1 Cor. 2:8) and took over His vineyard: TEMPORARILY.

Having done this, they stole His Book and relegated it to Limbo by stuffing it away in the “religious bracket” along with Mohammed, Fulton Sheen, Ramakrishna, Thomas a’ Kempis, Buddha, Confucius, Moses, Mendelssohn, Gandhi, Albert Schweitzer, Lloyd Douglas, Barth, Brunner, Tillich, Guru Arjup, Mother Teresa, Timothy O’Leary, Zoroaster, Kamo Mabuchi, and William James.

In that mausoleum, God Almighty could no longer interfere with future history. They had stuffed the Omnispresent, Eternal Deity into a cracker box like a metal “tabernacle” on the “altar” of every Catholic church in both hemispheres.

But the “word of God” could not be bound (see 2 Tim. 2:9). Here was that blasted Book! It was still around in A.D. 2001! More than 200 attempts had been made to get rid of it between A.D. 1800 and A.D. 2000, but here it was, still alive (Heb. 4:12)—in the universal language of the globe! Anyone who picked it up and tried to read it through would be forcibly struck by three items that appeared with such regularity (and clarity), through a period of 2,000 years (!), that they resembled the railroad ties on the Sante Fe line between Chicago, Illinois and Albuquerque, New Mexico.

In spite of more than 200 attempts to erase the truths found in the English Bible of the Protestant Ref-ormation (1611), every English-speaking member of the ECC and UN (and every nation in Asia, Europe, and Africa that chose English as a “second language”) was faced with three items (in A.D. 2000) that spelt nothing but unsheeted Hell for the “New Age” and ALL of the governments involved in it (Jer. 30:11).

These three items were mentioned more times than the plan of salvation, the Virgin Birth, the “church that Christ founded,” regeneration, sanctification, peace on earth, or “how to end man’s inhumanity to man.” Everyone of them dealt with a political kingdom to be set up by a King on a throne. Heaven, Purgatory, Limbo, Paradise, Hell, Valhalla, Eternal Life, or Eternal Punishment were not even mentioned in the three subjects:

1. The repeated notice that the world is destined to be ruled by a KING, and that there will be no end of wars until a certain King arrives at a certain place and sits down on a certain throne (Jer. 3:17; Matt. 25:31; Psa. 2:6, 8-12; Psa. 110; Isa. 2, 11; Luke 1:30-33; Acts 2:30, 36; and Zech. 14:3, 9).

2. The repeated warning that this throne is to be found on this planet in a visible, literal temple, built on a physical, earthly piece of land, inside a literal, visible city; and this city and this land are said to be God’s personal piece of real estate (Ezek. 38:16; Joel 2:18; Isa. 14:25; Psa. 105:44, 48:8, 87:3; 1 Kings 11:36, and Psa. 2:6), in distinction from (and in gross contrast to) Tokyo, Berlin, New York, Moscow, Washington, D. C., Beirut, Mecca, Chicago, Los Angeles, Bombay, Hong Kong, Havana, etc.

No secular history by any historian since 3000 B. C. mentions such an operation, not even once. It is entirely missing from 23,000,000 books in the Library of Congress.

3. According to the Book, this piece of land and this city will be used by the Author of the Book (“the most high God”) to destroy all UN peace-keeping forces, all UN “peace processes,” the Vatican State, the European Economic Community, the United States of America, all Oriental and Occidental “religious faiths” (including every “faith” on this earth that denies the HISTORICITY of Gen. 1-12; Matt. 28; or 1 Cor. 15), and the United Nations itself.

That is the historical record written in Zechariah 10-14.

Poor, old, blind, stumbling, conceited, fornicating Mohammed never even hazarded a guess about such matters, although he was closer to them historically (by 1, 200 years) than Zechariah. And the poor, blind “idol shepherds” (Zech. 11:17), in Rome, never hazarded a guess about it; not even when it was beginning to take place right in front of their eyes (1918—1999). You could not print out all of the Bible verses that deal with those three items on four sheets of paper, single-spaced, on both sides. They deal with authority, regal authority, final authority (a King and an everlasting kingdom); and all five of those items have a literal history behind them that goes back to prehistory (Isa. 14).

That history can only be found in one Book on this earth (one out of 23, 000, 000), because it includes the FUTURE history of those five items as well as their past. There is nothing printed on paper on this planet that contains anything even similar to it. That remarkable “layout” cannot be found in 4, 000 bookshelves of religious books, unless those authors opened THE Book and copied their material from it.

There is more HISTORICAL information (and religious information) on those five items (see The Sure Word of Prophecy, 1969) in “THE BOOK OF THE LORD” (Isa. 34:16) than there is on water baptism, spirit baptism, “Shekinahs,” “light from above,” the Virgin Birth, the crucifixion, the Body of Christ, world peace, the last judgment, or even the Deity of Jesus Christ, plus all of the material on qualifications for pastors, deacons, bishops, and the CREATION OF THE UNIVERSE.

What a terribly outrageous Book! What a frightfully shocking epistle to unload on mankind!

The main theme of the Book has to deal (85 percent) with events that have not yet taken place. If they do not take place, the Book (and its Author) is a liar. If they do take place, the Book proves itself to be supernatural, in a miraculous fashion that no atheist or agnostic could even discuss. The Book is THE truth or it is THE lie.

“Place your bets, ladies and gentlemen! Put up or shut up! Money talks. Call the Lord’s hand or ‘fold’!”

“Modern man” and “modern science” do not have one sane, rational, naturalistic explanation for that Book. Faced with it, they are like helpless, naked children standing before a 900-pound, roaring male lion. No wonder they have “Bibliophobia”!

Moses had not completed the first book of his “Pentateuch” before he noticed that that second item had reoccurred eight times after it was first mentioned—eight times in fifty chapters: better than once every seven chapters. It had nothing to do with anyone’s belief, faith, religion, good life, belief in God (or unbelief in God), or anyone’s ideas about the after-life, the spirit world, humanism, love, “helping your fellow man,” peace on earth, or “making the world a better place to live in.” That second item was totally devoid of ANY religious content; the word “blasphemy” was not even connected with it.

The Author of the Book—whoever He was! — claimed that this piece of real estate belonged to HIM; it was His piece of dirt, so He could give it to anyone He wanted to give it to. Beginning with one Babylonian Gentile (Gen. 11-12) who was a Hebrew Gentile (Rom. 4:9-13), He passed the clear title deed for it down to twelve great-grandsons (Num. 23:19-24) whose mothers were Syrian Gentiles (Gen. 29-30). And the grandmother of all twelve boys was a Syrian Gentile (Gen. 24).

RACISM if you ever saw it.

Racial discrimination.

If anyone reading the Book doubted it, he would have run right “smack dab” into Deuteronomy 32:8. There, the Author of history (its beginning and its end; Rev. 22:13) stated that all of the Gentile nations who separated after the Tower of Babel (Gen. 11) would have to follow a Jewish pattern BEFORE Abraham, Isaac, or Jacob showed up. Jacob would set the “pattern” with twelve boys (four sets of three each). Ishmael and Isaac were not the prototypes, although Isaac was the grandfather of all twelve boys (Gen. 35:28-29).

This piece of dirt was the place where “the Lord of glory” (back in 4000 B.C.) determined He would finish man’s history (Rev. 20:9-11) which He Himself began (Gen. 1). And centuries before Revelation 20 would take place (1,000 years before Rev. 20:1-4), the God of glory, “THE GOD AND FATHER OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST” (2 Cor. 11:31) declared that He would destroy the United Nations with its New Age, “Global,” peace-keeping citizens on that same piece of real estate (Joel 2; Isa. 63; Rev. 19; Zech. 14:1-10). He would do it without their consent, approval, or permission, no matter if every nation in the UN “voted” against it. It would come to pass, no matter who said what or how or when they decreed it (Isa. 8:9-10). The Divine Intention to do this, exactly as He stated He would more than 2,600 years ago, reads as follows:

Isaiah 8:9-10: Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.

Joel 3:9-12: Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:

Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

Joel 3:16: The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

If the Book is a HISTORY BOOK, every word of what you just read will take place in the next few years. If the Book is a HISTORY Book, no man’s opinion about those verses (or any church’s interpretation of those verses or any scholar’s comments on those verses) amounts to a crushed grasshopper on Interstate 10.

Poor, ole’ Moses (ignorant scribe that he was!) had no idea how those first three items (p. 54) applied to the future. But he got awfully suspicious when he began to write Exodus 3:5. He had already heard these same words spoken years and years ago when he was shepherding Jethro’s flock near Mount Horeb. But by now, he had completely forgotten them, since at that time he only associated them with his own shock and fright at coming face-to-face with the Angel of the Lord (Acts 7:30). At that time, the Angel “in the bush” (Acts 7:35) had said, “draw not nigh hither: put OFF thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.”

Until now, it had never occurred to Moses that while he had been writing fifty chapters of what everyone was going to call a “religious” Book that the word “holy” had not showed up one time. Now, when he began his second book, up pops this word “holy,” and lo and behold, it has nothing to do with God or Christ or “Allah” or any “god” anyone worshipped!

_It dealt with a piece of dirt!_

The moment Moses wrote the word (as it was dictated to him) he stopped abruptly. Like a man under an hypnotic spell, he continued to gaze at what he had written. It so mesmerized him that he actually failed to hear his “Overseer” intoning: “I AM THE GOD OF THY FATHER … etc.”

It was probably a good thing that he didn’t hear his Overseer, or he would have committed a common “scribal error,” known in the “scholarly community” as “assimilation” or “attraction” (see Burgon’s _The Causes of Corruption in the Traditional Text_). He certainly would have attached the word “holy” to God, not a small piece of terra firma less than a mile square. He would have written “I am the HOLY God of thy father, etc.” After all, that obviously _should have been_ the correct “reading” in the “plenary, infallible, verbally inspired, ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH!” (See any cockeyed baloney published in the twentieth century by A. T. Robertson, Kenneth Wuest, Mike Randall, Robert Sumner, Donald Waite, Arlin Horton, James Combs, Bob Jones III, Stewart Custer, Wilbur Smith, James White, Dell Johnson, or Jerry Falwell; or any cockeyed baloney put out in the nineteenth century by Warfield, Hodges, Machen, Nestle, Gregory, Hort, Lightfoot, Schaff, Tischendorf, or Lachmann.)

“Why on earth” would God call a piece of earth “holy” before revealing Himself as a holy God? He never said “ye shall be holy; for I am holy” till later (Lev. 11:44). Why would a piece of dirt take preeminence over “the Holy One of Israel” when it came to the use of the adjective (Isa. 1:4, 5:19)?

It not only didn’t “make sense” (like the King James readings in Acts 12:4 and Matt. 23:24!), it made nonsense: irreligious, blasphemous nonsense.
God had never called Noah’s ark “holy.” The Garden of Eden hadn’t been “holy,” although God created it. There has been nothing “holy” about the biographies of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Joseph, or Judah; the word had not even been attached to God’s “Son” as described in Genesis 3, 22, 39-40, and 49. How does a piece of ground suddenly show up as “HOLY”?

A mountain on a desert peninsula is “holy” before God is? You call THAT a “religious” Book?!

Well, that is the Holy Bible. That’s it. Every copy of any Bible in any language, in any edition, translated by anyone on five continents, says that the ground near Mount Sinai is “holy,” and God preferred to call it “holy” before He revealed to any reader that He was holy. According to the “Law of First Mention” (see Gen. 1:21, 4:7, 22:1, etc.), the word “holy” should have shown up somewhere in the first chapter of Genesis; it didn’t. All other religious books that sinners write about “holy gods” (see Dan. 5:11) would certainly call their god “holy” (or else what he was supposed to have written “holy”) before they listed a multitude of “holy things” such as holy candles, holy altars, holy incense, holy mother church, holy water, holy cats, holy vestments, holy rosaries, holy (holly) wreaths, holy (Holly) wood, or “Holy, holy, holy” (Isa. 6).

If God was “holy,” and He certainly was and is (Josh. 24:19; Lev. 21:8; Psa. 99:5; Isa. 6:3; Ezek. 39:7; Lev. 11:44), why didn’t He mention it “right off the bat” when He started to write His Book? Why did He wait fifty-three “Surahs” (chapters) before saying the word (“holy”); and when He finally came out with it, He didn’t refer to Himself at all, nor His Son nor His church nor His power nor His glory nor His people nor His Book nor even His words (Psa. 138:2!). He referred to a piece of dirt on the ground He had cursed (Gen. 3:17)!

“HOLY” Scriptures is it (2 Tim. 3:15)? And Americans call THAT a “religious book”?

But all of man’s battles are over real estate. Even Karl Marx knew that. Three thousand people are about to be killed on the ground where Moses is standing (Exod. 32). Another several thousand are going to get slaughtered there when the Lord comes from Mount Sinai and Mount Seir (Deut. 33; Hab. 3; Judg. 3). And who didn’t know that but every single Greek and Hebrew professor in every Christian seminary in America and Europe?

Habakkuk had it in print more than 1,500 years before Columbus discovered San Salvador (Hab. 3:3, 6, 12), and Moses had it in print 3,000 years before World War I (Deut. 33:2).

But it won’t take place till AFTER A.D. 2000.

The history book writes history before it takes place.

That’s why it has to be thrown out of every classroom in the United States, South and Central America, Africa, Asia, and Europe.

The One who died to redeem you “from the curse of the law” (Gal. 3:13) died because of a revelation that was given in the place where God told Moses to take the shoes off his feet. The ground was “holy” because the One who died to redeem you “from the curse of the law,” so you could be justified from all things that you could not be justified by the Law (Acts 13:39-40), is going to return to that spot before He lands on the Mount of Olives (Zech. 14; Acts 1; Judg. 5; Deut. 33; Psa. 68; and Hab. 3).

But who didn’t know that except every faculty member of every major Christian College, University, and Seminary in America and Europe?

Well, to be perfectly honest about it, Moses didn’t know that, but ole’ Moses had an alibi. 1. Judges 5 and Psalm 68 had not yet been written. 2. Habakkuk 3 and Acts 1 had not yet been written. 3. No one had died to redeem anybody from anything. 4. “Grace and truth” had not yet come by Jesus Christ (John 1). 5. He wasn’t going to learn about the death of Jesus Christ until Matthew 17: that would be 1,400 years after he wrote Exodus 1-3.

Moses had an alibi for not knowing: five of ‘em.

But C. I. Scofield, Larkin, Henry Morris, Dummelow, Bullinger, Hal Lindsey, Salem Kirban, and the faculties and staffs at PCC, BBC, BJU, Tennessee Temple, and Liberty University had no alibi at all. Their blindness and Biblical stupidity came from unbelief in final authority. They were exactly like the apostate Israelites of Ezekiel 14; Isaiah 6, 29; and Jeremiah 23, at least those among them who made a habit of changing every verse in a King James Bible they could not understand (Larkin on 2 Thess. 2:7; Scofield on Gen. 1:16; Bullinger on John 19:32-33; etc.).

Moses got notified 3,500 years too early to “dig it.”

Since the Lord has always written in a free, slack, uninhibited, unshackled style, He never abstains from sarcastic remarks wherever they are needed (Mal. 3:15; Amos. 4:4; Isa. 41:23; etc., for example). He therefore called in Haggai the prophet and said: “Write! I’ll talk and you write. That way there will be some ‘breath of God’ (πάσα γραφή θεόπνευστος) in this here history book!”

So Haggai sits down in “Moses’ seat” (remember that rock “rocking chair” on Mount Sinai: p. 36?) and writes a Preface to the Angelic announcement in Luke 2:14 about “on earth peace, good will toward men.” But Haggai says that “on earth peace, good will toward men” will not show up at Bethlehem OR Calvary (Hag. 2:9). Neither place is within the city limits of Jerusalem (“City of Peace!”). “On earth peace” will never show up till it pops up at Jerusalem, the city that killed the prophets (Matt. 23:34-37); a city that will be called “Sodom and Egypt” in the next few years (Rev. 11:7-9)!

Imagine some blind, stupid “Pope” (any of them) thinking that Jerusalem was the “holy city” because it had the supposed “founder” of the Catholic Church murdered there. LOOK AT IT:

Matthew 23:35, 37: “That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar… O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!”

Acts 7:52, 58: “Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers: … And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man’s feet, whose name was Saul.”

Imagine the blasphemous ignorance of every Pope on earth since Gregory “the Great” in thinking that any Christian should reverence Jerusalem, after being told that it is under bondage to the curse of the law (Gal. 34) and “New Jerusalem” is the “MOTHER” of a child of God! Imagine that! It is unthinkable. More than 200,000 professing Christians were killed trying to hand Jerusalem over to the Popes (A.D. 1000-1200). Why? Why would any Pope want to set foot in “Sodom and Egypt” (Rev. 11:8), unless he was an AFRICAN (Egypt) QUEER (Sodom)?

God had even told David, before Haggai wrote, that wars would end at Jerusalem, not Calvary or Bethlehem (Psa. 76:1-3). “In Judah is God known: his name is great in Israel. In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion. There brake he the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah.”

The event is not even connected with the BIRTH or DEATH of Jesus Christ. And yet there were the shepherds hearing the announcement.

We’re still waiting, aren’t we?

David and Haggai were recording history more than 2,000 years before the events were to take place.

Quite a “waiting spell,” wouldn’t you say? So far “the peace of Jerusalem” (Psa. 122:6) has been completely “out of the question” for 2,440 years.

When some poor, postmillennial Christian wrote “Hark the herald angels sing,” Haggai derailed him completely on “the desire of all nations shall come.”

(Song: “Come, desire of nations, come!”)

The poor songwriter thought that all “nations” desired for Jesus Christ to show up! You couldn’t possibly imagine anything more ridiculous in the realm of HISTORY, not even if you majored in studying the life of Rasputin or Pope Pius IX—the infallible monkey man. (All Popes are theistic EVOLUTIONISTS.)

And poor ole’ Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) was carried away with the postmillennial nonsense. He wrote “Jesus, Joy of Man’s Desiring” from Haggai 2:7. Nothing could be more pitiful, not even the “historic positions” of Baptists who correct the AV with the scholarship of apostate practical atheists (see The Christian Liars’ Library, 1997).

No man on this earth “desires” Jesus Christ or ever will “desire” Jesus Christ until the Holy Spirit convicts him of SIN (John 16:9; Acts 2:37). The nations “desire” Jesus Christ about the way that a health food “buff” would desire a can of C-rations thirty-years-old.

There has never been a time in the history of nations (Gen. 10-11) where ANY nation wanted Jesus Christ present to run it or Jesus Christ absent to guide and lead its citizens. The Continental Congress and the Founding Fathers of the U.S.A. would no more put the name of “Jesus Christ” (“Joy of Man’s Desiring”!) on a government document—the Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence, or the Constitution—than they would put the name of Adolph Hitler on them.
The nations were to reject Him. His own nation rejected Him. The “nations” have always rejected him totally (Psa. 2) and have fought against Him spiritually (Eph. 6; 2 Tim. 3-4; 1 Tim. 4; Rev. 2-3) and will fight against Him literally (Rev. 14, 19) and politically (Zech. 10, 12, 14). Anyone who has read a newspaper since 1900 knows that “the desire of all nations” has nothing to do with anyone’s religious beliefs, anyone’s church or sacraments, or anyone’s “faith.” Every telecast, every radio broadcast, every major news periodical (including magazines, books, and newspapers), since 1900, has harped on only one string; that string is what all nations have always professed to “desire” since Genesis 14:1-8.

“The desire of all nations,” according to “all nations,” is for internationally “on earth peace, good will toward men” (Luke 2:14).

Since every Catholic Pope since A.D. 500 was a Biblical illiterate, none of them could reconcile Luke 2:14—the prophecy that attended the birth of Jesus Christ (they had to get rid of the reading)—with 1,930 years of bloodshed (A.D. 70-2000) without a let-up. That is not exactly “on earth peace, good will to men”!

So the old, godless, depraved, Bible-perverting heretics (the Popes) altered Luke 2:14 so it would mean only that “inner peace” would come to select individuals who were denominated as “men of good will.”

This was Origen’s perversion of the words of the Holy Spirit (A.D. 200), which will be found reproduced in the homes of thousands of American Christians in 2000. It is the reading found in the NASV of Bob Jones University and Baptist Bible College and the NIV recommended by James White, the Promise Keepers, all Neo-Evangelicals, all Neo-Orthodox preachers, and the Vatican State (Jerome’s, Jesuit Rheims, Knox, New American, Challoner-Rheims, New Jerusalem, etc.).

They converted a history book into a religious book by taking a prophesied event that all nations “desired” and replacing it with a devotional spiritual “nugget” to men that they themselves claimed to be.

You never saw a more twisted, Satanic, crooked piece of religious dirty work done in your life, unless it would possibly be the NIV reading of Isaiah 14:12, where Satan is given a title reserved for “the King of kings, and Lord of lords” (Rev. 22:16).

All counterfeit Bibles in the twenty-first century eliminate “on earth peace” as ever coming with any appearance of Jesus Christ. They all state that peace on earth is only for “men of good will”: i.e., themselves; the ones who perverted the English translation of 1611 and carried out eighty-eight wars between 1946 and 1990.

Haggai had as much trouble with the verse as the Popes, Bach, Handel, Wesley, Mendelssohn, the NIV translators, and the NCCC had with it. He looked up from his “original autograph” of Haggai 2:9 and said, “Lord, did you really mean that?”

“You bet your booties I meant it,” said the Almighty. “Even if I am speaking plain English.”

“But Lord!” objected the scribe, “the word ‘Jerusalem’ means ‘city of peace’!”

“Ain’t it the truth,” the Lord chuckled. “That’s my joke on these educated Christians. I am going to let the ‘city of peace’ be attacked at least twenty-one more times; it has already been broken into six times (1400 B.C.-440 B.C.).”

“Well, how on earth can you call a city like THAT a ‘city of peace’ when you told John to call it “Sodom and Egypt”; just like you told Ezekiel (Ezek. 16:46)? How do you get ‘peace’ out of a city that goes through twenty-seven wars?”

“Well, why don’t you go back and see what David wrote in Psalm 76:3 before I set you down at the word processor?”

“I saw that,” said Haggai, “but I had a hard time believing it. I figured it probably should be made figurative and spiritualized; you know, all that Alexandrian stuff.”

“Yes,” said the Almighty, sighing, “a lot of folks have trouble with that ‘stuff’.”

“But what are you going to do with the UN building in New York, Lord? If the UN can’t bring in ‘peace on earth,’ who can? Why, they’ve had four Popes praying for them since 1950: ‘make me an instrument of thy peace,’ ‘blessed are the peace makers,’ the ‘kiss of peace,’ and all of that religious paraphernalia.”

“Exactly; so they’ve hosted eighty-eight wars since 1946. Would you call that a real ‘answer to prayer,’ Haggai? Is that the kind of an answer that Habakkuk would want for his prayer (Hab. 3:2)? You know something, Haggai? When anyone of those wine-headed, Bible-perverting politicians starts to flip his mantras my way, via that “Maria” they drummed up, I just set ‘em up for another blood-bath. Keeps ‘em busy.”

“But how can all of this ‘on earth peace’ business come to pass when you are going to sidestep the Vatican and the ECC and the UN and all of those ‘peace be unto thee’ humanists down there?”

“Simple. The best way to bring about ‘peace on earth’ till I come back is to kill a few million people every few years. Right? Remember ‘Pax Romana’ (“Roman Peace”? I’ll give them several hundred thousand ‘peace keeping’ troops so they can kill anyone who resents a ‘peace process.’ The best ‘peace keepers’ man has ever been able to produce are armed, professional killers: military troops. Always has been (Gen. 14). Might as well be till my Son takes over.”

“But, Lord! That is GERMANIC! That is Adolph Hitler!”

“Well, who cares. The Germans say ‘in case of rain, the war will be held in the auditorium.’ After all, it’s just a matter of getting the RIGHT dictator in place. I’ve already picked My Dictator, and He is going to wind up in ‘the driver’s seat.’ He will be my Son (Matt. 25:41; Psa. 2:9).”

“Now, Lord!”

“Now, nothin’! I want a military dictatorship set up on that earth (Psa. 2:9, 110:1-5; Zech. 14:11-19; Rev. 2:26-27; Psa. 18, 21, 29, 46, and 48), and I’m going to set one up—at Jerusalem.”

So Haggai left “well enough” alone and let his text stand as written. It has stood, as written, for 2,500 years.

The first king of Jerusalem (Gen. 14:18) had been a “King of Righteousness” (Heb. 7:2); the last King would have to be the “KING OF KINGS” and “LORD OF LORDS” (Rev. 19:16) because He was predestinated to dwell in “the city of the great king” (Matt. 5:35). That is, if Jesus Christ and Gabriel (Matt. 25:31; Luke 1:30-33) were not two of the biggest liars who ever lived!

Place your bets. “Dealer’s choice.” One chance out of 23,000,000.

Luke 1:30-33: “And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.”

Matthew 19:28: “And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.”

Matthew 25:31-34: “When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:”

Matthew 25:41: “Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:”

Zechariah 14:9: “And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.”

If you put your money on Jesus Christ and Gabriel (as recorded by Matthew and Luke), you are taking a chance that 23,000,000 books don’t know what they are talking about, while only one Book does know what it is talking about. If you put your money on the 23,000,000 (which includes the works of Einstein, Hawking, Planck, Freud, Marx, Barth, Brunner, Tillich, Aristotle, Aquinas, Plato, St. Francis, Socrates, Hegel, Spinoza, Kierkegaard, Franklin, Jung, Pavlov, Mohammed, the Jewish Rabbis, Orwell, Wells, Kant, Leakey, Dewey, Russell, James, Locke, J. P. Lange, Dummelow, Matthew Henry, Spurgeon, Hemmingway, Shakespeare, Longfellow, Emerson, Dickens, Thackery, Hume, Hobbs, Santanyana, et al.), you are betting that the one Book is WRONG, although it contains mathematical proof, dealing with documented history, that no author of any of the other 23,000,000 books had any more grasp of future history than a teenaged junkie in the Bronx.

Jerusalem has to be the “city of peace” no matter what the UN thinks, plans, studies, debates, or does, because no “peace on earth” prophesied by any heavenly host will ever take place on this planet till the right King gets on the right throne (2 Sam. 23:3-4). The word “right,” as used in that sentence, means that only One person could ever decide which king was the “right” one. That would be the King (Dan. 4:37) who made this planet (Isa. 40-46). The right King is going to get the right throne in the right city in the right land, or there is going to be no “on earth peace” (now or later). At least, that is what the Book recorded more than two dozen times, more than 1,000 years before the Pope crowned himself as king of Bible-rejecting fools.

“The King of kings” will have the power to put down (permanently) every Buddhist, Animist, pederast, Catholic, Hindu, Atheist, Humanist, Agnostic, sex pervert, “Old Worlder,” Moslem, evolutionist, global citizen, Jew, criminal, banker, doctor, lawyer, and KING on the face of this planet.

Psalm 2:10-12: “Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth. Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.”

Zephaniah 3:8: “Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.”

The “owner of the vineyard” (see Naboth and Christ, above: 1 Kings 21 and Matt. 21) will “miserably destroy” (Matt. 22; Joel 2; Jer. 25:33; Ezek. 32; Rev. 9, 14, 19) over 2,000,000 “global citizens” when He comes back to possess what belongs to HIM (not the “king” and “queen” [1 Kings 21] or the religious “husbandmen” [Matt. 21]).

It was HIS piece of ground which He made (Col. 1; John 1), and He gave a clear title deed of it to the twelve tribes of Israel (“Jacob,” not just “Isaac”). He purposely excluded Ishmael and Esau and ALL of their descendants from getting to own or occupy ONE FOOT of it. He did this (and recorded it) more than 2,000 years before Mohammed or Arafat (or any “Palestinian”) saw daylight.

So that is the final thing that is wrong with God’s Book. Not one major member nation of the UN can accept what the Bible records to be absolute truth, provable by HISTORY. The Book sets up “stereotypes.” It is selective. It has “racial preferences.” It discriminates against people and races who think that they are equal to anyone else. It is selective and “exclusivistic” (there is one of those ghastly NEA, news media “buzz words”).

The history Book declares, over and over again, without any apology or explanation, that since sinners are the enemies of God (James 4:4) and are engaged in warfare against Him (Psa. 2; Rev. 19), that He has the prerogative of saving them (Rom. 5) or declaring war against them (2 Sam. 22; Isa. 63; Joel 2; Judg. 5; Rev. 19) and counter-attacking them with military troops: armed SWAT teams (Judg. 5:4, 18-20, 22; Jer. 25, 50; Ezek. 21; Joel 2; and Rev. 19).

You highly spiritual, “religious” people, you sanctified sissies who were “raised in a church,” don’t think that God has that prerogative? Watch and see. “Seein’ is believin’!”

Look how ridiculous educated Christians appear in the light of history when dealing with the history Book. After hollering about the “Sermon on the Mount” and 1 Corinthians 13 and 1 John 3-4 for 250 years (1611-1860), some depraved, Bible-rejecting “Christian” (a female New Englander, back in 1862) gave American Christians a God to sing about who equated killing Southerners with “tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath” were stored. According to this poor, old, demon-possessed “Christian,” God had hymns about killing people with whom she didn’t agree on political issues.

She never blushed about such a “kind” and “loving” Christian “confession of faith,” so she wrote a hymn glorifying her God as a Military Commander in charge of killing other Christians. She (as some of you) forgot there were just as many saved young men in the Confederate armies as there were in the “Union” armies. Furthermore, old “Honest Abe” backed her up all the way, and so did more than 5,000,000 Christians in churches that sang that hymn, out of a “Christian” hymn book, between 1880 and 1980.

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord; He is trampling the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored; He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword, His truth is marching on.

The words to that song are pilfered from Deuteronomy 32:32-33; Psalm 68:23; Isaiah 63:1-6; and Revelation 14:19-20; three historical accounts of a historical event that had not yet taken place during the Civil War (1861-1865) nor even after World War 11 (1939-1945).

She lied when she sat down, she lied while she composed, and she lied when she got up. What she wrote WILL take place, including the “terrible swift sword” (Rev. 19:15) which she stole from Ezekiel 21 and Jeremiah 46, 50. Don’t believe a word I’m saying. Go look in THE BOOK. Julia Ward Howe was one of the greatest demon-possessed liars who ever perverted the Holy Scriptures. She said she had SEEN what Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Isaiah, David, and John prophesied.

She threw all five accounts out as HISTORY and stuck them into a “religious” setting where she could make a “spiritual application.” The University of Alexandria (Origen, Plato, Clement, and Pantaenus) has a long reach. History will shortly prove that the verses she perverted were in a history Book—not a religious book—because the Book IS a history Book.

What an abominable Book!

In this Book, one can not only read future history, but one can find out who God is, what He has done in creation and history, what He intends to do with His creation (and His creatures) in history; it also shows any sinner how to gain His favor, how to please Him, how to get along with Him, and then wind up in a real “Shangrila” (Happy Hunting Ground, Paradise, Valhalla, Golden Isle of Somewhere, etc.) with a sinless, deathless BODY (Rom. 8:29; 1 John 3:1-3; Phil. 3:20-21). What could be any better than that? Nothing.

Conversely, what could be any worse than for a sinner to live and die without ever knowing why he is here, what he is supposed to do, or where he is going when he dies?

What could be more tragic with that much material available (and in the universal language of the “end time”) than to live and die in ignorance and wake up to be judged by a holy, sinless Being and discover that some idiotic “religious” belief had sold you on the idea that with some kind of “faith” you could justify your sins by your good life so the Holy One would accept you!

Every “religion” on this earth was invented to get you to put your faith and trust in some THING instead of some PERSON.

Read that again. Now read it over again.

Now put it to the test and see if I lied to you.

Here are a list of THINGS to put your trust in:

1. Getting rid of your Karma.
2. Attaining Prajna (enlightenment).
3. “Joining the church Christ founded.”
4. Taking the “sacraments.”
5. Doing good, praying, and giving alms.
6. Keeping the “Golden Rule.”
7. Repenting of your sins.
8. Believing there is “one God.”
9. Doing good and “making the world a better place to live in.”
10. Saying the rosary, repeating “Hail Mary” and “Our Father.”
11. Observing the Feast of Ramadan or Succoth or the Passover.
12. Loving your “fellow man” and helping “oppressed minorities.”
13. Being a “peace maker” and “building bridges.”
14. Trusting any Pope, priest, preacher, monk, nun, or religious leader.
15. Tithing and getting baptized.

Matthew 1:21: “And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.”

1 John 5:10-12: “He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.”

John 1:12: “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:”

Not one item in the list of sixteen can justify you, cover your sins, take your sins away, give you the new birth or eternal life. Every one of them is a counterfeit substitute for receiving a PERSON instead of a system, belief, code, creed, church, or teaching.

You have mathematical proof that the Book which told you that your salvation was in a PERSON (see above) can “call the shots,” ahead of time, every time a shooter loads his rifle. The Book is the only Book out of 23,000,000 that can tell you, aforetime, which shots will be “on target” or not, even when they are not in the “bull’s eye.”
To do this, the Author of that Book had to be alive before 4000 B.C. and still be alive after A.D. 3000. He would have had to see all of the historical events described in that Book (more than 3,000 of them) before anyone recorded them.

That description does not fit any author you ever read, including Biblical authors (Matthew, Mark, Luke, Ezekiel, Paul, James, Peter, Jude, David, Isaiah, Moses, et al.). It places THE Book right “smack dab” into the middle of the endtime (A.D. 2000-3000) without any apologies to any historian and without the least regard for anyone’s feelings or traditions; not one compliment or “pat on the back” for one hypocrite, anywhere on this earth, who wastes your valuable time with talk about “making the world a better place to live in,” “ending man’s inhumanity to man,” “liberating the oppressed minorities,” or “the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man,” etc.

There is not one positive comment made on twentieth-century man’s efforts to “bring in the Kingdom” without the Messiah. God doesn’t even give a passing nod to any peace-keeping force (or process), any international police force, any international court of justice, or anyone praying for “world peace,” etc.

Not a word. Not a word in 1,200 pages, with writing on both sides. Not a word after forty writers made their entries, and made them 1,000 years apart, writing on three different continents: not a word. Not one “pat on the back” for anything or any person that the news media has pushed (or is pushing or will push) can be found in sixty-six books comprising more than 31,000 statements on “man.” One Book out of 23,000,000.

The Book is intolerable. Professor Pinkevitch of the USSR said, back in the 1920s: “The world is getting too small for that Book; either the world will have to go or that Book will have to go.” No problem. Old Pinkevitch had that problem answered for him more than 1,850 years before there was any Russian revolution.

Matthew 24:35: “Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.”

The UN had to invent a “charter” to replace the only scientific treatise on history ever written. That “charter” is designed to work out the history of man contrary to 500 verses in the Bible. The author of those verses will LAUGH at the antics of the UN in the next ten years (Psa. 2; Prov. 1), for He knows every detail of what will take place in the next 1,000 years and even beyond THAT (Rev. 21-22). He will work out history according to His blueprint, inspite of any “United Nations.” They will not even delay His “paradigm shift,” for they are less than nothing (Isa. 40:17)—literally.

“HE THAT SITTETH IN THE HEAVENS SHALL LAUGH: THE LORD SHALL HAVE THEM IN DERISION.” (Psa. 2:4).
Chapter 5
One Chance Out of $10^{6000}$

Surely, enough has been said to show that THE history Book, which the Creator wrote, is entirely in a class by itself. Its uniqueness does not have to be questioned, tried, tested, or proved (or disproved) by any “higher critic.” No two dozen German Rationalists or three dozen French Atheists or four dozen English Deists or five dozen American Humanists could compete with such a masterpiece; not even if they “pooled” their resources and worked together. All four national groups are not even in the “running.” They have been scratched before they reached the “line up.” The lineup was all “lined up” by the time Moses had finished writing ONE Book (Genesis).

God has proposed to write a history of His creatures (Acts 17:24-29): His “offsprings.” When it was finished it was going to be laid alongside its competitors: man’s history of himself, according to what he thought. Then all mankind could place their bets. They can bet on THE Book or else some other book; there are 23,000,000 from which to choose. You’re “free, white, and twenty-one; help yo’self!”

The Book is written backwards. God “opted” to put the emphasis in it on the end of man’s history instead of the beginning. This wouldn’t leave any historian any gap, exit, or loophole through which to exit if he said “history is still being written.” God closed WRITTEN history where He closed His “canon”: at Revelation 21-22. There can be no more “history” af-ter that. So when the Most High writes, He “zeroes in” on the “endtime” of man’s history and proves (beyond all implausibility) that He had to begin His Book AFTER history took place! He had to inhabit ETERNITY (Isa. 57:15) to do such a thing. The material He then dished out to His writers (Iddo, Jehu the son of Hanani, David, Moses, Isaiah, Ahijah the Shilonite, Samuel, Gad, Nathan, Matthew, Mark, Luke, Shemaiah, John, et al.) was given to them AFTER the Author had seen the New Heavens and the New Earth “wherein dwelleth righteousness” (2 Pet. 3). He also had seen the occupants of the New Hell (Rev. 20:15), as well as New Jerusalem. The New Hell was called “THE LAKE OF FIRE” (Rev. 21:8).

One shining example, in the Pentateuch (1500 B.C.), is Moses (as a writer) describing the regathering of the nation of Israel (1917-1948) and their restoration (A.D. 2000-2007, or thereabouts), AFTER their rejection of Jesus Christ (Deut. 21, 32). That would be a 3,500 year “foresight” on his part. That is some “foresight.”

Another joke that God pulled off on all of the historians was that He took advantage of their fear of man (Prov. 29:25; John 12:42-43). God knows all about highly educated “intellectuals” (see Prov. 18:1-2; Isa. 28-29; Luke 10; 1 Cor. 1-3, etc.). They fear ridicule worse than they fear God or death. He knew that everyone of them, in writing a humanistic history for unsaved sinners, would comfort them in their sins and assure them that everyone of them was just as “precious” in God’s sight (if there was any God!) as anyone else. They would lump mankind together, avoid all racial “slurs”; they would equate everybody with everybody else, alibi all their sins on lack of education and scientific approaches, and avoid “judging” anyone like they would avoid EBOLA or AIDS.
In short, they would make a liar out of God just as quickly as speak His name. Not one of them would teach that any Book was superior to any other book or that one nation was superior to other nations, or that one MAN (1 Tim. 2:5; Acts 4:12) was superior to other men. If they did anything like that, the educated intellectuals would “laugh them out of court” for their lack of “broadness” and “objectivity.” Their peers and mentors would deride them as fanatics or narrow-minded “bigots.” And to them (with their hypersensitive, Cod-fishy nerves) that would be a punishment worse than death.

So all of the “recognized” historians—all of them; none excepted—placed God’s history Book on the religious shelf, as we said before. And then, totally ignoring the scientific fact that it displayed a mathematical miracle that none of them could duplicate (and no one before or after them could duplicate), they set to work writing “history books”: Ridpath, Homer, Gibbon, Schaff, Van Wyck, Durant, Huizinga, Toland, Bulwer, Lamb, Ibn Khaldun, Soderblom, Spengler, Prescott, Eusebius, Petrarch, Homer, Plutarch, Josephus, Strabo, Alcuin, MaCauly, Solzhenistyn, Lygarde, Froom, Thucydides, Tacitus, Wells, Kato, et al.

The mathematical miracle could not be found in one book (or any ten books) that any man in that list ever wrote.

The Book took “chances” with future history that no human historian would attempt, not even Jean Dixon, Mother Shipton, or Nostradamus. No computer would attempt it.

For example: “The Lord of glory” dealt out forty-eight details of a man’s life who would not be born until more than 400 years after ANY of the details were written, and then had eye witnesses testify (500 of them on one occasion!) as to the fulfillment of those prophecies.

The chances of such a thing taking place anytime, anywhere, under any kind of conditions, on any continent on this planet, are about one out of ten to the 147th power, or thereabouts. The statistical probability (see Heisenberg’s “Uncertainty Principle”) behind this is more than astronomical, for one out of ten with 147 zeros after it is a number that outnumbers the number of electrons you would find in four universes the size of our known universe.

No scientist, astronomer, physicist, UN observer, space-age astronaut, or mathematician (including Einstein) is even about to make a comment on this phenomenon. It is totally “unique.” No man (or men) can duplicate it.

But future! Not being content with “small fry” odds of one-out-of-ten with 147 zeroes following it, the Lord God had His writers (notably, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Zephaniah, Micah, Haggai, Nahum, Daniel, Hosea, Zechariah, Elihu, and Malachi) pass the limits of sanity by writing down another 500 details of historical events that were to take place in the future: more than 450 would take place AFTER A.D. 2000!

All of them were written down BEFORE 400 B.C.

“Place your bets. Shake, rattle, and roll, baby! Seven, come eleven! ” Five card draw; seven card stud.

You know where my chips are.
Then, to add vinegar and salt to the open wounds of these poor, offended, depraved, man-scarred stuffed shirts (any historian with an IQ over 150 and twenty-five years of formal education), God openly made fun of everyone of them who had tried to match His history Book by writing a “history” of man. The sarcastic harangue that man’s Creator threw in his face runs as follows:

Isaiah 41:4: “Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first, and with the last; I am he.”

Isaiah 44:6-7: “Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God. And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them show unto them.”

Isaiah 43:12-13: “I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God. Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it?”

Isaiah 44:24-25: “Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself; That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish;”

Isaiah 45:11-12, 21: “Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me. I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded….

Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me.”

Isaiah 48:3, 5-8: “I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass…. I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them. They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou hearest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them. Yea, thou hearest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb.”

Isaiah 41:21-24: “Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob. Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come. Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together. Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.”

The pen holder, in that case, was Isaiah.

No one “took him on.” No one for the next 2,800 years.

You don’t know one genius, one college professor, one Nobel Prize winner or Pulitzer Prize winner that even tried to “take him on.” They couldn’t. They were as far outclassed as a school of minnows attacking a White Shark.

No one will ever “take” Isaiah “on” because no man, living or dead, but ONE (Rom. 1:1-4) has ever seen history begin and seen it end. God has. So He just “lays it on thick” and laughs at the intellectuals who reject His words as history. The chances of 500 prophecies on historical events that will take place, coming to pass literally in history, when they were made more than 2,000 years before they will take place, is one out of ten with more than 6,000 zeroes after it. There are not that many atoms or electrons in ten universes the size of our known universe.

But the Holy Bible in only “one out of several” sacred ‘Scriptures’ of ‘other faiths’, ” is it? That’s one of those “UN cliches.”

Did you put a TV aerial on your washing machine so you could get “cleaner reception”? Did you swallow five pennies when your daddy told you he wanted to see some “change” in you? Are you standing in front of a mirror with your eyes shut so you can see what you look like while you are asleep?

A man stupid enough to believe that UN “cliche” (above) has earned an M. D. (“Mentally Deficient”). The only reason he can “keep his head above water” is because wood floats. A man that stupid would put a block of ice in front of his wall safe so if a burglar entered he’d “get cold feet.”

“SACRED SCRIPTURES of other faiths?”

You mean joke books for presumptuous fools?

What is sacred about anything written by anybody where the anybody does nothing but mouth pious platitudes, list pages full of ethereal speculations and philosophical puzzles, display an irrational reverence for what he likes and condemn everyone he doesn’t like, “trips” on self hypnosis, and then pretends he has found something when all he has found is a hole in the ground where someone will bury him who is just as blind and deceived as he is? “Sacred? ” That isn’t the word for it. The word for it is “GIBBERISH.” “Sacred Gibberish.”

Modern “religions” are psychotic catastrophes.

Finally, after deliberately insulting every historian (secular or sacred) who ever lived, the Lord of Hosts decided that He had not “distanced” Himself far enough from man’s “sacred cows.” To alienate Himself even further, He wrote His history Book so that it would present “the measure of all things” in a totally negative role (Rom. 3:9-20). It would present His “offspring” (Acts 17:26-28) as a colossal FLOP who could only be rescued from annihilation by Divine intervention—at intervals.

The “best seller” was going to exhibit the famous “indomitable,” triumphant “spirit of MAN” as nothing but a disgusting wash out. “Man,” in the Book, is described over and over again, as a fallen, degenerate renegade bound by nature to the laws of entropy, disintegration, randomness, sinfulness, decay, and death (Rom. 1-3; 1 Cor. 6; Gal. 5). At his very best, “modern man” is a floundering, light-rejecting, deceived, defective, spiritual MISCARRIAGE. He is everything that he claims he is not and is nothing that he claims to be.

“Man” has failed under every period of testing that God put him under. The Law of Human Collapse is so evident (and made so clear) in the Book that no one could miss it. Under testing, Adam fails; under God’s protection, Cain murders; under grace, Noah gets drunk; under physical salvation, Ham commits Sodomy; under God’s promises, Abraham lies about his wife; under the covenants and birthrights, Reuben shacks up with his father’s wife. Liberated from sla-very (Exod. 12-15), the Jews go back to idolatry (Exod. 32). Having been victorious in twenty years of combat (Josh. 1-9), they intermarry with idolators and go back to practising bestiality and incest (Lev. 19-20; 1 Kings 18). Being restored after captivity (Ezra and Nehemiah), they join the heathen again, and when the “fulness of the time” comes and their “iniquity is pardoned” (Isa. 40:1-4), they kill their Messiah and then try to kill His followers (Acts 1-9).

The Church Age fares even worse. With a completed salvation and the certainty of eternal life, the Church fails its commission completely (2 Tim. 3:1-3, 4:1-6; 1 Tim. 4: 1-5; Rev. 1-3), and the world it was sent to evangelize forms a “one-world, global, ecumenical government” to worship Satan (2 Thess. 2; Rev. 13). In the final testing, with Satan gone (Rev. 20:1-2), nature regenerated (Rom. 8; Isa. 11), and no unclean spirits around (Zech. 13:2), mankind defects and attacks God’s “beloved city” (Rev. 20:9) in an attempt to kill Jesus Christ AGAIN (Psa. 110:2; Isa. 26:10; Rev. 20:1-9).

The Book is a silent witness which will survive 7,000 years of human failures. “The spirit of man” overcomes NOTHING. It is overcome by sin and death until God sets it free (Rom. 7: 24-25; Rev. 21: 3-4; 1 Cor. 15: 49-52).

The Book presents “man” (in the aggregate) as “less than nothing” (Isa. 40:17), and within “man” (Luke 11:13) there is no hope whatsoever (Rom. 7:18) unless it is inside the “vessel” (2 Cor. 4:7) of a saved sinner in whom Christ dwells (Col. 1:27). Without the Author of THE Book, every man is a bankrupt business man, alone in the world without hope and “without God” (Eph. 2:12). He is a defeated soldier who is “dead in trespasses and sins” (Eph. 2:1-4), and the best for which he can hope as a diseased moral leper (Isa. 1) is a “first class” Hell instead of “the lowest hell” (Deut. 32:22). Perhaps “outer darkness” (2 Pet. 2:17; Jude 13) instead of a “lake of fire” (Rev. 22:15).

Since the first natural death of the first “earthy man” (Gen. 5:5; 1 Cor. 15:47), “man” has proved to be a dismal failure.

“Write, John, write (Rev. 1:11, 19)!”

“Write me a history book for the twentieth, twenty-first, and twenty-second centuries (Rev. 3-20)!”
And so it came to pass that a Jewish commercial fisherman got him a first-century “word processor” and typed out advanced information on the NCCC (1960), four world wars (1914-3000), Satan as the head of the UN, literal human sacrifices in a rebuilt temple (attended by cannibalism), the Second Coming of Judas, Elijah, and Moses, as well as the Second Coming of Christ, the use of drugs and fornication in worship services, the computer chip, the Xerox, the “fax,” and bar code groceries, along with beheading as a form of capital punishment, the colors and symbols of the Vatican State and the Roman Catholic Church, the reappearance of manna in the wilderness, the flight of Palestinian Jews to the “Negev” (Sela, Petra), and the attack on Jerusalem by the UN, accompanied by the destruction of three-fourths of the earth’s land surface by environmental calamities.

Not bad for a first-century, Jewish fisherman who never went to school (Acts 4:13)!

Nostradamus and Orwell “should be so good,” Abbie!

That material came from only one Book in a collection of sixty-six books. (You ought to read that one by the shepherder who gathered sycamore fruit! Amos 4-9.)

When God wrote this Book, He had two things in mind: 1. To give spiritual light and understanding (and truthful information) to any reader who “took his place” in the place where the Book placed him. 2. To utterly blind and destroy any reader who thought the Book was just one more “religious book” about somebody’s “faith.”

You see, it cut two ways; that is why it was likened to a “twoedged sword” (Psa. 149:6; Heb. 4:1213). Take the “s” off “sword,” and you have the “WORD.” For the sinner who thought positively about the Book and negatively about himself, the “word” amputated his gangrenous members and restored his health to him (John 9; 1 Thess. 2:13; Psa. 107:20). For the sinner who thought positively about human nature and his “fellow man” (meaning himself!) but thought negatively about the Book, it simply disemboweled him like you would cut the gall bladder out of a dead deer.

The Book is aggressive because it is alive (John 6: 63; Heb. 4: 12-13; Jer. 23: 39). No other collection of (falsely) alleged “holy scriptures” can do anything like the Book does for (and with) mankind. Beside it, they are as sterile and as impotent as a pea shooter in a barroom brawl. The Book infects sinners with (and spreads) “BIBLIOPHOBIA” as it is read.

Now, all unregenerate sinners know this instinctively; no one teaches them (John 3: 19-20). They are either deadly afraid of the Book or simply unwilling to study it, or else they reject the Book as not being of any consequence, or they hate it with a purple passion. The only ones who are completely neutral or indifferent in dealing with it are the ones who never hear its contents preached or taught, in their language, by a preacher or teacher who believed it was what it professed to be.

These five classes of Bible-rejecting, Hell-bound sinners make up the personnel of CBS, NBC, ABC, CNN, the UN, the ECC, and the staffs of the NEA, CFR, FEMA, BATF, DEA, EPA, IRS, HRS, FBI, ACLU, Trilateral Commission, the Bilderbergers, and the news reporters of Time, Life, Newsweek, U. S. News and World Report, 500 daily newspapers in America, the British Broadcasting System, and the AP, INS, and UP wire services.
These five classes control, to a large extent, the thinking processes of the Western world. Every “outfit” listed above thinks that the Holy Bible is a pack of lies—they use the doublespeak “myths” and “legends” to cover-up their real belief—from Genesis to Revelation.

If you don’t bet on the Book, then you bet on its rejectors.

You are on the fence or off the fence, no matter what you PROFESS.

Your profession may protect your image or your reputation, but it will never keep you out of the Lake of Fire.
Chapter 6
The Greatest Sinners on Earth: The Writers Who Wrote the “Holy Scriptures”

Well, the Alpha and Omega finished His Book about A.D. 90—often wrongly referred to as “C.E. 90.” (This Satanic mark of the Bible-rejecting infidel was borrowed from the Jewish Encyclopedia. It was done to rid the world of any reference to Jesus Christ as “Lord.” Instead of Anno Domini [“the year of OUR LORD”], we have now—courtesy of the Christian “scholarly community!”—or “The Common Era,” if you are a secular Christ rejector. No God, no Christ, no Lord: that is “modern man.”)

The first- and second-century Christians loved to read from this Book, although for several years they could only get ahold of sections of it, one at a time. They believed all of it when they read it (Acts 24:14); they believed everything in it because one writer in it (Luke 24:25) had quoted their Saviour as saying that men were “fools” if they didn’t believe everything in it. “Our Lord” was not very careful about following His own instructions (Matt. 5:22) when it came to name calling (see p. 159). The original Author of the Holy Scriptures was a Master at “hate speech” when it came to dealing with “defamation of character.”

That isn’t all. If the writers of the Pentateuch, the Psalms, and the Prophets actually recorded what God said, via “holy men of God” (2 Pet. 1:21), then “God” (in the twenty-first century) should be arrested and tried for hate speech, stalking, harassment, invasion of privacy, and illegally breaking the laws of the United States. In addition to that, He should be tried, convicted, and sentenced by an international court for treason (Jer. 38:1-6), arson (Jer. 34:21-22; 2 Kings 25:9), murder (Jer. 13:13-14), slander (Rom. 3:10-11, 4:5), child abuse (Prov. 22:15, 23:13-14; Deut. 21:19-21), chauvinism (1 Cor. 11:3-9), hatred of humanity (Isa. 66:22-24), hate speech (Matt. 23; Jer. 23; John 8), waging aggressive warfare (Joshua), and practicing Genocide (Josh. 6:21, 11:14, 20).

Some historian, eh what?

Some “religious” book, right?

There is only one way that “modern man” can keep on trying to act pious and respectable in view of this barrage of negative treatment. He would have to pretend that no decent, respectable “God” could possibly have had anything to do with the writing of such passages; everything in the Book that is offensive, distasteful, or revolting was strictly some writer’s personal opinion within the “cultural context” of his “social milieu” at his day and hour. That is exactly what “modern man” (1800-2000) did with the whole Book: both Testaments.

What “modern man” wanted as a substitute for documented evidence by eye witnesses was an “HISTORICAL” Jesus; that is, the “Jesus” of the Bible was the religious figment of someone’s imagination. The REAL “Jesus” (who lived in history as an historical figure) should be a queer (see the work sponsored by the National Endowment for the Arts) or a fornicator (see The Last Temptation) or a dope addict (the NEA, again) or at least be a martyred teacher who died to show men how to live selfless lives. Jesus could really be ANYTHING as long as he wasn’t SINLESS, and as long as He didn’t SAY anything that would offend religious “do-gooders” who were trying to work their way to heaven by good works.

The “HISTORICAL Jesus” (invented by the pagan imaginations of Strauss, Semler, Graf, Wellhausen, Schweitzer, Schleiermacher, and Renan) was really a fictitious “patsy” made in the image of fallen man. He never existed anywhere outside of the depraved imagination of hallucinating scholars, who shredded the New Testament. So both Testaments had to be converted into a little collection of ancient religious myths, legends, mores, and nonscientific guesswork. The scientific FACT that both Testaments bore the mark of infallible predictions (Acts 1:3) according to the Science of Mathematics (see p. 80-83) meant no more to “modern man” than a gospel tract. Modern man has been in love with himself for over 200 years, and he has made idols out of his little “do-gooder” myths and Darwinian traditions. Modern man, when dealing with the Book, is about as “scientific” as Thales and Zeno would be in dealing with it (400 B.C.).

Up pops this Book and says that God has a “chosen people” whom He called “MY people.” There wasn’t an African or a European in the lot (see Gen. 10-11). The Author of the Book was a RACIAL BIGOT.

If that wasn’t a hard enough bone to chew on, the Lord threw this one to the “dogs” (Matt. 15:27): He placed six Hamitic nations under a “ban” (Exod. 3: 8, 17), knowing that all of them came from the same man and that man begat nothing but Canaanites and Africans to start with (Gen. 10: 6).

Then, after dividing mankind (“he separated the sons of Adam”: Deut. 32:8) into three ethnic groups (Mongoloid, Negroid, and Caucasian), He had the au-dacity to declare that one would excel in material things (Gen. 9:27), one would excel in spiritual things (Gen. 9:26), and one would serve the other two (Gen. 9:25).

Racial discrimination with no “affirmative action” for the “blacks.”

Thank God the Supreme Court of the United States (1964-1999) could tell the Author of the Book “where to head-in with His vicious RACISM” after He wrote that! Of course! Why not? Didn’t anyone of them have more knowledge of the future than Moses did back in 1400 B.C.?

But this was not the end of this big, mean, nasty, narrow-minded “Bigot’s” faults. Having chosen one planet in one solar system to work out history, He then confined that history to the activities of one nation out of several hundred, and then (oh horrors! Will this blasphemy never end?! ), He declared that if any human being on this earth ever got “saved” from his sins (that is, he was able to attain eternal life with God: Matt. 1:21) he would have to get his salvation from that RACE: the Jews (John 4:22).

Man, oh man! You talk about a religious BIGOT!

But the writers who professed to have written what the Author of Scripture told them to write didn’t pull over to a parking place yet. Adding insult to insult and blasphemy to blasphemy, and heresy to heresy and offense to outrage, they further declared that God would ditch more than 80 percent of the Jews (eleven tribes ditched out of twelve) and choose ONE Jew from ONE tribe to be the Saviour for Jews and Gentiles (Luke 2:10).
Furthermore! He purposely ignored all of the women in that nation (from any tribe) or race (see 1 Tim. 2:15), since no woman could qualify as a “Saviour” for anybody: male or female.

The Bigot was obviously a “Sexist.” He called the “Sun” a “HIS” (Mal. 4:1-2), and He called the moon a “HER” (Ezek. 32:7): sexism!

Thank God the Supreme Court of the United States (and the UN) straightened His theology out on that point! What would we do without these bold, brave “contenders for the faith”?

But nothing could stop the Bigot that was causing bigots to write this Book.

His writers continued their wicked, wicked ways (and words) without a letup. On went this terrible piece of “anti-Christian” literature.

Having chosen one man out of one nation, the Book gave that one nation one mountain on one piece of land (Psa. 146:10, 147:12; Isa. 52:7, 33:20, 31:5; Jer. 50:5, 28, 31:6, 44:26-28; Joel 3:16-21; Zech. 1:14; Micah 4:2, 7; Psa. 128:5) and then had the nerve to declare (just as serious as a heart attack) that the one MAN would wind up as King over the UN, the ECC, China, Japan, Turkey, Indonesia, Mongolia, North, Central, and South America, and the islands of the seas. That King would be a Military Dictator and absolute Sovereign over every man, woman, and child on “Planet Earth.” He would be a JEW from the tribe of Judah (Gen. 49:10; Luke 2:4).

What a ghastly travesty of humanism, law, justice, peace, prosperity, and order!

Don’t allow the Book to enter Iraq or Iran! Stop the Book from getting into Japan and China! For “God’s sake” (!!!), keep the Book out of India, Bangladesh, Pakistan, and Arabia! Get it out of the Christian bookstores in America. Stop those Catholics in Spain, Italy, and Austria from reading that Book. Quit printing it in England and Scotland. Help! SWAT team alert! Send for the DEA. Get the Book out of the classrooms in America. Get it off the school grounds. Knock it out of the pulpit. Replace it in the seminaries. HELP!

Being a thoroughbred “racist” to the hilt, God declared that He had not beheld “perverseness” nor “iniquity” (Num. 23:21) in one nation, even when it had disbelieved His promises (Psa. 105:7, 12, 25, 29), worshipped idols instead of Him (Psa. 105:19-20, 3637), rebelled against His spiritual leadership (Num. 16), and refused to obey His commandments (Num. 12:20; Exod. 16:28).

After declaring that He was “no respecter of persons” (Acts 10:34; Rom. 2:11), He chose Jesus Christ while discarding Mohammed; He picked Elijah over Buddha, Moses over Caesar, Paul over Herod or Pilate, Sarah over Princess Di, Abel over Cain; Ezra over Frank Sinatra, Jacob over Esau, Sam Jones over Pope Pius IX, and Isaac over Ishmael.

No wonder the world has always been leary of the “best seller”!

After telling His own people that He would always love them and show them mercy (Psa. 138:8, 23:6; Ezra 3:11; 2 Chron. 7:3; Lam. 3:32), He announced that He would show them NO MERCY and would kill them right and left (Lam. 2-5) and leave their corpses for the wild animals to “winter” on (Jer. 6:23; Hosea 1:6; Isa. 27:11, 18:6).

Now, how could any really broad-minded, intelligent, reasonable, rational, twenty-first century “man” take such a Book seriously? Even if it was a “religious” Book!

He couldn’t. He didn’t. He won’t. He can’t.

If that Book really is “God’s Book” then “modern man” is permanently damned before he gets off the ground. When he approaches the Book he has already been “programmed” by the news media and his formal education not to believe one word in it if it offends anyone (including himself), upsets or disturbs anyone (especially himself), or is enigmatical to anyone (like himself). His chances, therefore, of taking it seriously are about one out of ten thousand. Without the assistance of the Author of that Book, there is no way that “that Book” can be understood.

Consider! The Author says (via His scribes) that He will “rejoice” to destroy His own people (Deut. 28:63). Not only that (being bent on destruction as a permanent “lifestyle”), the writers declare that the Most High God will destroy any woman or her family if her husband doesn’t “rule” over her (Gen. 3:16; Esther 12; 1 Cor. 11:3; Titus 1:5). Then the writers say that God will wipe out every nation that hosted the Diaspore (the Jews of the Dispersion) between A.D. 70 and A.D. 2000 (Jer. 30:11). My, what a bright prospect for the twenty-first century!

The writers of this Book, defying all the laws of common sense and even nature, certify that 500 real people witnessed, with their own eyes, the live, resurrected body of a Man who had been declared to be DEAD by a professional soldier (John 9:33-34) and a registered physician (Acts 1:3). He had been buried three days before He was resurrected (1 Cor. 15:4).

This was recorded in a history Book as one historical event that took place alongside the jurisdiction of two Roman governors (Pilate and Herod), the destruction of Jerusalem by Roman armies (A.D. 70), a universal flood around 2300 B.C., the successive kingdoms of Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Persia, Greece, and Rome, the building and destruction of two temples in an exact locality, the number of troops involved in military engagements, the number of casualties in battles, the occupation of Canaan by Israelites coming out of Egypt, twelve famines that took place, and the reigns of more than twenty kings of Israel and Judah.

The writers of this history Book state, time and time again, that nothing they are writing is mythologi-cal or “legendary” where it deals with events that will happen to the people and nations about which they are writing. They are not engaged in producing an “historical novel.” It is genuine HISTORY.

The Virgin Birth took place (Luke 2). It did without any reference to whether anyone believed it or not. Take it or leave it; it still happened.

The conversion of Paul (Acts 9) took place; it happened in history. It happened exactly as the author recorded it (Luke). Whether anyone believes that record or not, it still stands. If it happened, it happened, and if it didn’t, it didn’t. What YOU believe about that is totally irrelevant as to whether it did or did not take place.

Your belief doesn’t affect either proposition.

Your “faith” is immaterial to the event.
Your “faith” is a joke if it is not based on historical facts.

So is the “faith” of every Catholic, Protestant, Buddhist, Jew, Methodist, Atheist, Humanist, Hindu, Taoist, Shiite, Agnostic, Greek Orthodox, or Baptist on the face of this earth.

The Red Sea parted; it was no more the “Sea of Reeds” in the “marshy ground” than it was Lake Ontario or the Okeefenokee Swamp.” “The Red Sea” that Israel crossed had Solomon’s navy anchored, at bay, in it (1 Kings 9:26), according to the Author of the account given in Exodus 12-15. Your opinion about those matters is about as sound (or as relevant) to the HISTORY of the matter (what actually happened) as Janet Reno’s blabbering on a microphone (1999) about her Waco Holocaust.

Paul wrote that if the historical account of a dead man coming up out of the grave and eating and fellowshipping with folks (Acts 1) was not true (1 Cor. 15), that no one can know where they are going when they die, no Bible believer is preaching the truth, no Christian’s sins are forgiven, no one is coming up out of the grave at any time in the future, and a Christian is more miserable than a convict serving two life sentences in prison, without parole (see 1 Cor. 15:13-19).

The Book is either an actual history, or it is just religious fiction, like Yin and Yang and The Hadith.

Mathematics prove it to be history. At the same time, mathematics proves that such religious hot air as The Adi Granth, The Book of Mormon, The Koran, The Tao Teh Ching, The Shastas, The Puranas, The Avesta, The Sutras, The Sayings of Mohatma Gandhi, The Hadith, The Yasnas, the utterances of the Popes, plus the Harvard “Five Foot Shelf” of Classics simply constitute a mammoth bookshelf of philosophical and spiritual sewage, with occasional condiments of sugar, spice, and salt added to appeal to a self-righteous sinner’s taste buds.

As we stated, much earlier, when the Lord dreamed up this Book He decided to lay its emphasis on the historical events that would attend the “endtime” of man’s history. So most of the Book is future history; we mean beyond A.D. 2000.

In Biblical circles, where Christians “take their Bible study seriously” (an Alexandrian cliche borrowed from all apostate Bible revisers), these events are called:

The Regathering of Israel, the Ecumenical Movement, the “Rapture,” the Judgment Seat of Christ, the Marriage of the Lamb, the Great Tribulation, Daniel’s Seventieth Week, the Son of Perdition, the Remnant of Israel, Armageddon, the Second Advent, and the Restoration of Israel (Heb. 8; Rom. 11).

These things will be preceded by the total apostasy of the Christian church (1 Tim. 4; 2 Tim. 3-4; Jude; Rev. 1-3) and will be followed by the Millennial Reign of Christ (Psa. 110, 72, 2; Amos 9; Rom. 8; Matt. 19, 25; Isa. 11, etc.), the final rebellion (Rev. 20), the last Judgment (Rev. 20, Eccl. 12; Rom. 3; Acts 17), the disintegration of the Solar System (2 Pet. 3; Isa. 66), the New Heavens, the New Earth, and the New Jerusalem (Isa. 55, 65; Rev. 21, 23; John 17:24; Eph. 2:7; John 14:1-3; etc.).

Out of those TWENTY Biblical themes (that all deal with history), the modern religious, educational, political, military, and scientific leadership of the twenty-first century could only identify two items: the ecumenical movement and the apostasy of the Christian churches. Modern, twenty-first century “leaders” are Biblical illiterates in the truest sense of the world.

For them, the Bible is a closed Book (Isa. 29).

Here is how history is going to work, according to the Book, if the Book is what it professes to be: a history Book.

I. God intends to reduce a nation of prophets (Hosea 12:10-13) and priests (Exod. 19:6) to a nation of humanistic Agnostics (Deut. 32:5-6, 25, 28), so that their only real profession of faith will be Deuteronomy 6:4: a belief in ONE GOD. Ditto Mohammed and every demon in the universe (James 2:9; Mark 5:7; and Isa. 14:13-14). All demons have believed in “one God” since Genesis 1. The belief, in itself, means nothing.

II. This apostate nation, after its dispersion (Hosea 3), will be regathered to its ancient homeland (Hosea 2), as a “fig tree” under a curse; it will have a national life but no spiritual life (Matt. 24:32). All it can produce will be leaves (Matt. 21:19), no fruit. These leaves originally (the Law of First Mention) emphasized man’s self-righteous attempts to cover up his sin without the shedding of blood (Rom. 10:1-4). This fig leaf “cloak” (John 15:22) can never cover up sin, let alone take it away (Prov. 28:13).

III. In the meantime, God intends to gather the Gentile nations together (Matt. 13:30) to form one solid, united (Gen. 11), global mass of Christ-rejecting sinners (Rom. 11) who have corrupted the Old Testament (2 Cor. 2:17; Jer. 23:36) and perverted the New Testament (2 Pet. 3:16; Jer. 23:36).

IV. The United Nations Assembly (Zeph. 3:8), by constant rejection of the words found in a Book (John 8:44-47, 7:46-47) about themselves (Rom. 1, 3) will qualify as “fuel” for a bonfire (Ezek. 20-22; Jer. 4850; Mal 4:1-4). This mammoth burning will include all professing Christians, Catholics, Hindus, Buddhists, Protestants, Moslems, Jews, etc., who are dedicated “do-gooders” engaged in working their way to their special “heaven” by good works. Jesus Christ called them “tares” in Matthew 13 because they looked like “wheat.”

V. In order to assemble the United Nations into one bundle so they can be burned (Zeph. 3:8; Matt. 13:30), a “bride” must be put into their jaws (Isa. 30:28) to “cause them to err.” After the bridle is fixed, the animal (Rev. 13:1-4) can be “bound” (Matt. 13) and then “burned” (Mal. 4:1-4). Hence, the UN can do only one thing in the twenty-first century: it can prepare itself for worldwide annihilation.

To do this, they must set up the greatest totalitarian dictatorship ever invented by man. This monstrous Police State will invent ways and means not only to take over complete control of all nations, states, cities, businesses, churches, schools, and families, but also all conduct, SPEECH, and THOUGHT.

“Modern Space-Age Scientific Technology” will accomplish these objectives; backed up, of course, by armed “Peace-Keeping Forces” killing anyone who resists one move of the “New Age.”

Since it was Rome who whipped Jesus Christ and nailed Him to a cross (and jammed a spear into His side), and it was Rome who took bribes and lied about the Resurrection
(Matt. 24), and it was Rome who murdered James and Paul and imprisoned Peter (Acts 12) and murdered all the babies under two years old in Bethlehem (Matt. 2), and killed and tortured more than 5,000,000 Bible-believing Christians and Jews in the Dark Ages (A.D. 500-1600), it is Rome who will get the dubious honor of becoming the “guiding light,” the religious leader and enthusiastic instigator of this great, new “Pax Romana” (Roman Peace).

“Man” at his highest peak (Rev. 13-19) would be a religious, charismatic, sex-appealing, bloody KILLER. All dictators in the Western world were Roman Catholics (Noreiga, Marcos, Batista, Castro, Franco, Mussolini, Hitler, Stalin, et al. The Eastern branch of the Roman Catholic church is the Greek Orthodox Church, which produced Lenin and Stalin).

The counterfeit dictator (see p. 86) will gain his ascendancy while praying for peace (Dan. 11:21, 24) as a “blessed peace maker” (Matt. 5:9).

VI. The Roman dictator will be acceptable to all apostate Jews as long as he leaves Israel alone in Palestine. It has to be, for when the Jews murdered their anointed Messiah (John 4:25, 29; Acts 7:52), they avowed that they had “NO KING BUT CAESAR” (John 19:15).

Under this setup, the New-Age Roman “Caesar” is transformed (overnight: Rev. 13:1-6; Zech. 11:15—17; Isa. 14:13-14) from a normal human being into a superman whose Scriptural title is “THE SON OF PERDITION.” He will be the ultimate “enlightened” MAN (Ezek. 28): “SUPERMAN.”

He is assassinated and resurrected (Zech. 11; Rev. 13) and moves to Jerusalem to transfer the UN domination of the world from Rome to Jerusalem.

VII. The “sex connection” with this world ruler is indicated by a statement in Daniel 11:37 and a symbol in Egypt: the Sphinx (see The Mark of the Beast, 1960, for “words that end in ‘X’”). He is “uni-sex”: an hermaphrodite. Once in power, his mark, name, and number become the computerized implant chip, VISA card, Web-Net for a worldwide, monetary system (Rev. 13; Isa. 13) to be carried out with bar codes, “chips,” microwaves, holograms, “virtual reality,” electromagnetic brain waves, etc. He will convert all of the IRS (Internal Revenue Service), in America to the IRS (INTERNATIONAL Revenue Service), so that he can tax the whole world (Luke 2:1-5). This is why the Christians adopted a devil’s bible reading “enrollment” and “registered,” etc., instead of “TAXING” and “TAXED” (AV, 1611).

The most popular of these Satanic corruptions is called the New International Version.

This conversion of “National Public Radio” to “Public Radio INTERNATIONAL” was carried out undercover and automatically back in 1999, and just before it, America’s “NATIONAL parks” were quietly converted to “INTERNATIONAL Biospheres.”

No major news outlet (TV, radio, magazines, or newspapers) made any comment on either clandestine operation. The next step would be an “INTERNATIONAL Guard” replacing the “NATIONAL Guard.”

VIII. Sometime shortly before the time of this dictator’s death and resurrection, several million “trouble makers” will vanish from the face of this earth overnight or, more properly, “in the twinkling of an eye” (1 Cor. 15; 1 Thess. 4; Job 37; Psa. 50; Isa. 26;
John 11:26). When the “axe finally falls” (literally: Rev. 20:4, Rev. 6), the heads that roll will be Jewish heads (Rev. 11:8-9, 6:9; Lev. 1:1-10; Isa. 6:13) at an altar in Jerusalem—literally.

These martyrs will be converted Jews who have accepted Jesus Christ as their Messiah (John 12:42; Deut. 18:15-18) through the ministry of Moses and Elijah (Matt. 17:1-6; Mal. 4:4-6; Rev. 11:1-11).

INSERT: I have now listed thirty-five details of future history, which, if the Book IS God’s Book, are more “infallible” than any ex-cathedra statement on a “matter of faith and morals” uttered by any Pope who ever breathed on this planet.

The chances of these thirty-five details being fulfilled historically, in history, would be one out of ten with more than twenty-five zeroes after it: one chance out of 100,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000. Anybody wanna place their bets? I’m not talking about anybody’s “faith” or “religion.” I am talking about history—future history.

IX. These two prophets who represent “the law and the prophets” (Luke 16:16, 24:44) will show up again at Jerusalem; the city that killed the prophets (Matt. 23:37). When they show up, the Historian told John to write that Jerusalem, at that time, would no longer be called the beloved city (Rev. 20:9) or the holy city (Matt. 27:53) or the city of the great king (Matt. 5:35). At that time the holy city would be called Sodom and Egypt (Rev. 11:8) where also our Lord was crucified.

Why? Who could guess that nomenclature would be used for “the city of peace” in the twenty-first century? John knew: the commercial fisherman, remember? John wrote it down in A.D. 90. How on earth did he know the same city would be called the beloved city in the same Book where he had written Revelation 11:8?

Well, it should have been a “snap” if he had known one thing: that before the right dictator got on the throne at Jerusalem (Rev. 20:1-6), the wrong one would get on it (2 Thess. 2:1-6; see the remarks on p. 101-102). When the wrong ruler was on David’s throne at Jerusalem, the city would resemble AFRICAN culture (Egypt is in Africa), and it would promote sex perversion (“Sodomy” from “Sodom,” Gen. 10, 19).

“Hail Gaias! Hail Mother Nature! All Hail the New Age!” If that weren’t enough “back-to-the-jungle progress,” we find CANNIBALISM being practiced (Psa. 44:1; Isa. 13:6; Psa. 44:2).

“Hail ‘Eating Raoul!’” “Hail ‘Rainbow Coalition!’” “All Hail, the unborn embryos from Red China!”

John is writing future history 1,900 years before World War II.

Try that one on your “software”!

See if the “mouse” will stick that one in the “window”!

You talk about “DATA INFORMATION”!

What all of this amounts to is that it designates any rejector of the New Testament (be he B.A., M.A., Th.D., Ph.D., or Th.M) as a FOOL, and any rejector of the Old Testament as a blind fool. That is the only conclusion any sane man could reach after studying the Scriptures given above. (You will find all of this illustrated [in color] in more than 140 pages of Ruckman's Apocalypse, 1986.)

X. Following the refusal of Palestinian Jews to bow down to an image of “the measure of all things”— described more than 2,800 years before it is going to take place (Dan. 3)— the Soviet-Catholic “Fourth Reich” initiates a full-scale Holocaust, exactly like the Roman Catholic Holocaust of 1939-1945, except this time they will come much nearer their goal than the Roman Catholic Hitler did. This time, more than 10,000,000 Jews will be slaughtered. The number might be as high as 12,000,000 (Lam. 5). This second and last Holocaust is described in books written 2,600 years ago: 1 Kings, 2 Chronicles, Nehemiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and Zechariah.

Five of the greatest “types” of the “son of perdition” are Cain, Pharaoh, Sennacherib, Saul, and Nebuchadnezzar.

Now, Nebuchadnezzar was the king of the city (Babylon) and nation that Abraham left when he was called out to get that “piece of dirt” that God was going to give him (Gen. 15; Acts 7; Heb. 11).

One Book.

One chain of thought from beginning to end.

One main NON-RELIGIOUS subject from Genesis 1:1 to Rev. 20.

One historical account of a “King” and a “Kingdom” with the accent on the final King and the final Kingdom. Personal salvation was a side issue, an “incidental.”

Without divine intervention (Joel 2; Isa. 9:6), the land of Palestine, promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, will be turned over to Ishmael (the Mohammedans) and the Roman Catholic “Man of Sin” (the “Pope”). Caesar and Ishmael: a wine-headed bachelor idolator and a fornicating polygamist.

If the Book is a lie, that is exactly who will wind up with it (permanently). If the Book is true, the Pope’s name if “mud,” and Mohammed’s name is “mud pie.”

Place your bets, folks! “Round and round she goes, and where she stops, nobody but God knows!”

XI. God’s final purpose in dealing with “man” is to intervene at the crucial “last moment” on “Silver” (Rev. 19:11-16: Trigger, Rex, etc.) by using the “City of Peace” as a target for 200,000,000 UN “peace-keeping forces” (Rev. 9:15-16; 16:14-16; Joel 2). God will gather them there for the express purpose of burning them (Zeph. 3:8), although THEIR purpose for being gathered together, there, will be to bring “peace on earth to men of good will” by “working together in harmony” to “neutralize” the schismatic “divisive efforts” of “heretical schismatics” in the “CUP OF TREMBLING” (Zech. 12:2) which has kept the world in a turmoil since the days of the Balfour Declaration (1917); this “United Nations” was formerly called “The League of Nations”: same bunch of Bible-rejecting, God-defying “do-gooders” who kicked God the Father out of the League and kicked Jesus Christ, the Son, out of the UN.

Do you, at last, see why the world (“modern man”) has no use for the Book? It condemns him for what he is and then tells him what he will have to do and then forces him to do it against his will by deceiving him into thinking he is “bringing in the kingdom.” Like Judas (Zech. 11:12-13), “modern man” is predestinated to destruction, informed of it ahead of time (Matt. 26:24-25), and then cannot avoid it (Luke 17:1), although he can read about it taking place in third-grade English right in front of his face (Zech. 11:13)!

Forewarned, in “modern man’s” case, is not “forearmed” at all; it is simply the Author of the world’s greatest, anti-humanitarian essay extant, writing the greatest essay of hate literature ever written, informing His readers of what is going to happen to them 2,000-3,000 years before it happens to them. It is future history written backwards; a phenomenon that leaves Buddha and Joe Smith and Mohammed and the Popes standing huddled up together as miserable as a nest of starving crows alone in an Alaskan blizzard. To compare their writings and speeches with such an essay is to compare the ravings of Timothy O’Leary with the Sermon on the Mount.

The Book is so “Holy” it will defile your hands.

The Koran, alongside such a Book, appears to be little more than “The Religious Ramblings of a Fornicating Polygamist.”

It is God’s “selectivity,” His vicious, bigoted selectivity that is going to destroy Asia, Africa, Europe, North, South, and Central America, England, Australia, and the West and East Indies.

The wicked, vicious, prejudiced, bitter, “hateful” scribes who wrote this Book (at His bidding) show no respect for anyone’s feelings, no “sensitivity” when dealing with classes and races, no tolerance for the “opinions of others”; and they state a peace plan for the world that contradicts everything taught, learned, memorized, planned, plotted, legislated, or promoted by every major news outlet on the earth and every secular college and university.

According to Paul, Isaiah, Moses, Zechariah, Ezekiel, Daniel, David, Simon Peter, Jesus Christ, and the Apostle John, God’s “peace plan” for mankind (that will fulfill man’s desire) (Hab. 2:5) will be brought about by ARMED COMBAT in front of the “City of Peace” (Zech. 14; Rev. 19-20). This will be a war between the Creator and His creatures: God vs. Man. This time, there will be no more religious, sentimental slop about “sharing God’s love” and “a caring God who loves you,” or some Charismatic Santa Claus who thrills and chills you with “anointings” and “Shekinah glories.” This time, no humanistic gas about “Promise Keepers” and “the brotherhood of man” or “helping humanity out”; etc. This time it will be just plain, old-fashioned bloody murder: “hell on wheels” (Jude 1415; Isa. 34:13, 2:12-21), mashing 200,000,000-plus religious charlatans into fried beans (Rev. 14, 19; Joel 3; Isa. 34, 64, etc.) and burning them to ashes (Mal. 4:14; Matt. 13; 2 Thess. 1:7-8).

Find one history book out of 23,000,000 that has THAT “religious” material in it!

There is only one Book, and it is not a religious Book: it is a history Book. Com’on! Give me the name of that one Book.

Shall we repeat our “theme song”? Let’s!

The trouble with this history Book is that it keeps injecting “God” and “Lord” into man’s history. These two words occur more than 4,100 times in a 1,200 page Bible: that is more than three times per page. Modern man cannot and will not tolerate such a Book. He wants to live and die with himself as his own “god,” totally in charge of his destiny, apart from anything God said was going to take place.

He is perfectly willing to take a chance in dealing with unknown FUTURE HISTORY, although it was already recorded more than 1,000 years before his great, great grandparents were born; and the One who recorded it had never failed one time in 90-100 times when He predicted it before.

“The measure of all things” is betting his SOUL that none of Joel 2; Zechariah 10, 14; Isaiah 2, 11, 34, 66; Malachi 4; Zephaniah 3; Deuteronomy 28, 32; Matthew 24, Luke 21; Mark 13; Revelation 6, 11-13, 1822, will ever be fulfilled. He has discarded all of those writers (plus Moses, Daniel, Hosea, Amos, Micah, Nahum, Peter, James, Paul, David, and Haggai) as uninformed or misinformed, unscientific ignoramuses. More than that, by all modern standards of “civil rights” and “human rights” and “reverence for life,” etc., all of them should be arrested and either fined or imprisoned for slandering human nature and fomenting “hate crimes” through their uncouth and abusive speech.

This is what “modern man” thinks about the Author and His “authors.”

What we think about “modern man” could not be put in print.
Chapter 7

The Orders That Follow a Good Book Review

When the cherubim, seraphim, elders, and angels (Rev. 5-6; Isa. 6) had finished reviewing the Book (A.D. 990-100), the Lord said, “Now do you know why I wrote this ‘best seller’?”

There was a variety of responses: “To reveal yourself to mankind?” “Give a history of man’s search for God?” “Give them a reason to hope?” “Show them their need of salvation?” “Teach them how they should live?” etc.

When they finished, the Lord smiled and said: “My Book will accomplish all that and a great deal more. But did you all notice that I wrote TWO Testaments?” Everyone’s head nodded. “Well, the first Testament was written primarily to destroy Americans, Englishmen, Germans, Japanese, Russians, Austrians, Greeks, Italians, Chinese, Frenchmen, Swedes, Canadians, Filipinos, Mexicans, Africans, Cambodians, Vietnamese, Burmese, and Koreans (1 Cor. 1-2).

“That second Testament was written primarily to destroy Atheists, Agnostics, Deists, Evolutionists, Arabians, Turks, Buddhists, Algerians, Iraqians, Iranians, Moslems, Hindus, “New Agers,” and JEWS.

There was silence in heaven (for an hour instead of half an hour; Rev. 8:1). Had God actually said that that Book was written to DESTROY people?

Finally, Michael ventured a comment: “Get ‘em all at one crack?”

“Exactly: gather ‘em (Zeph. 3), bridle ‘em (Isa. 30:28), bind ‘em (Matt. 13) in bundles, then burn ‘em (Mal. 2; 2 Thess 1; Ezek. 21): GBBBB!”

That was what had been uppermost in the Lord’s mind from the start?

There was another silence in heaven; this one for two hours.

The Lord quietly surveyed His “hosts,” and then (frowning slightly) He asked them, “Didn’t my Son die for all of them (2 Tim. 1:1-8; Heb. 2:9)? That is, if none of you are Calvinists?”

All heads nodded (1 Tim. 2:4, 6; 2 Cor. 5:19).

“Then what is so upsetting to you about several million of them—that is only a handful out of several billion He died for—dying for HIM?!”

Fifth amendment; this time for three hours.

“If I heard right (Matt. 27:25), didn’t they say, “His blood be on us and our children”? All heads nodded.

“And didn’t Paul apply that kind of thing to the Gentiles too?” (Acts 20:26; Ezek. 33:7-8) (“Silence is golden.” “Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.”)

“Then what is wrong, pray tell, with THEIR blood being on HIM (Isa. 63:1-7; Rev. 14:20; Psa. 68:23; Deut. 32:41-42)? You people trying to discriminate and give somebody some More silence. A few heads shook vigorously.

At that point, the Lord adjourned the meeting. That is how the Lord “closed the books” on His Book. He knew that the proud, stupid, conceited, twentieth-century “wild asses” (Job 11:12) would never accept a world run by a Jewish King on a Jewish throne (Rom. 11:25) in a Jewish city, in a land where no Palestinian or Arabian could get a clear title deed to one square foot of real estate. Further, the Gentile world rulers (Rev. 13:7, 17:12) would never tolerate a sinless Military Dictator who gets His “kicks” out of destroying sinners (Mal. 4; Matt. 23, 25; Jer. 25; Joel 2) like an anteater going through an ant hill (Rev. 6:4, 9, 9:5, 15, 11:13, 14:19-20).

And no modern Jew would think of accepting (until Moses and Elijah show up!) an anointed “Messiah” who ridicules The Talmud and the Rabbis (Matt. 23), edits and revises their Mosaic laws (Matt. 19:7-8, 5:21 — 22, 5:27-29, 38-39) while claiming to be Jehovah “in the flesh” (“Jesus” means “Jehovah Saves”; “Emmanuel” means “God with us”), and then gives the unclean, Gentile “dogs” (Matt. 15:26, Acts 10:1, 15-16, 19) the same breaks that He gave Israel when it came to personal salvation (Acts 11:18; Rom. 10:12).

The Jew, especially, was destroyed by the New Testament, for without having any knowledge about what was in store for him in the second, third, and fourth centuries, the Jew would take for granted that if any group of Gentiles professed to believe in the Deity of Christ and the Virgin Birth, they would be “Christians” (Acts 11:26). This would turn out to be the destruction of more than 8,000,000 Jews between A.D. 325 and 1945; for it would prevent a Jew not only from hearing the gospel of the grace of God (Acts 20:24) given to the apostle to the Gentiles, but it would make him think that all Christians were “anti-Semitic.”

There never was on this earth, at any time since 1611, any real “Christian” who was anti-Semitic in the sense of justifying the ghetto, the yellow star, pogroms, or the killing of Jews because of their religion. There have been Lutherans, Catholics, Greek Orthodox, Episcopal, and Presbyterian “Christians” who believed in those things before 1611; but you could not have found a “Christian,” in the sense of Acts 11:26 or Romans 11:25-28, in the lot after 1611.

All Bible-believing Christians in the eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth, and twenty-first centuries believe Romans 11 and Hebrews 8, as well as 1 Thessalonians 2 and Romans 10. They have no Catholic pre-Reformation “hangover.”

Bible-believing Christians (2000) are just as sure that Isaiah 2, 11, 65-66; Psalms 2, 68, and 110 will come to pass, literally, as they are sure of their own salvation (1 John 5:10-13; Rom. 8:29; Phil. 1:6).

The Jew became completely shut out from salvation the moment the Council of Nicea (A.D. 325) took place. After that date, a Fascist form of professing “Christianity” was installed in Rome as a political GOVERNMENT (Augustine’s City of God) to take the place of New Jerusalem, on earth. Its head was a demonpossessed pagan who believed in black magic (converting water to blood and converting wine to blood, by incantation) and who took the title of God the Father (John 17:11) to himself. While professing all of the “Fundamentals of the Faith” (see the standard Apostles’ Creed), he worshipped the Babylonian “queen of heaven” (see Jer. 44) and swore “by the beard of St. Joseph” that no Bible-believing Christian in Europe, Africa, or Asia could know for sure where he was going when he died. The “Papa” was “Cain-incarnate”: the first murderer in Biblical history.

A pagan, bachelor “Pope” replaced “Caesar” as head of the Roman Empire, so from that day to this no orthodox Jew is aware of the fact that Roman Catholics are no more “Christians” than their membership: Adolph Hitler, Bloody Mary, Lucrecia Borgia, Paul Gambino, Al Capone, Frank Sinatra, Adolph Eichmann, Josef Goebbels, Francisco Franco, Heinrich Himmler, Lucky Luciano, Pablo Escobar, Boss Masseria, Charlemagne, Albert Anastasia, Boss Maranzano, Ignatius Loyola, Benito Mussolini, Pope John XXIII, Fidel Castro, Tony Arscardo, Torquemada, Rudolph Hoess, JFK, Napoleon, Pope Paul VI, Hermann Goering, Pope Pius XII, Batista, Noreiga, President Marcos (Philippines)O, Pope John Paul II, Mr. Freeh (FBI), Sam Giancana, or Pancho Villa.

Those baptized Roman Catholics were taught by their church (from A.D. 325-2000) that God was all through with the Jews as a “chosen people”; therefore, all the promises which God had made to the descendants of Jacob (see p. 56-57) that dealt with physical, material, or political power and prosperity—more than 400 references in the Old Testament—were to be spiritualized and given to the Vatican Church-State setup. God had eliminated Israel and substituted, for Israel, a BLOODY WHORE (Rev. 17-18).

She, now, represented God’s chosen (“elect”) people.

We call this obscene perversion of the Holy Scriptures, “POSTMILLENNIALISM” (2 Pet. 3:16).

Every “reigning” Pope, including the last six and the coming one, taught that theological bunko was infallible “Christian” doctrine: doctrine given to the Popes via the Holy Spirit, who guaranteed all Catholics that their church could not “err in doctrine”!

You couldn’t make a worse mistake if you were a demon-possessed atheist, for the theme of the Book, from cover to cover, was a King prospering materially and politically while reigning over a physical, literal piece of earth. And He was no more a Roman Catholic (or a Gentile) than He was Cardinal Spellman or Bishop Sheen.

You see, every blasphemous, Bible-rejecting, Bible-perverting, wine-headed bachelor (see John 17:11) from Gregory I to John Paul II had rejected the Old Testament where it dealt with “the Virgin Mary.” Actually, all it took was ONE verse in the Old Testament to break the spiritual neck of every egomaniacal “Pope” who ever shut up the Kingdom of Heaven against men (Matt. 23:13) who addressed him as “father” (Matt. 23:9).

God inserted one verse into Psalm 69 that cut the spiritual “jugular vein” of every Roman Catholic nun, priest, Cardinal, Bishop, monk, Archbishop, secretary of state, “nuncio,” ambassador, Jesuit, or Pope who ever lived. One verse in Psalm 69 consigned every Pope to perdition (or “purgatory” if you want it your way!): it was verse 8.

Psalm 69:8-9: “I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother’s children. For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.”

Mary had at least SIX children (Mark 6:3), according to the Lord Jesus Christ. Note! “My mother’s children.” The same Lord’s “beloved” apostle applied verse 9 to the Lord Jesus Christ so you would know who was doing the talking in verse 8. Verse 8 makes a bald-faced LIAR out of every “Pope” who took office as a religious politician since God cut the Catholic Church off from Biblical truth (A.D. 500).

The Old Testament was written to destroy Gentiles.

The New Testament was written to destroy Jews.

Observe that when any Jew hits John 14:9 or John 6:58, in the New Testament, he goes “spastic”: “up the wall”! The verses were written to antagonize, deceive, and DAMN any Jew who rejected God’s “Messiah” (Acts 2). They accomplished their purpose. They have accomplished their purpose, and they will accomplish their purpose.

God’s Book is not only a hammer (Jer. 23:29), a fire (Jer. 23:29), a goad (Eccl. 12:11), a “sword” (Heb. 4:12), and a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart (Heb. 4:13); but it is also a THERMONUCLEAR BOMB. Way back in 1500 B.C., God set it to explode in the next few months.

There is not one Senator, President, Bilderberger, congressman, member of the Trilateral Commission, CFR, Club of Rome, IRS, HRS, FEMA, DEA, FBI, NEA, Catholic Church, or the ECC that believes one word of what I just wrote in those last six paragraphs. They all have their bingo chips on a different square. All I did was reproduce the text of a Jewish Book where it dealt with historical facts as given by its Author.

Place your bets; the game is starting. Place your bets; they’re at the post!

When the UN burning takes place, a book burning will take place simultaneously with it (Acts 19:19). The one coming up will be a Guinness Book of World Records entry for, so far, no one has ever seen 23,000,000 books go up in smoke at one time, but… ! But every human being who survives the Great Tribulation, or who returns with Christ to reign (Rev. 19:10—18; Jude 14-15) in the Millennium (Luke 19:11-27), will see 23,000,000 books going up in smoke, like Sinai afire (Exod. 19).

Only one Book will be left (Matt. 24:35): “THE “BOOK OF THE LORD”” (Isa. 34).

That Book will come through the “fiery furnace” (see Dan. 3) without “the smell of fire” passing on it (Dan. 3:27). “The words of the Lord are pure words, as silver tried in a furnace of earth … the word of the Lord endureth for ever” (Psa. 12:6; 1 Pet. 1:25).

If all bets have been placed, I will give you your “orders for the day.” You say, “Who, you? You, you junkyard dog, you. YOU are going to give us orders?”

Certainly, and you will carry them out to the letter.

“Oh yeah! To whom are you trying to give these orders? What do you mean by ‘YOU’?”

“By ‘YOU,’ I am referring to every man, woman, and child on this planet who has turned a deaf ear or a blind eye towards THE WORDS in one Book.”

Ready? Here are YOUR orders, and this time, they come from a “junkyard dog” who has just reviewed the Book more than 150 times. He found this old, archaic, worn-out Book (the one that was more than 390 years “out of step” with the times) and took it to his Master so He could read it for him (Rev. 5).
You will do the following things immediately, if not sooner, without any further notice or questions.

Isaiah 44:20: “He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?” Isaiah 48:14: “All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? The LORD hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.” Isaiah 1:23: “Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.”

Isaiah 24:2: “And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.”

Isaiah 43:9: “Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.”

Joel 2:16: “Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.”

Joel 3:2, 11: “I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land … Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.”

Job 21:14-15: “Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways. What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?”

Ezekiel 12:27: “Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.”

Ezekiel 22:19-20: “Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.”

Daniel 3:3: “Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.”

Psalm 35:15: “But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and ceased not:”
Psalm 28:3: “Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.”

Job 22:17: “Which said unto God, Depart from us: and what can the Almighty do for them?”

2 Peter 3:3: “Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,”

Jeremiah 5:31: “The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?”

There she is! “On your marks, get set, goooooo! Go, cat, go! Get with it.” I said, “Go, cat, GOOO!” (Zech. 12:3; Isa. 13:4).

Good boy! I knew you could do it. Glad to see you can take orders from an old, grey-headed, potbellied, half-blind “junkyard dog”! I knew you could do it.

So did the Author of THE Book.

He knew you could do it in 800 B.C.

“One out of 23,000,000.” Think about it awhile.

Think about it awhile and then, if you are a big enough fool to think that that Book is like The Koran or The Talmud, get back in the ranks, and I will repeat what I told you to do, again, how to do it, when to do it, where to do it, and why you have to do it, whether you like it or not; and you will obey my orders (see above) to the last “jot and tittle” (Matt. 5:18).

Or as the Lord God Almighty said it: “Prepare to meet thy God”!

Merry Hanukkah! Happy Yom Kippur! “Hail, Mary, full of grapes; blessed be the fruit of the Loom!” Joyous Shehada! Happy Ramadan! “The Force be with you” (Dan. 11:38), God bless! “Ohm, Oh, Rome. Om, Om, Mahabone!” “Blessed be Sukkot!” Abracadabra! Yabadabado! All Power to Mother Nature! “Our Mother, who art in heaven, hallowed be GAIA!” God bless our Police State! Heil Beethoven’s Ninth! Three cheers for the Faggot Fairyland! “Make me an instrument of thy peace!” All power to Lucky Luci! Heil Caesar (John 19:15), “we who are about to die (Rev. 13:15) salute thee!” AT LAST, WE HAVE GOTTEN RID OF THAT BOOK!

Boo! Surprise!

“Heaven and earth shall pass away (2 Pet. 2; Matt. 24), but my words shall not pass away.”

There are two things you can never get rid of: the Book and the Jews who wrote it (Rom. 3:2).

“I am the Lord. I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed” (Mal. 3:6).

Twenty-three million books deny (or ignore or refuse to comment on or replace) both statements. But 23,000,000 books are no competition for one Book written by an Author who can kill 185,000 men (2 Kings 19:35) in less than twelve hours and kill another 200,000,000 (Rev. 9, 16) in less than two hours.
One Book; it is a history Book.

It is the only infallible history Book in existence; it has no real competitors.
Chapter 8

The Bloody Book vs. The “Godly” Sinners

So here is this Book; one Book among over 23,000,000 books, with no end of “books” (Ecc. 12:12) in sight. Like several other so-called “religious books” it professed to have originated with the Creator Himself: it claimed that the original Author of its texts was God (Hosea 8:12: “I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.” Exodus 24:12: “And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them.” Exodus 32:16: “And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.”). Was it or was it not?

Now, to a bookworm like myself, that question is a far more important question than what happens to the Stock Market or the National Economy (or Foreign Trade or Outer Space Exploration) or a dozen other things such as “Who will Liz Taylor marry next?” or “Will Hillary dump her fornicating whoremonger after his term is up?” or “What will the Pope say about abortion and faggots?”, etc. Alongside “the” question, such matters as the Super Bowl or the Stanley Cup “playoffs” or the World Series “pennant” appear as sanddunes alongside Mount McKinley.

Frankly, I consider every question debated by the UN since 1950 (and every one being debated now or for the next ten years) to be little more than non-consequential trivia beside “the” question: “Did God ever write a Book, and if He did, where is it?”

Beside that question I would say that any question about religions or churches, faiths or “sacraments,” world peace or “peace keeping processes,” environmental problems and natural disasters, and even wars and revolutions, really amount to little or nothing at all. Such childish nonsense as “Civil Rights,” “Human Rights,” “Women’s Rights,” and “Gay Rights,” etc., are just political gimmicks for breaking up businesses, families, clubs, fraternities, sororities, military establishments, communities, and schools. They really have no substance when it comes to producing anything productive, enlightening, progressive, or beneficial to any society.

Perhaps I am a little unbalanced in establishing my “values,” but one single, soul-shattering thought has possessed me since I began Pilate’s hunt for “truth” (John 18:38), after he had dealt with a Man who claimed to be “the truth” (John 14:6) and said that His sole object in showing up on this planet was to “bear witness unto the truth” (John 18:37).

Any sinner looking for “truth” would find it hard to shake those statements without a thorough investigation.

That radical, revolutionary, fanatical, overzealous “founder of a religion” said that He Himself was “THE truth,” that His words were the truth (John 8), and that His Father’s words were the truth (John 17:17). This could only mean that what Jesus Christ called “the scriptures” were true words which someone had written (Heb. 10:7-8; John 10:35; Matt. 22:29).
John 8:47: “He that is of God heareth God’s words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.”

John 5:39, 46-47: “Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me …. For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?”

John 6:45: “It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.”

Luke 4:4, 8, 12: “And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God …. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve …. And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.”

Matthew 22:29: “Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.”

Question! Was He a liar or just deceived?

Want a third way out? Go get Semler, the monkey man (1725-1791). Sure! Deny that you have to chose “heads or tails.” Be a relativist. Pretend there is a third “option” so you don’t have to call Jesus Christ either a “Liar” or a “Blockhead.” Play it cool, baby. Show us how smart you are since you finished Seminary. Let us honor and adore you for your witty inventions. Semler said (more than 200 years ago! Boy, are YOU ever up-to-date!) Jesus Christ was certainly not deceived! Oh, my, no. He was way in advance of His day and time! Oh, my, yes! And He wouldn’t think of lying, of course not! No, no, no nonono!

What Jesus Christ was actually doing (according to Semler, who was so stupid he followed a wagon sprinkler down the street to tell him his wagon was leaking) was “accommodating” Himself to the intellectual level of His audiences. He knew that he was superior to all of them so, desiring to be as “sensitive” as possible to the “needs of others” (etc.), He stooped to their level of superstition and ignorance (for example, their believing in Heaven and Hell, demons and unclean spirits, Satan and God, miracles and prophecy) and used their terminology and definitions, knowing all along (of course!), that they were not real concepts or true explanations for anything.

This type of “godly” lying was called “The Accommodation Theory.” It is found mostly today, in strength, among the faculty and staff members of Pensacola Christian College and Seminary, Howard, Judson, Stetson, Moody Bible Institute, Baptist Bible College, Wheaton, Bob Jones University, Cedarville, Liberty University, Fuller Theological Seminary, Tennessee Temple, the Dean Burgon Society, and kindred “godly” institutions.

But I much prefer “A LIAR” or else a “DUPE.”

You see, I am a Southern Baptist “Red-Neck,” a street preacher, and a prison evangelist. My background is a bartender, a disc jockey, a lifeguard, a hockey goalie, a Drill Instructor in unarmed combat, and a mullet fisherman. I don’t like to waste time messing around with theoretical propositions, speculations, or any pile of unseen, unread, “verbally inspired, inerrant, infallible autographs.” I’ve got enough faith to believe ANYONE can get something than THAT on which better to base their beliefs! I want my propositions clean-cut, crystal clear, right over the middle of the plate, waist high, with no “ifs,” “buts,” “however” (or “probables,” “we may supposes,” or “highly likelies”) attached to them.

Was Jesus Christ a LIAR or was He just deceived?

Don’t duck the puck; stop it.

You don’t avoid a “slap shot” if you’re “keeping the gate.” YOU DEAL WITH IT.

If Jesus Christ was speaking the truth every time He spoke about the “scriptures” or the words that He spoke, then it would mean that the One who made the galaxies and star clusters, the nebula and the solar system, the earth and everything on it (including man: Mark 13:19; Matt. 19:4) had placed within man’s reach the WORDS He wanted “man” to hear and read (Acts 17:28, 31). It would mean that you and I could find out what was in the mind of God, the One who made the universe, and we could receive instructions from Him in human language (“words”) that would tell us EVERYTHING that we really needed to know.

It would mean that any man could find out where he came from, what he should do while he is here, what he shouldn’t do (or say), how he should prepare for the future, and what his future would be; for as surely as sunrise follows sunset, if any REAL “God” wrote that Book He would be able to tell you and me all of that and more too; the Book contains more than 500 passages that deal with the future: that is more than 10,000 words.

Did He write it or did He not?

If He didn’t, then whoever wrote that Book still had to know more than 500 details about what would take place anywhere from 100 to 3,000 years before it took place. Who would that be? One of your friends? Some famous scholar? Some good, “godly,” spiritual “Christian” who never uses nasty and vulgar language like “Ruckman” uses?

Well, I will tell you some people that it could not have been, by the wildest stretch of a drugged imagination?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Mohammed</th>
<th>Kahlil Gibran</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nostradamus</td>
<td>Jean Dixon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M.B.P. Eddy</td>
<td>Madam Blavatsky</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>W. C. Leadbeater</td>
<td>Emil Cady</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Joe Smith</td>
<td>Moroni</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thomas Huxley</td>
<td>Pope John Paul II</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
If any of the above accidently “hit the nail on the head” in dealing with prophecy, they either lifted a passage out of the Book that God wrote—Mohammed did this many times when dictating his Koran—or they made a lucky guess and hit one or two truthful items in a list of over 500.

That is what I personally discovered after “worming my way” through over 24,000 books. Perhaps if I had read the other 22,975,200 books in the Library of Congress I might have come up with a different conclusion, but I doubt it. The entire body of Hindu, Moslem, Buddhist, and Catholic literature with HISTORICAL PROPHECIES (note the word “historical”) could easily be published in two volumes with less than 200 pages per volume. In the Catholic case, 50 percent would be taken from the Oracles given to the Jews (Rom. 3:2) more than 100 years before the Catholic forged Epistle of Ignatius borrowed the word “Catholic” from secular Greek (see The History of the New Testament Church, 1982, Vol. I, pp. 53-54).

So here is an impasse by which no man will ever get, whether he decides to deal with it now or wait till the Great White Throne Judgment (Rom. 3:3-4; John 7:16-17; 12:47-48).

The road is blocked. Did God ever write a Book with WORDS in it? Could anyone, today, get a copy of it if He did?

If He did, where is it? Did He lose it?

What kind of an All-powerful, Almighty God would that be who could inspire an inorganic object (Book or man: see Gen. 2:7) with His breath (see “inspiration” in Job 32:8 and 33:4 and Ezek. 37:4-14) so that it lived, but then He couldn’t preserve it?

Adam’s immortality depended upon his obedience to God, not God’s ability to keep him alive; God could have kept him alive forever (Gen. 2:9, 16, 3:22). And even after Adam destroyed himself, God made a way (see Gen. 3:15, 21) for him to regain his “lost estate” (see Heb. 2:6-9). He will eventually regain it (Acts 3:20-21) in the condition it was in when God created it (see Isa. 11). Isaiah made that prophecy more than 2,600 years before it would take place:

Isaiah 11:1-10: “And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots: And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD; And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears: But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins. The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice’ den.

They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea. And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious.”

Romans 8:19-22: “For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.”

Amos 9:11-15: “In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old: That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.”

The founders, leaders, practitioners, and believers in the Greek and Roman “mystery religions” had no grasp of man’s future on this earth at all. Neither did the “Atlanteans” or the “Lemurians” or the “Tibetan Lamas” or the priests of the Egyptian and Babylonian “Mysteries.” The “mystery” is how any twentieth or twenty-first century seeker of truth would give anyone of them the “time of day” or study their material long enough to “break in the bindings.”

The Delphic Oracle and the Sphinx are about as profound and accurate as Slick Willie explaining the death of Vince Foster.
Buddha, Mohammed, Siva, Krishna, Brahma, et al., utterly failed to mention anything that would happen between 2000 B.C. and A.D. 3000 unless travelers brought them some kind of a witness (Bibles or copies of Bibles or manuscripts or sermons, etc.) into India, Arabia, Persia, Turkey, Armenia, etc. All of these religious goofballs lived and died in some ethereal dream world of philosophical speculations and moral discourses: humanistic “do-gooding.” Their hypothetical situations and uncertain “enlightenments” coupled with a total inability to tell anyone anything about what would happen before or after their deaths, historically, show their true nature: moles, “of the earth, by the earth, and for the earth”; “EARTHY” (1 Cor. 15:47).

All man-made religions (Judaism, Buddhism, Mu-hammadanism, Protestantism, Catholicism, Taoism, Shintoism, Humanism, Socialism, Communism, Idealism, Realism, Pragmatism, Existentialism, etc.) are simply white-washed dumpsters stuffed with “religious” ideas, never historical realities. This explains the total lack of eyewitnesses to all of the Greek and Roman (and Egyptian and Babylonian) baloney about the Bible “borrowing” from ancient religious myths and legends.

What registered physician ever documented the “virgin birth” of any “virgin-born” Greek, Assyrian, Chinese, Japanese, Egyptian, Roman, Cretan, Minoan, or Babylonian “god”? Not one.

How many eyewitnesses saw any supposed “resurrection” of any Greek, Roman, Minoan, Cretan, Egyptian, Assyrian, Philistine, Chinese, Indian, or Babylonian “god”? Not one.

The “gods” (see Psa. 82) of Roman, Greek, Babylonian, Egyptian, Norse, Indian, Assyrian, Minoan, and Aztec mythology prophesy NOTHING. If you collected all of the prophecies that Dagon, Baal, Apollos, Mercury, Hermes, Jupiter, Ishtar, Mars, Mercury, Assur, El, Anu, Bel, AO, Sin, Samas, Bin, Molech, Typhon, Debata, Ning Sang, Odi, Amen-Aten, Isis, Osiris, Sekmet, Ninu, Vishnu, Kronos, et al., made, regarding what would take place between 4 B.C. and A.D. 3000, you wouldn’t have enough material to print on the front page of a morning newspaper.

The silly asses couldn’t even tell you how they were going to wind up before they got “wound up.” Their prophecies resemble a dice game: a lot of “crap.” They “arose from obscurity and headed straight into oblivion.” The dupes who believed on them (for example, Thales, Pythagoras, Socrates, Plato, and Homer) were living proofs of reincarnation: no one could get as dumb as they were in just one lifetime. Job, in 1800 B.C., knew more about the future than Immanuel Kant knew in A.D. 1800.

The Lord Jesus Christ has no competition in anyone’s “sacred Scriptures” when it comes to multiple eyewitnesses of miracles and prophecies that He performed and predicted. He gave nine details of His death before it ever took place (Mark 10:33-34). Twelve eyewitnesses saw Him when he said it, and they heard Him. Try that one on some “god” that was supposed to have been “crucified” or was supposed to have died for anyone’s sins, before Jesus Christ showed up! Twelve eyewitnesses saw Him feed 5,000 people out of a “bread basket” that didn’t have enough food in it to feed a busload of school children.

Where are the eyewitnesses to the miraculous performances of the “gods”?

Acts 1:3: “To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:"

1 Corinthians 15:6: "After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

Did Luke lie? Did Paul lie? ARE YOU LYING?

If they didn’t lie (and Christ didn’t lie), then Mohammed did: he swore that Jesus Christ never did die! Got it? Are you getting the “drift” yet? It’s “current”!

If Jesus Christ didn’t lie (and Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John didn’t lie) then your “buddies” in the UN building in downtown New York—that you are now tied to: see p. 110—are lying, and they are lying about what their Creator put in print and placed in downtown New York (the “Isaiah Wall”) where all of the UN “buddies” meet!

That is why we say that if that Book is truly what God said—God Himself the Creator of the galaxies, star clusters, and universes—then what do you think that UN will do (or the ECC will do), or what will its “peace keeping forces” do, or what any of them will accomplish with Star Wars, Star Trek, Star Puke, Star Bletch, freedom for faggots, dances for dykes, bailouts for blacks, affirmative action, values clarification, behavior modification, chip implants, “mouses” and “software,” webs, internets, welfare programs, urban renewal, and racial integration?

Why, they will produce two more World Wars (Rev. 6, 19)! That pile of pagan claptrap is just another mammoth demonstration of degeneracy, parading around as “do-gooders,” in order to prove that their Creator is a liar.

Psalm 2:4-6: “He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision. Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure. Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.”

Zephaniah 3:8: “Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.”

Matthew 25:31-32, 41: “When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: .... Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:”

What you just read is the RESULT of the eighteen humanistic items listed above.

So much for 23,000,000 books in the Library of Congress (and 24,000,000 if the Lord tarries).

One Book already told all of the authors of the other 23,000,000 books how history will end, how they will end, and how their books will end (Acts 19:19).

Revelation 20:8-9: “And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.”

Ecclesiastes 12:14: “For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.”

Romans 2:16: “In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.”

Acts 17:31: “Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.”

Unless! Unless the Book was written by a LIAR!

I have assumed it was written by the Author of creation, life, truth, and time. My assumption qualifies me to be one of the greatest gamblers in history: I have bet my soul on a Book. I have chosen a “unique” lifestyle: I have assumed (with no reason, logic, or evidence for it at all, according to Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, Einstein, Hawking, Hegel, Marx, Freud, Darwin, and the scholars!) that God did write a Book. He called it “MY BOOK,” and John called it “THE LAMB’S BOOK.” It most certainly was a Book, not a pile of “original autographs” scattered over three continents, that got lost.

I have also assumed (without any intelligent reason for doing so, according to Barth, Brunner, Tillich, Niebuhr, Robertson, Wuest, Zodhiates, Waite, Nestle, Aland, Metzger, Lachmann, Tregelles, or Tischendorf) that a God who could inspire such a Book could preserve it— THE BOOK, not the “Word” of God or some message or set of “fundamentals.” Furthermore, He could preserve it for me in the form He wanted me to have it. God could give me a Book “by inspiration” (2 Tim. 3:16) that had in it every single essential thing that I needed to know about life and death before I showed up and after I left. Without fail, He would inform me of what would take place as soon as I died (Phil. 1; 1 Thess. 5; 2 Cor. 5) and centuries after I died (Genesis, Isaiah, Psalms, Jeremiah, Micah, Zechariah, etc.).

I profess to have in my possession such a Book. Naturally, I had to discard 23,000,000 other books as not being in the same “class.” I could trust none of them for Absolute Truth or Final Authority, so I set them aside for “reference” work only. I can “use” them, as the apostates “use” the term when bragging about how they all “use” the King James Bible, but they are not in the same bracket as my Book is; they didn’t “check out.” They failed the prophesy test; they failed it miserably and completely, not “slightly.” They bombed out like Mussolini in the Plaza (Rome) or Jim Jones (Guyana) in the bushes.

The Popes, as spiritual prophets and Bible expositors, would make good chicken farmers. Mohammed, as a “prophet,” would make a good peanut vendor.

He treated all women as “sequels” (fourteen of them). One might say the old polygamist was “broadminded.” He, evidently, thought about “broads” more than he did some “moon god.” He married a nine-year-old girl when he was fifty-two years old. As one wit put it: “A man who keeps a young mistress knows that at his age it may be fatal, but he can’t think of a better way to die.”
Don’t get offended; get SANE. Read The Hadith and The Koran and then read the Psalms and Zechariah.

Don’t be bigoted and intolerant; “broaden” your thinking. Face your Creator on His grounds, if you think you can handle the Book. His grounds are as follows:

Isaiah 41:21-24: “Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob. Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come. Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.”

If you and your Moslem (and Catholic and Hindu and Buddhist) friends cannot meet THOSE requirements which God gave you in His Book (see Mal. 3:16), then for heaven’s sake, don’t go around bragging about some fornicating polygamist or some wine-headed politician or cross-legged yogi who as (and is) no more a genuine “prophet” than Goldilocks and the Three Bears (Ezek. 14:9-10).

We are now ready for the “last lap,” so to speak.

This will be the RNV (Red Neck Version) of the Holy Bible, dealing with the only real history Book that anyone ever wrote.

God’s idea of a joke was to take a piece of land smaller than Alabama and destroy the entire inhabited earth with it, using a Book that is now more than 380 years out of date (AV 1611). This joke is going to be carried out to the “punch line” by a handful of people from one race that have been disobeying God’s Book for more than 2,600 years.

Now, if that doesn’t constitute a “joke,” what does?

You’ve got to admit that that is some “sense of humor” (Prov. 1:24-32)!

Isn’t that (Prov. 1:24-32) some way to write a “history Book”?

If you don’t admit it, I will make a honest confession: I must admit that after going through the Book well over 150 times, I have never been able to forget the fact that somebody in it was always tearing up somebody else to pieces, every time I picked up the Book to read it. People were killing people throughout Genesis 14; Exodus 1, 15, 18, 32; Numbers 14, 21; Joshua 6-9; Judges 2-10, etc., every time you turned around.

Here is a religious Book (supposedly) that makes ARMED COMBAT a normal way of life: see Judges 13-21. And the Book ends with ARMED COMBAT between the Author of the Book and the readers (and rejectors) of the Book (Rev. 19-20).

My, what a Book for the “New Age” and the UN, considering the UN had sponsored eighty-seven bloody debacles in less than fifty years (1950-1999)!

The more I read the Book the more strange it became because it quickly began to resemble (in some unorthodox, anti-religious way) a typical, SECULAR history Book written by any unsaved atheist anytime in the last fifty years. If you took the words “God” and “Lord” out of it and expressions like “the Most High,” it would not even be called a “religious” Book.

Reading 1 and 2 Samuel; 1 and 2 Kings; and 1 and 2 Chronicles is like reading a history of the League of Nations and the United Nations: ninety years devoted to slaughtering more than 40,000,000 people.

But who reads this history Book anymore? In it you will find “wars and rumours of wars” from Genesis 14 to Revelation 20: Babylon wipes out Israel (Jer. 52), Persia wipes out Babylon (Dan. 5); and, after that, Greece wipes out Persia (Dan. 8) and then Rome mops up on Greece. The rest of this “peace on earth to men of good will” scenario (the Vatican perversion of Luke 2:14) runs like this:

The Goths against the Visigoths, the Vandals and Huns against the Goths, the Franks invading Spain, the Visigoths invading Italy, the Vandals sack Rome, the Bohemians invade Bavaria, the Lombards invade Austria, Charlemagne invades everybody; England invades France, France invades England, the English invade Scotland, Spain attacks Holland, France attacks Germany and Austria, Tamerlane and Genghis Khan “light up” everybody they meet; and then it is England vs. India and South Africa, the U.S.A. against the Cubans and Filipinos, the U.S.A. against Germany, Germany against England and Russia, Russia vs. Germany, Italy vs. Ethiopia, Spain vs. itself. England vs. the U.S.A., France vs. Germany, Australia vs. Germany, Russia vs. Germany, and Germany vs. everybody.

THEN the killing starts! Fifty-eight million Genocides by seven nations (1917-1990) after they enforced “gun control laws” to “stop crime.”

This UN “peace keeping process” has been going on at a steady pace for 1990 years since the heraldic announcement: “ON EARTH PEACE, GOOD WILL TO MEN.” Some “peace”! “Merry Christmas and ‘bah, humbug’!” and all of that jazz. The only thing “religious” about the whole operation is that most of the time it is Catholics killing Jews or Catholics killing Moslems or Catholics killing Christians. Occasionally, it is Moslems killing Catholics or Moslems killing Christians or Moslems killing Hindus or Greek Orthodox people killing Jews, or Catholics, Jews, and Christians (America) killing Buddhists (Vietnam).

There is no record, extant, of a Bible-believing Baptist ever killing anyone, anytime, anywhere, for ANY religious beliefs (A.D. 325-2000). That operation is peculiarly connected with religious leaders attached to governments: (Rabbis (Acts 1-13), Catholic priests (A.D. 500-1990), Greek Orthodox priests (A.D. 800-2000), Calvinistic Puritans (1550-1800), Hindu “holy men” (India, Burma, Bangladesh, etc.), Moslem militants (Morocco, Central Africa, Algiers, Spain, Turkey, Iraq, Iran, Arabia, etc.).

Bible believers never attach their religious beliefs to any government. In fifty to sixty years of ministry, the apostle Paul was very careful never to set up any Church-states in a single country he evangelized. Church-states, where professing Christians get in a huddle with politicians to get special privileges for their own particular religion, produce holocausts, genocides, revolutions, and apostasy. Any country that would not allow street preachers (from any religion) to publicly preach against what they considered to be “false doctrine” is an embryo POLICE STATE. Ditto any country that would prevent any religious group from passing out religious literature of any kind in a mall or shopping center or at a sports event.

Church-states (not Bible reading and prayer in schools) have been the spiritual death of every country that censored Bible preaching, Bible teaching, Bible distribution, or Bible reading (see The History of the New Testament Church, 1982, 1984, Vols. I and II). No exceptions.

So the Lord finished His military thesis on armed combat, and it began to outsell any other two books that any human being put together. The Lord handed some autographed “originals” to Gabriel, Michael, and the twenty-four elders (Rev. 4-5) and said, “There it is, boys! Ain’t it a beauty?”

They all confessed that it certainly was.

But then, Michael asked the obvious question: he wanted to know why it was so bloody. “I don’t recall,” said he, “any ‘Holy Scriptures’ down there (planet Earth) beginning with two people dying for eating the wrong thing, and then their firstborn son getting collared for murder in the first degree, and then the rest of the Book dealing with fifty wars and more than 3,000,000 casualties with more than 200,000,000 ‘on deck.’ What kind of a religious Book do you call that?” “It ain’t a religious Book, if you will pardon my up-to-date Koine street language,” growled the Almighty (for the fiftieth time!). It’s got to be a bloody Book because man’s history is bloody from start to finish, so any history book has to be a bloody Book. Have you noticed that?”

Yes, he had. “I reckon so,” said Michael [if you’ll pardon my Southern accent], “I’m beginning to see some light now. I guess that is why you planned to shed your blood, some day; right, Your Majesty?”

“Correct,” said His Majesty. “And I’m glad to see you read Acts 20:28 and 1 John 5:20-21 in the original English instead of some new version coming from ‘older and better’ manuscripts.”

“A bloody Book,” volunteered Gabriel, “ought to have RED pages.”

“Good idea,” said the Lord, “I’m glad I already thought of that. What I plan to do (in the “endtime,” of course; that’s where the accent should be) is inspire Bible believers (Mal. 3:16) to put a black cover on this Book since it has to deal so much with sin and death, and I’ll get them to gild the paper edges with either red for blood or else gold for Deity. Black, yellow, and red! That’s the ticket. It’ll be a real Germanic Book! And if they leave the pages white it can be black, red, and yellow or black, red, and white. Excellent! That will give Martin Luther a bonus to work on!”

“But,” objected one of the Cherubim (Rev. 4), “isn’t that a pretty weird combination for a color scheme? Red and white or black and yellow?”

“Not at all,” responded the man of war (Exod. 15:3). “You ought to know by now that the highest visibility in any display of words would be white letters on a red background or black letters on a yellow background.”

“Well, if we didn’t pick up that information in a lifetime down there,” said one of the twenty-four elders, “how will the endtime people get it?”
“Simple,” said the Sign Painter, “they will have to convert all of their highway and traffic signs into black or yellow, or else white on red, so they can read them.” “Is there any reason why those combinations are so highly visible?” asked Michael.

“Of course there is. The red and white means that a spotless, white, sinless LAMB has to shed his BLOOD, and His Satanic Catholic counterfeit will have black spots on a yellow skin: HE IS A LEOPARD” (Rev. 13; Jer. 13).

“Holy cats!” exclaimed the Cherub, who had a face like a lion (Rev. 5).

“Well now,” said the Lord, “a LEOPARD could be a CATHolic because he is a member of the CAT family, but he would be an ‘Unholy Cat’ as in CATHedral, CATEchism, CATastrophe, and CATHolic (or “CATalpetic”). The ‘Holy Cat’ will have to be THE LION OF THE TRIBE OF JUDA (Rev. 5:5; Gen. 49:9). You see, I put the emphasis on what the Lion would do (Hosea 13:7-8; Amos 1:2; Joel 3:16) when He gets here instead of what the LAMB would do when He came the first time. That is, when you write history backwards (see pp. 78, 144), He comes in like a LAMB and goes out like a LION.”

“But Lord,” said the blood-washed “elder” (Rev. 5:10-11), “do you think that slaughtering 200,000,000 UN peace-keeping forces, to set up a military dictatorship, is more important than demonstrating your love for sinners by dying for them?”

“Well, actually it is a great deal more important to ME, because if my Son has to go through what He has to go through (Isa. 53; Psa. 22; Isa. 50:5-8) in order to save sinners, then He certainly deserves to reign over them (Luke 19:27) and rule them (Psa. 2, 110). As far as I’m concerned, I am prejudiced in favor of my Son (Matt. 3:17, 17:5; Gen. 37:3-4, Col. 1:15-19), not the sinners. The greatest ‘day’ in my eternal life will be the ‘day’ that my Son returns to that hellhole that ran Him out (as a thief, Matt. 26:55, and a blasphemer, Mark 14:69) and gets what He rightly has comin’ to Him: the kingdom, power, glory, and honor that He deserves (Rev. 5). The whole shebang belongs to HIM and no one else” (Col. 1:15-19; John 1:1-5).

“I’m sick and tired of hired ‘husbandmen’ (Matt. 21:38-41) and a pack of silly ‘environmentalists’ who think they are smart enough to control something I created (Isa. 40:26, 45:18, 48:7). Not one of those punks could create anything like it in twenty millennia.”

“Well, what are you going to do with them?” que-ried one of the elders.

“Oh, by far and away, the best thing to do with them is just kill the whole pack (Num. 16:21; Deut. 32:24-27; Matt. 22:7, 23:35; Isa. 63). That way they can ‘share my love’ with their ‘buddies’.”

And THAT stopped all further “heavenly” discussion about the Book.

Does the reader see what is contained in those last five paragraphs? Those paragraphs are absolutely INTOLERABLE to the Body of Christ in 2001. There is not one major “Christian Celebrity” in A.D. 2001, including all of those who sport the badge of a “Conservative” or a “Fundamentalist” or an “Evangelical” who would not be horrified at the material I just wrote in those five paragraphs. Do you know WHY?
Because such absolute Bible truth, teaching “sound doctrine” (see 2 Tim. 4:1-6), cannot get an audience, increase anyone’s attendance or enrollment, or bring in any “blue chips” to support a ministry. “The truth of God” (the Holy Bible) must be sacrificed on the altar of prestige, income, results, reputation, and publicity.

The apostasy in the Body of Christ began that way (A.D. 200, Origen) and ended that way (2 Tim. 3; Rev. 3; 2 Tim. 4).

That stuff I wrote is “BIBLE stuff.” You laugh at “jokes.” I just outlined the biggest JOKE (and the most terrible joke) that anyone ever played on the human race. It was God who thought it up.

It is an “original.” You never got it from any skit, routine, or monologue by Larry, Moe, Curly, Groucho Marx, Red Skelton, Archie Bunker, Bob Hope, Jonathan Winters, Milton Berle, Bing Crosby, Allen King, Jack Benny, Dave Gardner, Bennett Cerf, Stephen Leacock, Josh Billings, O. Henry, Dorothy Parker, Art Buchwald, Ogden Nash, James Thurber, Eddie Cantor, Amos and Andy, Bob Newhart, Henry Youngman, Ring Lardner, Johnny Carson, Laurel and Hardy, Abbott and Costello, Ed Wynn, or Will Rogers. It is completely original.

“Modern,” saved Fundamentalists cannot even discuss such material let alone preach or teach it. Recently (Nov-Dec, 1999), Southern Baptists were apologizing to the press for telling unsaved Jews, Hindus, and Moslems that all of their righteousnesses were “as filthy rags” (Isa. 64:6) and that they were all “dead in trespasses and sins” (Eph. 2:1) because the Bible labels them as “children of wrath” and “children of disobedience” (Eph. 2:1-5; Acts 5:32).

“Modern Christianity” (of any profession) is POSITIVE, as positive as Satan (Gen. 3:1, 6) or the “man of sin” (Dan. 8:25). No city dumps, jails, or hospitals: just “sanitary land fills,” “correctional institutions,” and “health care centers.” Know what I mean, jelly bean?

Modern Christianity cannot envision (let alone honor and exalt) a God who enjoys destroying more than three-fourths of the population of this earth, in the twenty-first century. Modern Christians would quote Ezekiel 36:26; 2 Peter 3:9; Romans 4:1-10; and 1 John 4:7-8 till the cows came home and went back out to pasture before they would even mention such passages as Ezekiel 16, 23-24; Psalm 50:22; Deuteronomy 28:20-28; Matthew 13:42; Titus 1:12; or Malachi 2:2-3.

Such a God is not fit to be the companion of any “modern man” in the “New Age.”

The saved Christians, in this age, are afraid to let anyone know that they even believe in THAT God. They are literally terror-stricken that someone will check on the One who actually saved them and find out what kind of a “character” He really is. He is the character listed in those Biblical passages: BOTH TESTAMENTS.

In short, both He and His Book have to “go.” “Modern man” is too “sensitive to the needs of others” to tolerate such a tyrant. Humanistic liars cannot put up with such a bloody Book. The word “blood” pops up in the fourth chapter of the Book and it is not wiped out (Isa. 1:18) until the fourth chapter from the end of the Book (Rev. 19).

The Book has to “go.” That is the judgment passed on it by Congress, the USSR, the United Nations, the ECC, FBI, ACLU, BATF, DEA, CNN, CBS, ABC, NBC, CNN, Life and Time magazines, the Gannett daily newspapers, and the federal school system.

Get rid of it by revising it; get rid of it by burning it; get rid of it by attacking it; get rid of it by arresting those who believe it and preach it; get rid of it by forbidding growing children from reading it; and get rid of it by replacing it with a pile of humanistic garbage, religious trash, pious cliches, sentimental appeals, and political chicanery; BUT … ! “GET RID OF IT!!” This will be “easier said than done.”
Chapter 9

How to Write Future History, Backwards

In closing, let us, for a moment, attempt to “humor” our New Age Jungle “Global Village” inhabited by such wonderful specimens of humanity as Slick Willie, Princess Di, Pope Paul VI, Tipper Gore, Jim Jones, Pope John Paul II, Arafat, Janet Reno, Madonna, Elvis Presley, Frank Sinatra, JFK, FDR, Bill Gates, Ted Turner, Nelson Mandela, the Beatties, Marilyn Monroe, and other large gatherings of dopeheaded fornicators, fornicating draft dodgers, drunken whoremongers, bloody killers, and fornicating Communists. They will be found in multiplicity on the front page of every daily newspaper in America between 1933 and 2000.

They are usually lying fornicators or dopeheaded fornicators or sex perverted fornicators or drunken fornicators, but not all of them. Among their progressive, enlightened, highly intelligent ranks will be found bloody killers who simply lie their way through life getting people killed right and left (Mandela, Janet Reno, the popes, the FBI, CIA, CFR, Bilderbergers, the Club of Rome, and so forth). These are the ones who think that smoking is a drug and “dangerous to your health”; they do not believe that alcohol is a drug or dangerous to your health. The ones who believe in “gun control” are the ones who stay armed to the teeth and wind up murdering 55,000,000 unarmed civilians (1917-1990: Cambodia, Thailand, China, Russia, Germany, Turkey, Ghana, etc.).

The ones among them who worry about “child neglect” and “child abuse” believe the best cure is to gas and cremate seventeen minor children (Waco, Texas) and then cover up the evidence of the murders. Und so weiter!

For the benefit of these news media “gods” and “goddesses” supported by the news media cult, we will give one brief sample of how the Author of the Book writes history—from His position in eternity beyond A.D. 3000.

We will confine our investigation to what the Author said about the Jews and the King of the Jews since all of the human authors of the Book are JEWS (Rom. 3:2) and because it is a kingdom and a King that is the subject matter of more than two-thirds of the Book.

Here is a Book that was written in a language that less than 1 percent of the world’s population ever spoke, in any “age.” In 2000, it still constitutes less than 1 percent of all spoken languages (more than 6,000 languages used by 6,000,000,000 people), yet in this Book some crazy historian (more than 2,000 years before Mohammed was born) reported on historical events that would take place between 1939 and 1945. He put them in what the world calls a “religious” book. Remarkable. Absolutely “fantastic” (sports cliche: “Awesome, man, awesome!”).

According to Moses, the One who dictated his writings to Him gave him the following information 3,300 years before World War I (1914-1918).

1. The Jews were to be rebuked by Gentiles and be destroyed by them while they were being rebuked (Treblinka, Steiner, Simon and Schuster, 1967, pp. 184185). The Wannsee conference set them up, and Himmler, Streicher, Eichmann, and Hitler did the rebuking.
Accident; probably happened more than once, right?

2. This destruction will be carried out by murder (Auschwitz, Rudolph Hoess) and loss of their homeland (Deut. 28:21). (The Holocaust, Gilbert, Fontana/ Collins, 1986, pp. 199-200).

Another accident; it’s happened several times, right?

3. The slaughter will be accompanied by fever and inflammations, while women and children are being killed. (Killed by the Einsatzgruppen in Poland, Latvia, Austria, Lithuania, and Russia (Deut. 28:22). More than 100,000 SICK men and women and children were killed in those countries.

Three accidents; “it could have happened to anyone.”

4. These things are to be coupled with their worldwide dispersion and their running from their enemies because they are unable to fight them (Deut. 28:25). The passage was literal. Their enemies ran them from Spain to France and Morocco, from Germany to Austria and Poland, from Austria to Czechoslovakia, from France and England to the U.S.A., from Poland to Russia, and from Europe to Palestine: they were destined (in 1400 B.C.!) to “flee seven ways before them.”

Four accidents in a row. More coming up.

5. Many of them were to be left dead on the ground where they had been shot or clubbed to death so that animals, later, ate their corpses (The Holocaust, ibid., pp. 774-782). Sometimes prisoners ate them (Auschwitz, Hoess, Popular Library, 1951).

Strictly “coincidence,” right?

6. They were to be literally driven INSANE by this treatment (see Treblinka, ibid., pp. 90-92; The Holocaust, ibid., pp. 208: Deut. 28:28). Their enemies were (in 1400 B.C.) to take all of their property and bank accounts, their jewelry, and even their clothes (Deut. 28:29), while England, the U.S.A., France, South America, Ireland, China, Japan, Spain, Australia, Cen-tral America, and Persia would stand by and do nothing for them (Deut. 28:29: “no man shall save thee”; Holocaust, ibid., pp. 437-442, 664-668).

Triple coincidence. Couldn’t be anything “to it,” could there be?

8. They will work to serve their own killers who are their masters (Deut. 28:36, 43-44, 48-49), and their killers will kill “senior citizens,” even when they are blind and crippled, and will throw candy bars to their children while they are burying them ALIVE: “Mamma, why do they pour the sand into my eyes?” (Holocaust, ibid., pp. 155, 172, 178, 185, and 203. Treblinka, ibid., p. 102).

Getting a little monotonous, isn’t it? That is eight coincidences in a row with the killers carrying out all of Moses’ orders to the letter. “The Letter” was found in the Holy Bible more than 3,400 years before the Holocaust took place.

9. They will lose 6,000,000 of their people between 1933 and 1946, and another 10,000,000 after A.D. 2000 (Deut. 28:62; Lam. 5; Rev. 6, 12).

Wanna take a break? I’ll give you a “change of pace” to think about for a moment. WHERE WAS ALLAH’S “PROPHET” BEFORE, DURING, OR EVEN AFTER ALL
OF THIS (Deut. 28)? Moses outstripped Mohammed by “nine-zip” without even trying. He did this before Mohammed was born, and although Mohammed had access to many of Moses’ words (see The Koran), he could not even explain them or comment on them in an historical context. He knew no history: past, present, or future. Being more than 1,600 years closer to 1939-1945 than Moses, how come this “Apostle,” this One “Prophet” of Allah, couldn’t predict anything about the treatment of the Jew would receive in the twentieth century? Some “prophet”!

10. The Jews would be scattered worldwide (vs. 64) “from the one end of the earth even unto the other.” There, they would not only cease to be a nation of prophets (Hosea 12:10, 13) and priests (Exod. 19:6), they would become exactly like the heathen with whom they sojourned (see 2 Kings 17). This time, no “Daniel” would be around to deliver them from Nebuchadnezzar’s “gods of gold, silver, iron, brass, wood, and stone” (Dan. 5:3-4).

Allah’s prophet bombed out again.

Someone ought to hire him to pilot a “Stealth Bomber.”

The nation of priests (Exod. 19) to whom “the oracles of God” were given (Rom. 3:2) could no longer make a living off the pastures and the gardens (Abel, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, and David were SHEPHERDS, not officers of the Federal Reserve Bank). Like Cain, their prototype, once they had gotten rid of their “brother” (John 1:11, the ground would not yield its fruit. They became “city men.” The first man to build a CITY was Cain (Gen. 4). There is a comment on his progeny in Isaiah 14:21 which every “builder of bridges,” every contractor, every construction man, and every real estate man should read. It was written before 606 B.C.

Follow the history (I said “HISTORY”) of Israel from A.D. 70 to A.D. 2000, and you will find a long process of decaying degeneration at work. The priests and prophets, by 1948, had been replaced with atomic scientists, shrinks, Madison Avenue executives, artists, musicians, architects, politicians, bankers, statesmen, writers, military leaders, and lawyers, exactly like their Gentile “hosts.” They had made their way in the world system to the very top by becoming like the world (1 John 2:15): “worldly” (James 4:4). This guaranteed another Holocaust before A.D. 2100, after the one in 1939-1945.

11. In the “Diaspora,” the Jews would find nothing, eventually, but “a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind” (Deut. 28:65), because their lives would “hang in doubt” before them so that they would “fear day and night” and have “none assurance of thy life” (Deut. 28:66).

That makes eleven accidental “coincidences” that took place in history regarding ONE race of people.

Let’s see you find a matchmate for that among any other race in the world.

You can’t do it. No one can do it. You would be wasting your time and my time and everyone else’s time trying to find a similar case.
And we still have one more “accidental” fulfillment of prophecy to go!

To really appreciate Moses as a “prophet,” take the total history of Israel from A.D. 70 to A.D. 2000 (The Encyclopedia Judaica, Vol. 8).

The Jew was never permanently safe in any land to which he went (after A.D. 300), outside of Palestine. Madelyn Albright and Slick Willie will see to it that there are no exceptions to that statement (Zech. 12:3, 14:2; Jer. 30:11). They will have to. Jeremiah and Zechariah ordered them to—2,000 years before the U.S.A. signed The Declaration of Independence.

More than thirty nations have already persecuted or attacked and killed Jews since the Exodus (1500 B.C.): the Hagarenes, the Philistines, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Syrians, the Egyptians, the Assyrians, the Moabites, the Ammonites, the Midianites, the Jebusites, the Portuguese, the Spanish, the English, the French, the Germans, the Italians, the Turks, the Arabians, the Austrians, the Russians, the Greeks, the Latvians, the Lithuanians, the Poles, the Ukrainians, the Hungarians, the Irish, and the League of Nations, the Vatican, the United Nations, and (coming up!) the UN “peace keeping forces.”

12. According to THE Book, the Jews would be put on the block “for sale” after experiencing the “iron furnace” (Deut. 4:20), and then, no one would BUY THEM. Nobody would be willing to buy them (Deut. 28:68) between 1939-1945.

About out of “accidents,” there, aren’t we?

According to all the records of the Holocaust, that is exactly what happened when the Red Cross, Count Bernadette, and Adolph Eichmann began to haggle over prices; the same thing had gone on since Hitler came to power.

13. The “ships” (Deut. 28:68) turned out to be literal ships that sailed oceans. They sailed, and the ones that were not sunk or boarded and turned away from the land of Palestine (1921-1950) stayed in harbors all over the world, or their cargoes were emptied back into Hitler’s Third Reich for extermination.

There were enough cargo ships available, even between 1917 and 1945, to have landed 5,000 Jews, daily, on the shores of Palestine (The Story of Israel, Meyer Levin, Berkley Medallion, 1966, pp. 150-173). But they were not used for that purpose; many of them were not even used for wartime purposes (the carrying of guns, ammo, supplies, and troops to the “theater of operations”).

The Lord observed the fired-on ships, the sunken ships, the drowning cargoes, the passengers committing suicide (see the film “Exodus”), and the closed “ports of call” (worldwide) which guaranteed His chosen people would never get back to Palestine until the One who held the “key of David” (Rev. 3:7) was ready to open a door that no man could shut (Rev. 3:7-8).

Moses’ Biblical text says that when God surveyed the holocaust He responded exactly as the SS and Einsatzgruppen reacted: HE REJOICED.

Deuteronomy 28:63: “And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.”

The word in Hebrew means “rejoice.”

The word in Greek means “rejoice.”

The word in English had the same Nazi-KKK meaning: “rejoice.”

Not one person out of 100 who is reading this writing believes ONE word of what I just wrote, anymore than the faculty or staff of the ten largest Christian colleges in America believe it.

They don’t dare believe the Book.

There it is, right in front of their face: “hate literature” supreme; “hate literature” par excellent, as good as any Jew-baiter like Julius Streicher ever put out in a lifetime.

Ever see a competitor that could match that performance?

The Spotlight, perhaps? How about The Thunderbolt or None Dare Call It Conspiracy? Could H. Stewart Chamberlain, Richard Wagner, Oswald Mosley, or Adolph Eichmann match it? Ich denke nicht!

The Bible is a history book; what you just read in Deuteronomy 28 has about as many “religious overtones” to it as a running account of the Bataan Death March or the Black Hole in Calcutta (1756) or the Turkish massacre of the Armenians in 1917. Any reader of the Book is forced to deal with HISTORY, not what some religious fanatic believed or said he believed.

There in 1500 B.C. lay the Biblical text that Adolph Hitler was to pick up in 1933 and carry out to the last “jot and tittle.” The Author had said if the “fishers of men” (Mark 1:17) couldn’t bring Israel to faith and belief in their God-chosen Messiah (Peter, James, John, and Paul were “fishermen!”), He would raise up some “hunters” (Jagersmann) to do it (Jer. 16:16). He did, after waiting patiently 2,500 years to do it.

I have seen photographs of Jeremiah’s “Jagers” (Judenjagers: Jew hunters) going across the “Jagdavier” (hunting grounds); they are all trained marksmen, riflemen; they are hunting JEWS (Holocaust, ibid., 1986, p. 196). You say, “WHY?”

Because (oh, my beloved) when one of God’s prophets (not one of “Allah’s!”) prophesies any historical event, in 600 B.C., that will take place between A.D. 1900 and A.D. 2000, he is like the Jagersmann: he never “misses the mark.” All of God’s prophets (none of “Allah’s”!) are sharpshooters.

It was this type of backward writing that gave all of the Lord’s scribes such a fit. It would happen time and time again. Moses had no sooner penned Deuteronomy 33 then he asked, “What is all this stuff about you and your ten thousands of saints? Why, I was up there on Mt. Sinai with you forty days a shot, and I didn’t see any ‘saints.’ You don’t trust ‘saints’ anyway, do you (Job 15:15)? And you never ‘rose up from Seir’ one time since I’ve known you. What are you doing here in verse 2 ‘rising up’ in Mt. Seir?” “Well, that hasn’t happened yet.”

“Okay,” said Moses, “I’ll change the verb tense. Okay? You know that in verbally inspired, inerrant Scriptures there can’t be any errors, right?”

“Righto.”

“Okay, I’ll rewrite it as ‘He WILL rise up from Mt. Seir … He WILL shine forth from Paran.”

“No, you won’t,” said the Lord. “You won’t rewrite nothin’. Leave it just as it is.”

“But why?” objected Moses. “That would be telling a lie, wouldn’t it, if I didn’t change it? It hasn’t happened yet. If I leave it as it is, it will mislead some Hebrew professor or Doctor of Theology down at Liberty University in Lynchburg or Heidelberg or Stuttgart or Dallas, and they will think it was a reference to Exodus 20!”

“Tough apples,” replied the Almighty. “If those stupid Bible teachers read Exodus 20 and believed it, they would know it wasn’t a cross reference to Deuteronomy 33. Let ‘em get messed up. Do them good. They mess with my Book so I mess with their minds.” “But God!” exclaimed Moses, “how can you write something about the future in the past tense when it hasn’t even happened yet?”

“Simple, child: as far as I’m concerned, everything I’m telling you has already happened. I’m writing this Book BACKWARDS. Now leave it as it is, and leave that thing in Deuteronomy 32:43 as it is, even though I just told you to wipe out the “nations” (Deut. 19:1, 12:29). You’re about 2,500 years off base trying to future things out; Isaiah had that same trouble. Every time I told that rascal to write ‘was wounded’ or ‘hath borne’ or “we were healed,’ he kept pulling out his Grammar textbook on me and lecturing me on verb tenses! Ole’ Isaiah was getting ready to refuse to print what I was giving him by inspiration! That character! He was actually going to write down ‘He is going to bear our sorrows … he will carry our sorrows’ ( Isa. 53:4), the ‘Lord will lay our iniquities on Him … He will be taken from prison’ ( Isa. 53:8), etc.

“You birds are a stubborn lot. You think there is only one way to write something prophetic. I can use the past tense, the present tense, the linear tense, the aorist tense, the future tense, the imperfect tense, or the pluperfect, and it will still be ‘grammatically’ correct.

“If ‘I AM THAT I AM’ (Exod. 3:14), I can handle past, present, and future tenses with no more trouble than you dudes could handle a hair brush.”

And that ended that little conversation.

However, it didn’t answer one problem that any Greek or Hebrew professor (or Doctor of Philosophy or Master of Theology) had with any Biblical text. They just broke their fool necks, as usual.

When Joshua was writing “the wars of the Lord” (Num. 21:14) in the Book of the Upright (“Jasher”— Josh. 10:13), he looked up at “the captain of the Lord’s host” (Josh. 5:14-15) and asked, “How come you stopped the sun and the moon for me and didn’t do it for Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, or anybody else?”

“Because your name is ‘Joshua’,” replied the Lord.

“Well, what of it?”
“Well, you see, I’ve got another ‘Joshua’ comin’ along later (Acts 7:45), and He is going to do what you are doing now, and I’m going to freeze the sun and the moon for Him (Hab. 3:11).

“When will that be?” asked Joshua.

“Oh, somewhere around 3,410 years from now, give or take a few years I might not count (Job 3:39).”

“Are you going to record that in your Book too?”

“Sure as shootin’. I’ve got a scribe all lined up named Habakkuk who is already to lay the whole thing out (Hab. 3:11). I’ll let his prophecy come to pass when I finally fulfill that promise (Gen. 3:15) I made to Eve (Hab. 3:13). I think I’ll throw in some horses too (Hab. 3:15) since my second Joshua is going to be a cavalry commander (Rev. 19:10-16); you know! Trig-ger, Rex, Silver, etc., all that kind of thing.”

“Yeeaahh, sure,” mumbled Joshua. “All THAT kinda thing!”

“You see, General, I’m putting most of the information about the end of history at the beginning of history. Since I have already seen Genesis 3:15 and Habakkuk 3:11 fulfilled, I am having you go through something he mentions that will not happen until 2,500 years after HE is dead.

“As a matter of fact, Joshua, what you just went through with Caleb back there forty years ago is still future, although it already is now in the past.”

“Yeeaah, sure, sure,” mumbled Joshua. “Have you been eating too much sugar in your breakfast food?” The Lord laughed. “No, Joshua, it’s just that history always repeats itself (Ecc. 1), so I’m going to get a writer up around A.D. 50, somewhere, to give Israel the same challenge that you and Caleb gave them in Numbers 13-14 (Heb. 3:10-4:8). I’ll lay it on Israel about A.D. 1948. Now go on and finish your book.” Joshua did, and then, shortly thereafter, he died (Josh. 24). Two generations later, the children of Israel went to pieces (Judg. 1-4), intermingled with the heathen, and picked up their “ethnic cultures.” They taught that it “enriched” their own “cultural traditions,” etc., blah, blah, blah.

After several hundred years, the Lord decided that Samuel should write out a history of the Judges, so He gave Sammy a pen and said, “Be sure to write down that duet that Barak and Deborah sang in Judges 5. That’s an ace; it’s first-page; priceless.”

The copyist began. He had not gone six verses into the musical selection than he stopped, looked nervously at the Angel of the Lord (Acts 7:30; Exod. 3:4) standing beside him and said: “Would you mind tellin’ me what in the ever-lovin’-blue-eyed world this mess is all about (vss. 4-5)?

“One: you did not go out of ‘Seir’ or ‘Edom’ when Barak fought Sisera ‘by the waters of Megiddo’ (Judg. 5:4, 19). Two: The Kishon river isn’t within 100 miles of Seir. And Three (look at this deal!): Look at this business about the ‘clouds’ in heaven dropping ‘water’ (Judg. 5:4). You know perfectly well that not one drop of water fell the whole time Israel camped at the base of Mt. Sinai. What is this RAIN doing here?”

“You callin’ me a liar, like Jeremiah did (Jer. 15:18)?”
“No, Lord, no! But my goodness! What a messed-up Book! Would you please explain that there ‘water’ to me?”

“Well, if you’d like for me to, but I doubt if it will help you much. I don’t think anybody would get the gist of it if I did explain it to them; certainly no faculty members of any Christian university, college, or seminary in the United States were able to figure it out 3,300 years after you wrote it down.

“You see, Sam, when it rains it pours.”

“Morton’s salt?”

“No, no. I mean Elijah will have to turn the water spigot off and on twice; once in 820 B.C. and then again around A.D. 2001-plus. So when it starts to rain after three-and-one-half years of drought, I am going to give ‘em a double downpour (Joel 2:23). And the second time I do that the LORD will come from Sinai (Deut. 33:2) and pass through Edom near Mt. Seir (Hab. 3:3); then He will cross the brook Kidron (east to west, naturally!) and land on the Mount of Olives (Zech 14)!

“Simple, ain’t it? A regular ‘piece a’ cake’.”

“I don’t get it,” said Samuel, sullenly.

“Well, don’t worry too much about it. Neither did David when he wrote Psalm 18 and his ‘swan song’ (2 Sam. 23:4). But boys! when it rains, it POURS (Psa. 68:8-9)!”

“How much? As much as fell on Noah?”

“No, but I’ll give them twice as much at one time as they ordinarily got in two seasons (Joel 2:23), and that’ll mess up those demon-possessed Charismatics so bad (1901-2000) they’ll never git over it!”

Having received little or no “light on the text,” Samuel went back to work; that is, he continued to work till he got to verse 20 (Judg 5); then he could contain himself no longer. He spoke up again: “Now, Lord, don’t get me wrong. I don’t mean to be ‘picky,’ but would You mind tellin’ me who is going to fight “from heaven” (Judg. 5:20)?

“Well, the STARS are,” answered the Everlasting Father. “Didn’t you see the whole sentence you wrote?”

Samuel bowed over his manuscript and then looked up and asked, “Whoever heard of ‘stars’ fighting? Stars are like the sun, aren’t they? Kinda like planets? How could they fight?”

“Well, now, aren’t angels called ‘stars’?”

“Beats the fire out of me. I don’t know when you told anyone that.”

“Well, I did way back in A.D. 90. I told John that (Rev. 1:20).”

“Way BACK in A.D. 90? Why, it isn’t even 90 B.C. yet!”

“Yes, back, Sammy, BACK. I told you I am writing BACKWARDS.”

Samuel frowned, stared hard at his “Author.” For a moment he said nothing. Finally, he said, slowly, “I see. This is another one of those ‘endtime’ things, again, is it?”
“Verily, verily, verily it am!”

“Then the endtime ENDS in A.D. 90, does it?”

“Oh no. I just had John write down that stuff about angels (Rev. 1:20, 9:1, 12:3-4). Those ‘stars’ don’t go to work till the Great Tribulation takes place (Rev. 12:3-4) and that will be at least 1,800 years after John writes his book.”

“Are you telling me, then, that when I wrote Judges 5:20 I was writing about something that won’t take place in history till after A.D. 2000?”

“Precisely. Right on the money.”

Samuel sighed, shifted his sitting position, and said, “Am I the only writer in this wild, crazy Book that is going to write in this fashion?”

“No, not at all. As a matter of fact, I have some scribes that will write in exactly the same fashion. I intend them to write passages just like the ones you’re writing now. When you finally get up here with me (after you’ve been in Abraham’s bosom for a while [1 Sam. 28:15]), I’ll let you read at least 300 verses like the ones you are working on now. They will be found in Ruth 2-3; 1 Samuel 2, 17; 2 Samuel 7:18, 22; 1 Kings 1-4, 8, 17, 21-22; 2 Kings 2, 4, 17, 19, 25; Ezra 1-6; Nehemiah 6-13; Esther 1-2, 6-8; Job 3, 5, 8, 1011, 15-16, 18, 20, 26, 37, 40-42; Psalm 2, 8-9, 12, 15-16, 18-19, 22-23, 25, 27, 40, 44-45, 48-49, 55, 59, 69, 72-74, 78, 82-83, 89, 110, 127, 132, 141, 148149; Proverbs 1, 8, 30-31; and then fifty more in Isaiah—Malachi. All of them will be passages just like Barak and Deborah’s ‘duet’.”

“Is this whole cotton pickin’ Book FUTURE?” “Oh no. You’ve been recording past history ever since you picked up the pen. I wasn’t giving you a bunch of parables and fables. Right now, you’re writing about the past (Judges and Ruth).”

“But you said what I wrote in Judges 5 was FUTURE!”

“Well, past, present, future, what’s the difference (Ecc. 1:9-10)?”

“I get it! I think I’m beginning to see the light! If you dwell in ETERNITY (Isa. 57:15), they would all be the same to YOU!”

“Bingo! Now you’re ‘cookin with gas’! Now you’re in step; you got the cadence now, Sammy! Now you see why this Book will always be the only One out of 23,000,000. You are a ‘son of man,’ so you know there are no ‘sons of men’ who could know everything that happened in the past (Ecc. 3:15), plus everything that is going on right now (1 Chron. 28:9-10; Ezek. 11:5) and everything that is going to take place in the next 4,000 years; right?”

“Oh, of course; that goes without saying.”

“Well, I’m going to say it (Isa. 41:22), so it can’t go anywhere without everybody hearing about it (Psa. 19:1-5).”

So, on went the Book!

And the further it went, the more time the Author seemed to take out to ridicule highly-educated, religious intellectuals (Jer. 10:6-7, 8:8-9; Isa. 28:9, 29:1113; Ezek. 28:1-9, Jer. 23:15-31; 1 Cor. 1:18-25, 2:47).
It would seem as though this vicious, narrowminded, bigoted “classist,” this intolerant, insensitive Mid-Victorian sexist, this rude and crude, uncouth, hateful “racist” delighted in name-calling. All mixed up with poetic rhetoric (the Sermon on the Mount), lovely passages on brotherly love and kindness (1 Cor. 13; Eph. 4-5), and spiritual promises dealing with prosperity and blessedness (Psa. 23, 72; Rom. 8, etc.), a reader would encounter: “liars, evil beasts, slow bellies” (Titus 1), “blind guides … hypocrites … fools … whited sepulchres … vipers” (Matt. 23), “dogs … bulls of Bashan” (Psa. 22), “drunkards … adulterers … backbiters” (1 Cor. 6; James 4; Rom. 1), “wild asses … whores … harlots … thieves … wolves” (Job 24; Hosea 4; Matt. 21; Acts 20), “dumb dogs” ( Isa. 56:10), “cursed children” (2 Pet. 2:14), and “brute beasts” (2 Pet. 2:12).

Every forceful, juicy “epithet” given above was a reference to “THE MEASURE OF ALL THINGS”: man. There is no religious book in the Library of Congress that dares to addresses men or speak of “mankind” in that fashion.

The Author of THE Book decided that a good way to treat women who worshipped “the queen of heaven” (Jer. 44) was to let them eat their own children (Lam. 4:9-10), and the way to treat called, ordained, “Bible teachers” (see Ezra 7:1-6; Mal. 2:4-6; 2 Chron. 19:5-11), who apostasized from the Book, was to spread dung on their faces (Mal. 2:3).

Imagine that kind of material in a “best seller”? How is that for “the Book” of the “Book-of-the-Month Club”? The trouble was always the same. The writer was deliberately emphasizing what would take place after A.D. 2000. That was where the major actions would take place. After God had rewound His historical videos on man’s history from 4000 B.C. to A.D. 4000 and viewed them, He purposely selected those persons and events that would be connected with the First and Second Coming of His only begotten Son. That is why He never hesitated to waste fifty pages on genealogies; the people listed were all connected in some way with the human ancestry of His Son.

Since the Second Coming of His Son would bring about “the desire of all nations” (Hag. 2:7) AND the desires of His chosen nation ( Isa. 60, 62, 65), plus “bring in everlasting righteousness” (Dan. 9:24), as well as “make an end of sins” (Dan. 9:24), who could say that the Lord God had placed His “priorities” in the wrong order? Any other emphasis would have been a false emphasis; it would be incomplete. The Blood Atonement was only a partial completion of His plans. It finished the work God gave His Son to do that entailed His “sufferings” (1 Pet. 1:11), but not the “glory that should follow” (1 Pet. 1:11).

That is exactly where “modern man” would not want the emphasis to be: on the victory, power, glorification, success, and honor that would come to a man whose name they didn’t want mentioned in The Constitution, The Bill of Rights, The Declaration of Independence, The Communist Manifesto, Mao Tse Tung’s Redbook or The United Nations’s Charter.

The world has never had any use for God’s Son, and to think that the “desire of all nations” was a reference to either of His Advents is a cocaine pipe dream; a “Mexican sleighride.”

Not even the Christian leaders in the twentieth century wanted the accent placed on “bringing back our King” (2 Sam. 19:43). They were almost as terrified by the thought as the Gestapo agents of Janet Reno (the FBI in 1944-1999) had been when they pretended to “sweat-out” their “Megiddo complex” (Nov.-Sept. 1999-Jan. 2000). These psychotic crackpots were the paranoids who gassed and cremated seventeen minor children in Waco, Texas in order to save them from “child abuse.” They were four times as crazy as anyone in the “compound” at Waco and ten times as dangerous.

While they pretended to be defending American citizens against Christian “terrorists” (Sept. 1999-Jan. 2000) they were engaged in terrorizing American citizens (Seattle: Dec. 1999) who had no more to do with “Megiddo” (see Judg. 5!) than they had to do with Watergate. These paranoid news media fanatics told the whole country that people who believed in the Second Coming of Christ were teaching the “world was coming to an end” in the year 2000. Only a Bible blockhead, a Biblical illiterate (i.e., a college-educated goofball) would think of such a thing. There has never been ONE Bible-believing premillennialist on this earth who believed “the world was coming to an end” anywhere within 700 years of the year 2000.

The Justice Department, under Slick Willie, had gotten further off into the funny farm than he or his wife had. They thought that Christians who were awaiting the appearance of Jesus Christ (1 Thess. 4; 1 Cor. 15; Titus 2; 1 John 3, etc.) were prophesying “the end of the world.”

How stupid could any dunce get? Well, evidently there were more than 5,000 of them. Every major news outlet in America (TV, radio, magazines, and newspapers) picked up this insane theology of the FBI and spread it. It was spread in the U.S.A. by the greatest herd of ninnies, dumbbells, dunder-pated idiots, imbecilic buffons, and superficial lunatics as ever “trod the boards.” Most of them were church attenders and had been for years. What their priests, pastors, elders, and “rectors” had been preaching, since 1933, only God knows. It was certainly nothing that had to do with Jesus Christ returning MORE THAN 900 YEARS BEFORE “THE END OF THE WORLD” (Rev. 20; 2 Pet. 3; Isa. 65-66, etc.).

I will not be looking for the “end of the world” till somewhere around 3000. Neither will 700 members of my congregation.

The best among the real “Christian celebrities,” in the twentieth century, wanted the emphasis placed on the Crucifixion. The most “godly” among them (there were a half a dozen exceptions) thought the most important day on God’s calendar was the day that God’s Son died for THEIR sins. Did you get that word? That is what we call “SECULAR HUMANISM.” What they meant was that the Crucifixion was the most important date in THEIR “date book.” That was the day that THEY were taken care of; that was THEIR salvation. It profited THEM. Got those words yet? I know of 100,000 saved people in Florida who never noticed them.

The Wednesday that Jesus Christ was put to shame and disgrace, scourged, and nailed naked to a “tree” for THEM was the greatest “day” God ever let take place.

Man’s eternal egotism is incurable.

All “power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing” go to “the Lamb” (Rev. 5:12), not a pack of saved sinners of any hue or background.
These honors never went to “THE LAMB” the first time He showed up (Isa. 53; Psa. 22), so God dumped the real load of Scripture on the last 2,000 years of history (A.D. 200-4000) instead of the first 3,000 (4000 B.C. to 1000 B.C.), or even the “middle” 2000 (1000 B.C. to A.D. 1000). He neatly disguised the whole operation so the most brilliant intellectuals in six continents in the Renaissance, the Age of Enlightenment, the Age of Reason, the Atomic Age, the Space Age, and the “New Age” could not find out what He was up to.

Without an IQ of 800, no “brilliant intellectual” would ever be able to figure out a Book where the Author was putting future events in the past tense and (at the same time) predicting that some man later would put the same information in the future tense WHEN THE WRITER HAD ALREADY SEEN THE EVENT TAKE PLACE, IN PART!

There are no “brilliant intellectuals” anywhere in the UN or the New Age, on six continents, who can handle the “one out of 23,000,000.” Some poor, dumb thump like Mohammed or Joseph Smith, or some inept bungler like “Moroni” or Gautama Buddha, or some half-baked, sophisticated quack like Robert Shuller or the Rev. Moon could no more write a Book like that than they could stand on their heads, with their mouth full of peanut butter, and whistle “Dixie.”

We repeat! In order to write what you read when you read a Holy Bible, in the universal language of the end time (An English Authorized Version), the Writer would have had to take his position up beyond the year 3000, and then record what He saw take place BEHIND HIM between 4000 B.C. and A.D. 3000.

Hello? Helooho? Anyone there? No “recorded message”? Any of you “prophets,” “soothsayers,” “news analysts,” “monthly prognosticators,” “seers,” “astrological readers,” or “fortune tellers” anywhere in the vicinity? Why don’t one of you answer the phone? It has been ringing since Isaiah wrote Isaiah 40-48; that would be more than 2,800 years. Isn’t it about time you answered the phone or took the cotton’ pickin’ thing off the hook?

Isaiah 44:6, 8: “Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God …. Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any.”

Isaiah 46:9: “Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me,” “Vas you der Sharlie?” (American circa; 1938). Evidently none of you were. I certainly wasn’t “there.” Allah’s “apostle” was as missing as a peach tree on top of Mount Everest.

If “Mohammed” never came back, anyone could adopt his “religion” from Surah 1 to Surah 114, if they wanted to. If Moroni or Joe Smith never turned up again, anyone could be a “Mormon.” If Buddha failed to show up at “Megiddo,” it wouldn’t be any wind out of anyone’s sails; anyone could attain Prajna (or Samadhi) without him. If the Lord Jesus Christ failed to come back, YOU COULD NOT FIND, ON THIS EARTH, ONE “CHRISTIAN” WHO WAS ANYTHING BUT A DECEIVED, BALD-FACED LIAR.
There is only ONE “religion” on this earth where the “founder” must come back to reign over the entire earth; and it is not Catholicism, Protestantism, Judaism, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Hinduism, Islam, or Buddhism.

Not even the wisest philosopher who ever lived (1 Kings 3:12) could understand THE Book without God Himself opening the Book (Rev. 5) to him (Luke 24:45; 1 Cor. 2:7-13). The apostle John told you that Jesus Christ was “THE TRUE GOD” (1 John 5:20); not one member of the CFR or the FBI or the UN or the ECC believes that.

God’s Book is open to “search” but not as an object of “research” (John 5:39) by any scientist. Without the assistance of the Author (John 6:63; Luke 24:32; Rev. 5), the contents of that Book are absolutely inscrutable.

Contrariwise, no one needs the “author” of The Koran present to understand it; no one needs Joe Smith present to understand the Book of Mormon; no one needs Buddha present to understand his sayings or his teachings; no one needs any FOUNDER of any religion present to understand ANYTHING any founder of any religion wrote, except ONE! Guess which one!

Antithetically, there is only one Book: out of 23,000,000. Place your bets! Last chance! The game is about over.

This hated, despised, ignored, loved, rejected, honored “best seller” has gone by Popes, kings, presidents, priests, pastors, scholars, scholastics, scientists, philanthropists, monks, nuns, governors, professors, senators, congressmen, artists, musicians, philosophers, Bible teachers, Hebrew and Greek teachers, Greek scholars, rabbis, generals, witch doctors, mayors, atheists, and “chairmen” like a cheetah bypassing a flock of crippled goats.

It has been running circles around ALL of them for more than twenty centuries.

When these “goats”—that is what Jesus Christ called them (Matt. 25:32-33. Gotcha again, didn’t it!)—finally get together (Zeph. 3:8), in order to fulfill God’s Book (Matt. 13), they will prove beyond all “cavil” that they had no more spiritual understanding of the true God, or His operations in human history, than a blind mosquito, no more actual reading ability (on a sixth-grade level) than a two-year-old Eskimo, and no more intellectual grasp of any “faith’s scripture” than a fornicating, whoremongering Pope (Sergius III or John XII, for example: Boo! Gotcha again!).

Surpassing the bounds of religious fantasy, these “goat nations” (Christ’s terminology, not mine—Matt. 25:33) will claim that they have been called to (and “engaged in” for 6,000 years) “spreading the kingdom” by “peace keeping processes” so that man can have “peace on earth to men of good will.” If you doubted that fantastic, hypocritical lying for one minute then drive to the largest jungle in the United States (New York City) and observe part of Isaiah 11 (from a King James 1611 Authorized Version!) plastered on a wall just across the street from the UN assembly building! So help me, Mother Teresa, that is all that godless assembly knew about prophecy, in a Book written by their Creator.

The passage was not a reference to “Christian terrorists” who troubled the FBI; it was a passage on the Second Coming of Christ.

The miserable abjects who posted it there removed the application that God had made to His own Son as “King of Jacob” (Luke 1:30-33; Psa. 2) and appropriated it for the greatest warmongering outfit that ever met in an international hog-wallow (New York City: referred to by the Sanitation Department as “STINK city,” the teachers as “STUPID city,” and the New York police force as “DEATH city”).

The Book had torn past them like a Cheetah outracing a flock of billygoats. It had shredded their minds. They had messed with the Book (converting the Second Advent of the “King of kings” into their own efforts to bring in “peace on earth” by spreading International Socialism, enforced by an international “police force”). They did this while hosting eighty-eight wars (1950-2000).

To this day, they have not figured out fourth-grade English from an English Bible printed in 1611. So their destiny is to fulfill the words of that Bible (Zeph. 3:8) to the letter, and they will, whether they want to or not. In this case, ignorance (Hosea 4:6) is not bliss; it is monsters (Rev. 9), a world-wide Satanic dictatorship (2 Thess. 2; Rev. 13), genocides (Rev. 13), spiritual damnation (Rev. 14), Death and Hell (Rev. 6), and mass military slaughters (Rev. 6, 9; Joel 2).

They messed with the Book so God messed with their minds.

The Book says they will be “MAD” men (Jer. 50:38, 51:7; Zech. 14:4). They will be “madmen” in the sense of being LUNATICS (Zech. 14:4).

They will be more paranoid and schizophrenic than the FBI and SWAT teams that thought they were engaged in “law enforcement” projects. No one who saw the Waco films (1999) could ever forget old “Smilin” (“Scarface”) Al Capone, who said: “I just wanted to live and let live.”

Nutty. Just as nutty as a pecan pie. And the only nuttier fruitcake would be some news media cult addict who took either of them (the FBI or “Smiling” Al) seriously.

Never was there ever such a misleading and deceptive Book put together on this earth than the Holy Bible, for it was a two-edged sword cutting in both directions. It was aimed not only at saving sinners from Hell and granting them an eternal, sinless life, but it was just as concerned with blinding and damning sinners, permanently (Ezek. 14; 2 Thess.; Rev. 20-22).

This means that the Author must have been able to “read the minds” of anyone who picked His Book up (Heb. 4:12-13; Ezek. 14), so He had it put together in such a way (see the last five pages!) that it would be absolutely inscrutable to any sinner who was SELFRIGHTEOUS, absolutely ridiculous to any sinner who was PROUD, an insult and offense to any sinner who was IMMORAL, and absolutely “out of touch” with any sinner who was looking for alibis to sin (John 3:18).

It did not have to be written in that fashion, but it was.

All God had to do (instead of writing it the way He wrote it) was take three dozen sheets of paper and write on them, single-spaced, what every human being should do to gain eternal life, how history would end, and how a man should live on this earth in view of that.

That essential “religious” material could have been written by one scribe, in less than a week, and it would have not taken up as much space as the writer of Job used to write his book.

But the Author of “One out of 23,000,000” was pleased to handle it another way so that education, intellect, IQ intelligence, religious zeal, moral living, spiritual insights, and “genius” would not affect any sinner’s rejection or reception of the Book. If He had written it any other way it would have just been a sort of religious “pamphlet” or “booklet” (a Handbook of Religion). Instead, the Lord wrote a HISTORY Book of sixty-six volumes, covering history from 4000 B.C. to A.D. 4000. And He “took His sweet time” in doing it (Job, 1850 B.C. to Revelation, A.D. 90): 1940 years.

When He got through He had created the greatest Book that would ever show up on this planet, bar none. It has never been equaled, before or since, and never shall be. This is because the Lord’s competitors are all finite, weak, sinful, deceived, egotistical, degenerate SINNERS who don’t even know where they are going when they die. How on earth could they tell anyone else how THEY could know? Imagine! Ninety-five percent of all the world’s religious leaders to not have one solid, factual basis for knowing for certain what will happen to them after death!

Dwight L. Moody knew, Peter, Paul, and John knew. Billy Sunday and John Knox knew. How is it that not one Pope could produce a verse from any Bible (including a Catholic Bible) to prove that he would be “absent from the body … and present with the Lord” (2 Cor. 5) when he died? Imagine that agnostic charlatan (professing to be Christ’s “Vicar”) not even knowing what would happen to any of his 900,000,000 “members” at death!

And the Popes aren’t able to find out?

What a ghastly profession for a wine-drinking bachelor engaged in geopolitics!

What was the secret of somewhere around 14,000,000 Christians who were as certain of their postdeath destinations as Paul was (Rom. 8:29)?

Simple: they believed in a Book. They bet their souls on what the Book said.

Place your bets. You have five seconds left.

It is one Book versus more than 23,000,000 books.

You have “extant” those 23,000,000 books you can place your money on, if you don’t approve of those sixty-six books that literally shred human nature to pieces, negatively. Help yourself. “It’s a free country.” God never rams any of His religious ideas down anybody’s throat; that is the complaint of thin-skinned sinners who love their sins.

Don’t worry! Dear, old “Aunt” Sam will protect your precious little “rights” so God’s big, bad Book cannot “stalk” or “harass” you! Fear not, Little Miss Muffet! Mamma’s darlin’ lil’ “Goody Two Shoes” will not be intimidated by “Megiddo Terrorists”! You can go right ahead with your humanism and your ancestor’s religion (“making the world a better place to live in,” “God helps those who help themselves,” “reach out and touch others,” etc.) without fearing such a barrage of truth as can be found in Jeremiah 23; Matthew 23; John 8; Leviticus 26; Isaiah 26; Ezekiel 16, 23; or Titus 1!

“Good night, sleep tight, don’t let the bedbugs bite! Rock-a-by Baby! When the wind blows … when the bough BREAKS … !”

“Alibi-Lullaby-Bye-Bye!” (Professor Shadduck).

When you finally arrive at the Lake of Fire (Rev. 20), you’ll know that one Book was right and the other 23,000,000, including all of their “sacred Scriptures,” were just “fox-fire.” But then, it will be too late. That will be the wrong time to dump your 23,000,000 books for the right one.

Better dump ‘em now: today.

“Boast not thyself of to Morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.” (Prov. 27:1).